Item 8.01 Other Events

Ming Chok, Chief Executive Officer, sent a letter to shareholders over the weekend. The purpose of the letter was to update shareholders of all current events at the Company, and plans for the future. Highlights included:

A projection of 2007 fully diluted earnings per share of seven to eight cents.

The Company currently meets all criteria for listing on the American Stock Exchange except share price. The Company plans to list on the AMEX as soon as possible.

The roll out of the first Honeywell Branded products will take place in 2007. First products to be released will be portable USB 2.0 Pocket hard drives and various sized LCD computer monitors featuring web cameras, microphones and various other features. Additional product roll outs, including LCD televisions, are scheduled for first half of 2008.

The Company issued a press release on Monday, September 10, 2007 containing a summary of the letter to shareholders. The entire letter can be found on the SOYO Group, Inc. web site at:
