Item 1.01. Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 10, 2011, AGL Resources Inc., a Georgia corporation (“AGL Resources”), and its wholly-owned subsidiary, AGL Capital Corporation, a Nevada corporation (“AGL Capital”), entered into an Amended and Restated Credit Agreement (the “Credit Agreement”) among AGL Resources, as guarantor, AGL Capital, as borrower, Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (“Wells”), as administrative agent (the “Administrative Agent”) and issuing lender, SunTrust Bank and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as co-syndication agents, JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. as issuing lender, Bank of America, N.A. and The Bank of Tokyo-Mitsubishi UFJ, Ltd., as co-documentation agents, and the several banks and other financial institutions or entities from time to time parties thereto. The Credit Agreement amends and restates in its entirety, the credit agreement dated September 15, 2010 (as amended, the “Existing Credit Agreement”), among AGL Resources, as guarantor thereunder, AGL Capital, as borrower thereunder, Wells, as administrative agent thereunder and certain other agents and lenders party thereto. AGL Capital’s obligations under the Credit Agreement are unconditionally guaranteed by AGL Resources pursuant to the Guarantee Agreement, dated as of November 10, 2011, made by AGL Resources, as guarantor, in favor of the Administrative Agent for the several banks and other financial institutions or entities from time to time parties to the Credit Agreement (the “Guarantee Agreement”).

Among other things, the Credit Agreement amends and restates the Existing Credit Agreement to extend the maturity date of the Existing Credit Agreement and to increase the aggregate revolving credit commitments under the Existing Credit Agreement.

Pursuant to the Credit Agreement, AGL Capital may borrow up to $1.3 billion from time to time on a revolving basis, which, subject to certain restrictions, can be used for working capital purposes, capital expenditures, certain permitted acquisitions, stock repurchases, the issuance of letters of credit and other general corporate purposes. The Credit Agreement includes a $250 million sub-facility for letters of credit, and has an “accordion” provision whereby AGL Capital can request that the total amount it can borrow be increased to up to $1.8 billion (subject to the acceptance by existing or new lenders of additional commitments). The Credit Agreement matures on November 10, 2016 (subject to adjustment pursuant to the Credit Agreement).

At AGL Capital’s option, interest on borrowings under the Credit Agreement will be based on either the base rate or the London Inter-Bank Offered Rate (LIBOR), plus, in either case, an applicable interest margin. The base rate is the highest of (i) the prime commercial lending rate of Wells Fargo Bank, (ii) the Federal Funds Rate, as published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, plus ½ of 1%, and (iii) the one-month LIBOR plus 1%. The applicable interest margin varies from time to time based on AGL Capital’s then current credit ratings for the long-term, non-credit enhanced senior unsecured debt securities of AGL Capital (or, if there is no such debt outstanding, AGL Capital’s issuer rating then in effect) or, if no such ratings then exist for such debt of AGL Capital, the long-term non-credit enhanced senior unsecured debt securities of AGL Resources.

As of the closing, and based upon AGL Capital’s current credit ratings, base rate borrowings, based on the prime rate, would bear interest at 3.50% per annum. One-month LIBOR-based borrowings would bear interest at 1.50%.

Under the Credit Agreement, AGL Resources must have on a consolidated basis, a total debt to total capitalization ratio of no greater than 0.70:1.00, as of the end of any fiscal month or at the end of any fiscal quarter. The Credit Agreement also contains certain other covenants that, among other things, restrict liens and encumbrances, mergers and consolidations, asset dispositions, dividends and other restricted payments, loans and investments and other matters customarily restricted in such agreements. In addition, the Credit Agreement contains customary representations, affirmative covenants and events of default for facilities of this type. Upon an uncured event of default under the Credit Agreement, all amounts owing under the Credit Agreement, if any, depending on the nature of such event of default will automatically, or may upon notice by the Administrative Agent or the requisite lenders thereunder, become immediately due and payable and the lenders may terminate their commitments.

AGL Resources has had prior business relationships with most of the agents and lenders or their affiliates that are parties to the Credit Agreement, for which AGL Resources has paid customary fees and expenses. AGL Resources and its affiliates have also entered into hedging arrangements with certain lenders. Affiliates of certain of the lenders under the Credit Agreement have acted as underwriters for issuances of securities of AGL Resources and AGL Capital.

The foregoing summary of the material terms of the Credit Agreement and the Guarantee Agreement does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Credit Agreement and the Guarantee Agreement, which are filed herewith as Exhibits 10.1 and 10.2, respectively, and incorporated herein by reference. In the event of any discrepancy between the foregoing summary and the text of the agreements, the text of the agreements shall control.
