ARCADIS ANNOUNCES AWARD OF MILAN AAP CONTRACT BY U.S. ARMY ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER VALUED IN EXCESS OF $45 MILLION

ARNHEM, THE NETHERLANDS June 10, 2004 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF, EURONEXT: ARCAD) announced today that it has been awarded a Guaranteed Fixed Price Remediation (GFPR) environmental remediation services contract for the Milan Army Ammunition Plant located in Milan, Tennessee. The contract will be executed through the Northern Regional Contracting Center of the U.S. Army at Ft. Eustis and will be performed under ARCADIS' GRiP® Remediation Program. The ten-year contract is valued in excess of $45 million.

The contract will provide for the remediation of munitions related wastes, heavy metals, solvents, and acids in the groundwater and soil at multiple sites located within the base. The contract will be performed for a guaranteed fixed price that ensures the US Army, with protections, against cost overruns and other risks. The Department of Defense (DoD) has stated that it intends to increase the use of this type of contracting vehicle for much of its upcoming environmental services work.

Steve Blake, CEO for the Company's U.S. operations, stated, "We are very pleased to receive this contract from the US Army and are committed to providing both the Army and the DoD with the means by which to close out their environmental liabilities in a timely and valued manner. We have and will continue to provide the DoD with every technical, regulatory and contractual tool available in support of its increasing commitment to cleaning up its bases under a GFPR approach."
