PRESS RELEASE

ARCADIS EXPANDS IN POLISH INFRASTRUCTURE MARKET

ARNHEM, THE NETHERLANDS September 27, 2004 ARCADIS (NASDAQ: ARCAF, Euronext: ARCAD) announced today that it has acquired 100% of the shares of the Polish infrastructure consulting and engineering firm Profil. Profil has gross revenues of approximately EUR 15 million and 150 employees. The company's figures will be consolidated into ARCADIS' results as of the fourth quarter of 2004. Profil is predominantly active in highway design, traffic management systems and traffic safety. ARCADIS is cooperating with Profil on a number of projects, including a recently announced highway project. Further financial details were not disclosed.

The acquisition of Profil is an important step for ARCADIS in the rapidly growing market for infrastructure in Poland. As a result of the recent addition of Poland to the European Union (EU), investments in infrastructure will be considerable in the coming years, as traffic and transportation installations are brought up to par with European standards. Profil, established in 1987, has its headquarters in Warsaw and offices in Gdansk, Radom and Wroclaw. The company is one of only a few originally private infrastructure-consulting firms in the country.

Harrie Noy, CEO of ARCADIS, said: "This acquisition serves to considerably expand our position in Poland and to broaden our services package, which to date mostly consists of environmental and buildings services. Poland is the largest EU accession country with some 40 million inhabitants, and given the expected investments in infrastructure, financed by European Funds, it is an important growth market. Because Profil gains access to the knowledge base of ARCADIS in (rail) infrastructure, it is also able to position itself for larger projects in the Polish market, and as a result achieve stronger growth."
