PRICE LEGACY CORPORATION
ENTERS INTO MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING TO SETTLE STOCKHOLDER LITIGATION

San Diego, CA. (December 10, 2004) Price Legacy Corporation (NASDAQ: PLRE) announced today that it and the other defendants have entered into a memorandum of understanding regarding the settlement of putative class action lawsuits filed in connection with the proposed acquisition of Price Legacy by PL Retail LLC, a joint venture between Kimco Realty Corporation and clients advised by DRA Advisors LLC. The lawsuits were filed in the Superior Court of California, County of San Diego and the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland against Price Legacy, the members of Price Legacy's board of directors and The Price Group LLC, an entity affiliated with Sol Price, a founder and major stockholder of Price Legacy.

The settlement of these lawsuits will not affect the amount of merger consideration to be paid in the merger or any other terms of the merger.

In connection with the settlement, Price Legacy has agreed to make certain additional disclosures to its stockholders, which will be included in a proxy statement supplement that will be mailed to Price Legacy stockholders on or about December 10, 2004. Subject to the completion of certain confirmatory discovery by counsel to the plaintiffs, the memorandum of understanding contemplates that the parties will enter into a settlement agreement. The settlement agreement will be subject to customary conditions including Court approval following notice to Price Legacy's stockholders and consummation of the merger. In the event that the parties enter into a settlement agreement, a hearing will be scheduled at which the Court will consider the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the settlement which, if finally approved by the Court, will resolve all of the claims that were or could have been brought in the actions being settled. In addition, in connection with the settlement, the parties contemplate that plaintiffs' counsel will petition the Court for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses in the amount of $935,000 which defendants have agreed not to oppose.

The defendants deny the allegations made in the putative class action litigation and have agreed to settle the litigation to avoid the burden and expense of further litigation, to avoid the risk of delaying the merger and to fully and finally resolve the settled claims.

As previously announced, Price Legacy's annual meeting of stockholders will be held on Monday, December 20, 2004, at 10:00 a.m. Pacific time at the Rancho Bernardo Inn, 17550 Bernardo Oaks Drive, San Diego, California. At the meeting, Price Legacy stockholders will be asked to approve and adopt the previously announced merger agreement by which Price Legacy will be acquired by PL Retail LLC. Under the terms of the merger agreement, holders of Price Legacy's common stock will receive $18.85 per share in cash plus a prorated common dividend from October 1, 2004 through the closing of the merger. Stockholders of record as of November 4, 2004, the previously announced record date for the meeting, will be eligible to vote at the meeting.
