With the assistance of Peacock, Hislop, Staley & Given, Inc., as placement agent, the Company recently engaged in an offering that was exempt from registration that sought the extension of the maturity date of its outstanding senior notes with an aggregate principal balance of $2,962,500. The senior notes had been issued as a series of notes that are governed by that certain Unit Purchase and Agency Agreement dated to be effective on April 19, 2004, with the senior notes originally due on July 15, 2007. The Unit Purchase and Agency Agreement provided that the Senior Notes and the Unit Purchase and Agency Agreement may be amended by a written amendment approved by a majority of note holders. Peacock notified the Company that it had obtained the written affirmative vote of a majority of Noteholders who represent more than 50% of the outstanding principal balance, and therefore the senior notes and the Unit Purchase and Agency Agreement were amended as follows:

All references in the Senior Notes, and all references in the Unit Purchase and Agency Agreement, to the "Maturity Date" and/or the "due date" shall be amended hereby to reflect the new Maturity Date and due date of July 15, 2010. All references in the Senior Notes, and all references in the Unit

All other terms and provisions of the Senior Note and the Unit Purchase and Agency Agreement not specifically amended hereby shall remain unchanged and without amendment.
