Proxy Statement

This proxy statement is being furnished to our stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of our Board of Directors for use at our Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held in the Islander Ballroom at Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino, 3950 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada, at 10:30 A.M., Las Vegas time, on Thursday, June 26, 2003, and at any and all adjournments of the meeting, for the purpose of considering and acting upon the matters referred to in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders and more fully discussed below. The terms we, our, us, and Mandalay, as used in this proxy statement, refer to Mandalay Resort Group.

This proxy statement and the accompanying form of proxy are first being mailed to stockholders on or about May 19, 2003.

Information Concerning the Annual Meeting

What matters will be voted on at the meeting?

At the meeting stockholders will vote on two matters. They are:

The election of nominees to serve on our Board of Directors; and Ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for our fiscal year ending January 31, 2004.

How does the Board recommend I vote on the proposals?

Edgar Filing: MANDALAY RESORT GROUP - Form DEF 14A

The Board recommends that you vote:

FOR each of the three nominees named in this proxy statement; and

FOR ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for our fiscal year ending January 31, 2004.

Who is entitled to vote?

Our stockholders of record as of the close of business on April 28, 2003, the record date for the meeting, are entitled to vote at the meeting or any adjournment(s) of the meeting.

How do I cast my vote?

There are two different ways you may cast your vote. You can vote by:

marking, signing and dating a proxy card and returning it in the envelope provided; or attending the meeting (if you are the registered owner of your shares, or, if your shares are held through a broker, bank or other nominee, you must bring to the meeting a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting your stock ownership as of April 28, 2003).

If I have given a proxy, how do I revoke that proxy?

Your presence at the meeting will not revoke any proxy you may have given. However, you may revoke your proxy (to the extent it has not already been voted at the meeting) if you:

give written notice of the revocation to Mandalay's Corporate Secretary, Yvette E. Landau, at 3950 Las Vegas Boulevard South, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119, which will not be effective until it is received;

submit a properly signed proxy with a later date; or vote in person at the meeting (if your shares are registered directly on Mandalay's books and not held through a broker, bank, or other nominee).

How will my proxy be voted?

If your proxy in the accompanying form is properly executed, returned to and received by us prior to the meeting and is not revoked, it will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you return your signed proxy but do not mark the boxes to show how you wish to vote on one or more of the proposals, the shares for which you have given your proxy will, in the absence of your instructions to the contrary, be voted FOR each of the nominees named in the proxy, and FOR ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for our fiscal year ending January 31, 2004.

Will my shares be voted if I do not provide my proxy?

Your shares may be voted under certain circumstances if they are held in the name of a brokerage firm or nominee. Under rules currently in effect, brokerage firms and nominees that are members of the New York Stock Exchange have the authority under the exchange's rules to vote their customers' unvoted shares on certain routine matters if the customers have not furnished voting instructions within a specified period prior to the meeting. Under these rules, the election of directors and ratification of the appointment of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors are considered to be routine matters. If you hold your shares directly in your own name, they will not be voted if you do not provide a proxy or attend the meeting and vote the shares yourself.

How many votes are needed to elect directors?

The three nominees receiving the highest number of FOR votes will be elected as directors. This is referred to as a plurality.

What if a nominee is unwilling or unable to serve?

That is not expected to occur. If it does, proxies will be voted for a substitute nominee designated by our Board of Directors.

How many votes are needed to ratify the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP to examine and report on our financial statements for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2004?

The approval of this proposal requires that the number of shares voted FOR the proposal exceed the number of shares voted AGAINST the proposal.

Are dissenters' rights applicable to either of the matters to be voted on at the meeting?

No. Dissenters' rights do not apply to either matter.

Who will count the vote?

Representatives of Wells Fargo Bank Minnesota, National Association, our transfer agent, will tabulate the votes cast at the meeting.

What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?

If you have your shares registered in multiple accounts with one or more brokers and/or our transfer agent, you will receive more than one card. Please complete and return each of the proxy cards you receive to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

How many shares can be voted?

As of April 28, 2003, the record date for the meeting, 59,342,260 shares of Mandalay common stock were issued and outstanding. Every holder of Mandalay common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held of record on the record date.

What is a quorum ?

A quorum, for purposes of the meeting, means a majority of the shares of Mandalay common stock outstanding on the record date. This quorum of our shares must be present at the meeting in order for the meeting to be held. For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, shares will be counted if they are present in person or by proxy. Shares present by proxy will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum even if the proxy does not have authority to vote on all matters.

Edgar Filing: MANDALAY RESORT GROUP - Form DEF 14A

Abstentions: Abstentions are not counted in the tally of votes FOR or AGAINST a proposal. A WITHHELD vote is the same as an abstention. Abstentions and withheld votes are counted as shares present at the meeting for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Broker Non-Votes: Broker non-votes occur when shares held by a broker are not voted with respect to a proposal because (1) the broker has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner of the shares, and (2) the broker lacks the authority to vote the shares at the broker's discretion. Broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of either of the matters being voted upon at the meeting, but will be counted as shares present and entitled to be voted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Who can attend the Annual Meeting?

All stockholders of Mandalay who owned shares on April 28, 2003 can attend. Just check the box on your proxy and bring the Admission Ticket included in your proxy statement with you to the meeting.

Please note that the Admission Ticket will be required in order to obtain admission to the meeting. Accordingly, the Admission Ticket should not be returned with your proxy. If your shares are held in a brokerage account, you will also need to bring a copy of your brokerage account statement (which you can obtain from your broker) reflecting your stock ownership as of April 28, 2003.

How will voting on any other business be conducted?

We do not know of any business to be considered at the meeting other than the proposals described in this proxy statement. However, if any other business is presented at the meeting, a proxy in the accompanying form will give authority to Michael S. Ensign and Yvette E. Landau to vote on such matters at their discretion and they intend to do so in accordance with their best judgment on any such matter.

Who will pay the cost of this proxy solicitation and how will the solicitation be conducted?

Mandalay will pay the expenses of soliciting proxies in the form included with this proxy statement, including the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing material in connection with the solicitation. In addition to the use of the mail, Mandalay's directors, executive officers and employees may solicit proxies personally or by telephone or telegraph. Mandalay has also hired Altman Group, Inc. to assist in the solicitation of votes at an estimated cost of $5,500, plus its out-of-pocket expenses. We will also reimburse brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding proxy and solicitation materials to stockholders.

Item 1 - Election of Directors and Nominee Biographies

What is the makeup of the Board of Directors?

Our Board of Directors has not less than six and not more than 11 members as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. The directors, which currently number nine, are divided into three classes, with each class serving for a three-year period. The stockholders elect the members of one of the three classes each year. Item 2 - Ratification of Selection of Independent Auditors

The Board of Directors has selected Deloitte & Touche LLP (Deloitte) as Mandalay s independent auditors for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2004. Although not required by law or otherwise, the selection is being submitted to the stockholders for ratification as a matter of corporate policy.

We anticipate that a representative of Deloitte will be present at the meeting and, if present, this representative will be given the opportunity to make a statement if he desires to do so. We also anticipate that this representative will be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

On May 14, 2002, the Board of Directors selected Deloitte as Mandalay's independent auditors for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2003. The selection of Deloitte was recommended to the Board of Directors by its Audit Committee, and the selection was ratified by the stockholders at our 2002 annual meeting of stockholders. Deloitte was selected as our auditor in 2002 to replace Arthur Andersen LLP (Andersen), an international firm of certified public accountants, which has audited Mandalay's financial statements since 1980.

The decision to change auditors was not the result of any disagreement with Andersen with respect to any reporting or disclosure requirement applicable to Mandalay. The reports of Andersen on Mandalay's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2002 and 2001 did not contain an adverse opinion or a disclaimer of opinion and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope, or accounting principles. During our fiscal years ended January 31, 2002 and 2001 and the interim period from February 1, 2002 through May 14, 2002, there were no disagreements with Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope and procedure which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Andersen, would have caused Andersen to make reference to the matter in their report. During such fiscal years and interim period there were no reportable events, as that term is defined in paragraph (a)(1)(v) of Item 304 of Securities and Exchange Commission Regulation S-K. During such fiscal years and interim period Andersen did not advise us that the internal controls necessary for Mandalay to develop reliable financial statements did not exist, or of any material matters with respect to our reports or financial statements or of information that had come to its attention that had led it to no longer be able to rely on our management's representations, or that made it unwilling to be associated with the financial statements prepared by our management, or that led it to advise us of the need to expand significantly the scope of its audit or that led it to question the fairness or reliability of its previously issued audit reports or the underlying financial statements or any financial statements that may be issued covering any fiscal period subsequent to the date of the most recent financial statements covered by an audit report.

During our fiscal years ended January 31, 2002 and 2001 and the interim period prior to our engagement of Deloitte, we did not consult Deloitte with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on Mandalay's consolidated financial statements, or on any matter on which there was a disagreement with Andersen or which constituted a reportable event, as described above.

Audit Fees

Audit fees billed to Mandalay by Deloitte during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 for the audit of our annual financial statements and the review of the financial statements included in our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q totaled $880,000. Of this amount, $302,500 was incurred for the reaudit of our financial statements for the fiscal years ended January 31, 2000, 2001 and 2002, which had originally been audited by Andersen. The previously filed financial statements were not restated and the audit report of Deloitte expressed an unqualified opinion.

Financial Information Systems Design and Implementation Fees

Mandalay did not engage Deloitte to provide advice regarding financial information systems design and implementation during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003.

All Other Fees

Fees billed to Mandalay by Deloitte during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 for all non-audit services rendered to us, including tax related services, totaled $226,000. The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors considered whether the provision of these services by Deloitte was compatible with maintaining that firm's independence.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote FOR ratification of the selection of Deloitte & Touche LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2004.

Employment Agreements

Edgar Filing: MANDALAY RESORT GROUP - Form DEF 14A

Until May 31, 2002, Michael S. Ensign, Glenn W. Schaeffer and William A. Richardson were employed pursuant to employment agreements, each of which had been in effect since they joined Mandalay on June 1, 1995. Under their agreements, Messrs. Ensign, Schaeffer and Richardson were entitled to receive during the portion of fiscal 2003 the agreements were in effect minimum base salaries per annum of $837,561, $804,057 and $837,561, respectively, plus any discretionary increases that were determined by the Board of Directors. Each agreement provided for the employee's eligibility to receive an annual bonus with a targeted annual bonus of not less than 100% of the employee's then-current base salary. Each agreement obligated Mandalay to pay the employee's current base salary and targeted bonus (plus any other amounts due to, or for the benefit of, the employee) until May 31, 2002. Each agreement also provided that if, during the term of the agreement, the employee's employment was terminated because of a Change in Control or upon the occurrence of certain other events, none of which occurred, the employee would have been entitled to receive his then current base salary and targeted bonus plus any other amounts due to, or for the benefits of, the employee for a period of 12 months. A Change of Control generally would have occurred for purposes of the agreements upon the acquisition by any person of more than 50% of Mandalay's common stock, upon the consolidation or merger of Mandalay if, as a result, the holders of Mandalay's common stock immediately prior to the transaction had owned, directly or indirectly, less than 50% of the voting power of the voting stock of the surviving entity immediately after the transaction, or if Mandalay had liquidated or dissolved or had adopted a plan of liquidation. Neither Mandalay's continued employment of Messrs. Ensign, Schaeffer and Richardson nor their respective positions with Mandalay were affected by the termination of their employment agreements on May 31, 2002.

Executive Officers Bonus Plan

We have an Executive Officers Bonus Plan which was adopted by our Board of Directors on April 26, 2000 and approved by our stockholders on June 15, 2000.

The Bonus Plan is a performance bonus plan which is designed to provide certain senior executives with incentive compensation based upon the achievement of pre-established performance goals. The Bonus Plan is intended to provide an incentive for superior work and to motivate participating officers toward even higher achievement and business results, to tie their goals and interests to those of Mandalay and its stockholders and to enable Mandalay to attract and retain highly qualified executive officers. Executive officers at the level of vice president or above may be eligible to participate in the Bonus Plan. Prior to, or at the time of, establishment of the performance objectives for a performance period, which will generally be the fiscal year, the Committee designated under the Bonus Plan (currently the Compensation Committee (the Committee)) designates the specific executive officers who will participate in the Bonus Plan for that performance period. Messrs. Ensign, Schaeffer and Richardson have been designated to participate in the Bonus Plan for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2004.

The Bonus Plan is designed to comply with Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), as that section relates to performance-based compensation. Section 162(m) generally limits to $1,000,000 the amount of tax deductible compensation that may be paid by Mandalay in a fiscal year to each of the officers named in the compensation table of its proxy statement for that fiscal year. At the beginning of each performance period and subject to the requirements of Section 162(m), the Committee establishes performance goals, specific performance objectives and objectively determinable computation formula or methods for determining each participant's bonus under the Bonus Plan for that performance period. The performance goals may include any one or more of the following corporate business criteria: stock price, market share, gross revenue, net revenue, pretax income, operating income, cash flow, earnings per share, return on equity, return on invested capital or assets, cost reductions and savings, return on revenues, productivity or any variations of the preceding criteria. In addition, to the extent consistent with the goal of providing for deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Code, performance goals may include a participant's attainment of personal objectives with respect to any of the foregoing performance goals or implementing policies and plans, negotiating transactions and sales, developing long-term business goals or exercising managerial responsibility.

At or after the end of each performance period, the Committee is required by the terms of the Bonus Plan to certify in writing whether the pre-established performance goals and objectives have been satisfied in such performance period. The actual bonus award for any participant for a performance period will then be determined based upon the pre-established computation formulae or methods. In no event will any bonus award for any fiscal year exceed the lesser of 150% of the participant's annual base salary as in effect at the beginning of the fiscal year or $2,500,000. The Committee has no discretion to increase the amount of any participant's bonus under the Bonus Plan as so determined, but may reduce the amount of, or totally eliminate, the bonus if the Committee determines, in its absolute and sole discretion, that such a reduction or elimination is appropriate in order to reflect the participant's performance or unanticipated factors. In no event will the aggregate amount of all bonuses payable in any plan year under the Bonus Plan exceed 10% of Mandalay's average annual income before taxes during its preceding five fiscal years. The limitations in the Bonus Plan on the Committee's discretion to award bonuses do not, however, limit the Committee's ability to award additional bonuses outside the Bonus Plan.

Approved awards under the Bonus Plan are payable in cash as soon as is practicable after the end of each performance period and after the Committee has certified in writing that the relevant performance goals were achieved. Awards that are otherwise payable to a participant who is not employed by Mandalay as of the last day of a performance period will be prorated or eliminated pursuant to specified provisions of the Bonus Plan. A participant will recognize ordinary taxable income upon receipt of payments under the Bonus Plan.

Pension Plan

The following table shows the estimated annual benefits payable to Tier I participants under Mandalay's Supplementary Executive Retirement Plan (the SERP) at normal retirement (which is age 65), based on years of service credited under the SERP and the participant's final compensation, as determined under the SERP. The amounts payable to Tier I participants represent the highest level of benefits available under the SERP.

*The amounts set forth in the table are computed as an annual benefit payable in the form of a straight-life annuity, commencing following the participant's attainment of age 65, the normal retirement age under the SERP. The benefits listed in the table are not subject to any deduction for Social Security or other offset amounts. The terms of the SERP permit a participant to retire as early as age 55, in which event he or she will be entitled to receive the annual retirement benefit determined as of the actual retirement date, subject to reduction of the benefit (if the date of retirement is before age 60) at the rate of 5% per annum for the period between the retirement date and the participant's 60th birthday.

The amount of a participant's remuneration for purposes of determining benefits under the table is his or her highest annual compensation during any of the last five full calendar years the participant is employed (or such smaller number of full calendar years if the participant has not worked for five years at the time of terminating his or her employment) or the 12-month period ending on the participant's termination of employment with Mandalay. Annual compensation for this purpose is the participant's base salary plus his or her bonus. The SERP limits the amount of bonus that may be taken into account for this purpose to 150% of base salary. A participant is credited with a year of service under the SERP for each period of 12 full months of employment with Mandalay, but service credit for periods prior to enrollment in the plan is limited to ten years.

For purposes of determining their respective benefits pursuant to the SERP, each of our Named Executive Officers will have 14 or more credited years of service if he or she continues to be employed by Mandalay until age 65, the normal retirement age under the SERP. The credited years of service under the SERP for our Named Executive Officers as of January 31, 2003 were as follows:

Report of the Board of Directors and the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation

Introduction

The Compensation Committee of Mandalay's Board of Directors (the Committee) was responsible for establishing the policies and procedures relating to the compensation of Mandalay's executive officers for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 (fiscal 2003). The Committee also was responsible for decisions relating to the respective levels and forms of their compensation, including the awards made pursuant to Mandalay's Executive Officers' Bonus Plan and stock option plans, except as we have otherwise indicated in this report. The individuals who served on the Committee during fiscal 2003 were selected by Mandalay's Board of Directors from those directors who are nonemployee directors for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and are outside directors for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (the Code). The only individuals who served on the Committee or participated in its deliberations relating to executive compensation during fiscal 2003 were William E. Bannen, M.D. and Michael D. McKee, each of whom served as a member of the Committee for the entire fiscal year. Neither Dr. Bannen nor Mr. McKee has ever been an officer or employee of Mandalay or any subsidiary of Mandalay.

Compensation Policies

The Committee's principal objective is to promote growth in stockholder value through the establishment and implementation of compensation policies designed to attract, retain and motivate skilled and talented executives. The Committee's review of the compensation of Mandalay's executives and the actions taken by the Committee with respect to executive compensation in fiscal 2003 were guided by the following compensation policies:

To establish compensation programs designed to attract and retain highly qualified executives;

To provide motivation to Mandalay's executives through compensation that is correlated to the performance of the individual and to the performance of Mandalay;

To compensate executives in a manner that rewards both current performance and longer-term performance; and

To provide executives with a financial interest in the success of Mandalay similar to the interests of Mandalay's stockholders.

Fiscal 2003 Compensation

Consistent with the compensation policies of the Committee, the compensation of Mandalay's executive officers for fiscal 2003 included a combination of salary and bonuses to reward short-term performance. To encourage and reward longer-term performance, our executives are also awarded stock options from time to time but, during fiscal 2003, none of the executive officers was awarded stock options.

The Committee fixed the fiscal 2003 salaries of Michael S. Ensign, Mandalay's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, William A. Richardson, Vice Chairman of Mandalay's Board of Directors, and Glenn W. Schaeffer, Mandalay's President and Chief Financial Officer, at the respective levels at which they had been fixed for the prior fiscal year, before being reduced as part of the cost-cutting measures implemented in response to the terrorist attacks that occurred on September 11, 2001. The base salary of each of the other named executive officers for fiscal 2003 was fixed by Michael S. Ensign without reference to any specific criteria at a level intended to make such officer's attainment of a level of total compensation at or above that received for the prior year significantly dependent on the amount of his or her bonus for the year.

The fiscal 2003 target bonus of each executive officer whose total cash compensation could exceed $1 million in fiscal 2003 (including Michael S. Ensign, who is discussed in greater detail under "Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer," below) was fixed by the Committee at a level equal to his fiscal 2003 base salary. The bonus paid to each of these officers for fiscal 2003 was determined in part under Mandalay's Executive Officers' Bonus Plan, which was approved by stockholders on June 15, 2000 (the "Bonus Plan") and in part at the discretion of the Committee. As determined by the Committee in April 2002, under the Bonus Plan, up to 150% of the target bonus of each executive officer covered by the Bonus Plan could be earned, with one-half based on the level of Mandalay's cash flow margin for fiscal 2003 compared to the cash flow margins of a predetermined group of Mandalay's competitors, based on publicly available information (the "cash flow measure of performance"), and one-half based on a comparison of Mandalay's actual to targeted levels of net revenues for fiscal 2003 (the "net revenues measure of performance").

Based on Mandalay's performance during fiscal 2003, as measured by the cash flow measure of performance and the net revenues measure of performance, each of the executive officers eligible to receive a bonus under the Bonus Plan received a bonus equal to 100% of his target bonus.

Based on the Committee's subjective evaluation of these executives' respective responsibilities and performances during fiscal 2003 and a comparison of their fiscal 2003 compensation (in the form of salaries and bonuses under the Bonus Plan) to the compensation of the similarly situated executives at other large publicly owned gaming companies, the Committee awarded a discretionary bonus to each of the officers covered by the Bonus Plan in order to more closely align their compensation with their counterparts at comparable gaming companies.

Bonus awards to the executives not covered by the Bonus Plan are currently paid quarterly and in fiscal 2003 were determined by the Chief Executive Officer based on his subjective evaluation of these executives without reference to any specific measure of corporate performance.

In order to retain executives in the competitive environment in which Mandalay operates and to further motivate and encourage their long-term performance on behalf of stockholders, the Committee from time to time awards stock options to Mandalay's executive officers, including the Chairman of the Board. During fiscal 2003, none of the executive officers were awarded stock options. In arriving at its decision not to grant awards of stock options in fiscal 2003, the Committee considered, among other factors, the number and terms of the stock options held by each of Mandalay's executives, including the stock options granted during the prior fiscal year. Mandalay's past performance was not a factor in the Committee's decision not to grant options to its executive officers during fiscal 2003.

Compensation of the Chief Executive Officer

The compensation of Michael S. Ensign, Mandalay's Chief Executive Officer who served in that capacity throughout fiscal 2003, consisted of a base salary and bonus which were determined by the Committee. The Committee fixed Mr. Ensign's salary for fiscal 2003 at the level the Committee had fixed his salary for the prior fiscal year, before it was reduced as part of the cost-cutting measures implemented in response to the terrorist attacks that occurred on September 11, 2001.

Mr. Ensign's target bonus for fiscal 2003 was fixed by the Committee at a level equal to his fiscal 2003 base salary. The bonus paid to Mr. Ensign for fiscal 2003 was determined in part under the Bonus Plan and in part at the discretion of the Committee. As determined by the Committee in April 2002, under the Bonus Plan, up to 150% of Mr. Ensign's target bonus could be earned, with one-half based on the level of Mandalay's cash flow margin for fiscal 2003 compared to the cash flow margins of a predetermined group of Mandalay's competitors, based on publicly available information (the cash flow measure of performance), and one-half based on a comparison of Mandalay's actual to targeted levels of net revenue for fiscal 2003 (the net revenue measure of performance). Based on Mandalay's performance during fiscal 2003, as measured by the cash flow measure of performance and the net revenue measure of performance, Mr. Ensign received a bonus equal to 100% of his target bonus.

Based on the Committee's subjective evaluation of Mr. Ensign's responsibilities and performance during fiscal 2003 and a comparison of his fiscal 2003 compensation (in the form of his salary and his bonus under the Bonus Plan) to the compensation of the similarly situated executives at other large publicly owned gaming companies, the Committee awarded Mr. Ensign a discretionary bonus of $750,000 in order to more closely align his compensation with his counterparts at comparable gaming companies.

To encourage and reward Mr. Ensign's long-term performance on behalf of Mandalay's stockholders, the Committee from time to time awards him options to purchase shares of Mandalay common stock. During fiscal 2003, no stock options were awarded to Mr. Ensign. In arriving at this decision, the Committee considered, among other factors, the number and terms of the stock options held by Mr. Ensign, including the stock options granted to him during the prior fiscal year. Mandalay's past performance was not a factor in the Committee's decision.

Policy Regarding Deductibility of Compensation for Tax Purposes-Compliance with Code Section 162(m)

Section 162(m) of the Code generally disallows a tax deduction to a public company for compensation over $1 million paid to its chief executive officer or to any of its four other most highly compensated executive officers. Performance-based compensation will not be subject to the deduction limitation if certain requirements set forth in the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations are met. The Committee's policy is generally to structure the performance-based portion of the compensation for those executive officers whose compensation might be subject to the limitations of Code Section 162(m) so as to permit all of the compensation paid to those executives to be allowed as a deduction. To this end, the terms for the bonuses that might be paid to those officers whose fiscal 2003 compensation might be subject to the Section 162(m) limitation were established under the Bonus Plan to meet the requirements of Section 162(m). During the course of the Committee's year-end review of fiscal 2003 relating to its certification of the bonuses payable under the Bonus Plan, the Committee concluded that those bonuses, when added to the salaries of the participants under the Bonus Plan, did not, in the Committee's judgment, adequately compensate those executives. Accordingly, the Committee awarded the discretionary bonuses described above, notwithstanding the fact that a portion of these bonuses, would not be deductible under Section 162(m). With the exception of the discretionary bonus paid to Mr. Ensign, and a portion of the discretionary bonuses paid to Messrs. Schaeffer and Richardson (in each case, the amount by which the sum of the recipient's discretionary bonus and his fiscal 2003 salary exceeds $1 million), all of the compensation paid to Mandalay's officers for fiscal 2003 is fully deductible compensation under Section 162(m) of the Code.

As a general rule, the Committee intends to continue to structure the compensation of Mandalay's executives to permit the compensation paid to these individuals to be allowed as a deduction for federal income tax purposes. But, we may choose to provide compensation that is not deductible in order to retain or to secure the services of key executives, when we determine that such action is appropriate to more closely align the compensation of Mandalay's executives with their counterparts at comparable gaming companies, or when we otherwise determine that it is in the best interest of Mandalay to do so.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The only individuals who served as members of Mandalay's Compensation Committee during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 are the committee's current members, William E. Bannen and Michael D. McKee, each of whom served for all of fiscal 2003. Neither member of the Compensation Committee is an officer or other employee, or former officer, of Mandalay or any subsidiary of Mandalay.

The only individual who served on the Board of Directors during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 and participated in the determination of the compensation of Mandalay's executive officers for such fiscal year while also serving as an officer or employee of Mandalay was Michael S. Ensign. See Report of the Board of Directors and the Compensation Committee on Executive Compensation. Mr. Ensign served as Mandalay's Chief Executive Officer and as its Chief Operating Officer for all of fiscal 2003. Glenn W. Schaeffer, who served as Mandalay's President, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer for all of fiscal 2003, and William A. Richardson, who served as Mandalay's Vice Chairman of the Board for all of fiscal 2003, did not participate in deliberations concerning the compensation of Mandalay's executive officers for fiscal 2003.

During the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003, certain of our subsidiaries provided services to Generation 2000 LLC, a Nevada limited liability company (Generation 2000) whose members are certain of the children and grandchildren of Michael S. Ensign and William A. Richardson, our Chairman of the Board and Vice Chairman of the Board, respectively. For such services, we were paid $6,460, representing our cost of providing the services. During such fiscal year, some of our subsidiaries also sold to Generation 2000 used slot machines for which we were paid $53,914. Based on the three bids we obtained from unrelated third parties for each type of machine we sold to Generation 2000, we believe the consideration paid for the machines was at least as favorable as could have been obtained from an unrelated third party. The transactions were reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee of our Board of Directors.

Report of the Audit Committee

The Audit Committee oversees Mandalay's financial reporting process on behalf of the Board of Directors. Each member of the Audit Committee, which acts pursuant to an Audit Committee Charter approved by Mandalay's Board of Directors, qualifies as an independent director under the current listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange.

The Audit Committee's job is one of oversight. It is not the duty of the Audit Committee to prepare Mandalay's financial statements, plan or conduct audits or determine that Mandalay's financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Financial management (including the internal auditing function) of Mandalay is responsible for preparing the financial statements and maintaining internal controls and Mandalay's independent auditor is responsible for the audit of the annual financial statements and rendering an opinion as to whether those statements were prepared in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. In carrying out its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee is not providing any expert or special assurance as to Mandalay's financial statements or any professional certification as to the outside auditor's work.

In fulfilling its oversight responsibilities, the Audit Committee reviewed and discussed with management Mandalay's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003. The Audit Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP, our independent auditors, the matters required to be discussed by Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, which includes, among other items, matters related to the conduct of the audit of Mandalay's financial statements. The Audit Committee has received written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, which relates to the auditor's independence from Mandalay and its related entities, and has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP their independence from Mandalay. The Audit Committee has also considered whether the performance of the nonaudit services performed for Mandalay by Deloitte & Touche LLP during the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003 is compatible with maintaining that firm's independence.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that Mandalay's audited financial statements be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2003.
