The reporting person is an employee stock ownership plan under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") with individual accounts for the accrued benefits of participating employees and their beneficiaries. The reporting person is administered by an ESOP Committee ("ESOP Committee") and its assets are held in trust by a trustee ("Plan Trustee"). The number of shares listed as beneficially owned represents the entire number of shares of Common Stock held by RS Group, Inc., as Plan Trustee, as of December 31, 2008. As of December 31, 2008, 1,997,156 of such shares of Common Stock had been allocated to individual accounts established for participating employees and their beneficiaries, and 1,328,627 of such shares were held, unallocated, for allocation in future years. In general, participating employees and their beneficiaries have the power and authority to direct the voting of shares of Common Stock allocated to their individual accounts. Such allocated shares are, therefore, not included as shares over which the reporting person has sole or shared voting power. The reporting person, through the Plan Trustee, has shared voting power over unallocated Common Stock. Any unallocated Common Stock is generally required to be voted by the Plan Trustee in the same proportion as Common Stock which has been allocated to Participants is directed to be voted. The reporting person, through the Plan Trustee, has shared dispositive power over all unallocated Common Stock held by the reporting person. The reporting person, acting through the Plan Trustee, shares dispositive power over allocated Common Stock with participating employees and their beneficiaries, who have the right to determine whether Common Stock allocated to their respective accounts will be tendered in response to a tender offer but otherwise have no dispositive power. Any unallocated Common Stock is generally required to be tendered by the Plan Trustee in a tender offer in the same proportion as Common Stock which has been allocated to Participants is directed to be tendered. In limited circumstances, ERISA may confer upon the Plan Trustee the power and duty to control the voting and tendering of Common Stock allocated to the accounts of participating employees and beneficiaries who fail to exercise their voting and/or tender rights. The reporting person disclaims voting power with respect to such allocated Common Stock. These shares have also been reported on the Schedule 13G filed by The Compensation Committee of Dime Community Bancshares, Inc. on February 6, 2009.

Item 6

Ownership of More than Five Percent on Behalf of Another Person:

Dividends on Common Stock allocated to the accounts of participating employees and their beneficiaries, to the extent paid in the form of additional securities, are added to their respective individual accounts. Dividends on Common Stock allocated to the accounts of participating employees and their beneficiaries, to the extent paid in cash, are, at the direction of the Company, either (i) credited to the respective individual accounts, (ii) distributed to the participating employees and their beneficiaries, or (iii) used to pay principal and interest on outstanding indebtedness incurred by the reporting person to acquire Common Stock. Dividends payable with respect to unallocated shares that have a record date that is after June 30, 2000 will be allocated to the accounts of participants, former participants and beneficiaries as investment earnings. The allocation to each account is calculated by multiplying the aggregate amount of such dividends by a fraction, the numerator of which is the balance credited to the account and the denominator of which is the aggregate balances credited to all accounts, all as of the last day of the quarter immediately preceding the quarter in which the dividends are received. Once allocated, such dividends may, at the discretion of the Compensation Committee, be paid out to the account holder within ninety (90) days after the end of the plan year in which they are received.
