[For Reactive Use by Customer Service Reps]
General statement

"Everyone at SBC is excited about the news that we will acquire AT&T. SBC's acquisition of AT&T is a positive step forward for our company and the whole industry. The merger will create a stronger, broader company that will be in an ideal position to serve the needs of both consumers and business customers. It will take months to close. In the meantime, you can still count on the same dedication and service you have come to expect from SBC."

Response to customer questions or concerns

Isn't this an anti-competitive move that will hurt customers and limit choices?

"No. This is a merger of complementary companies. It unites AT&T's business and enterprise strengths with SBC's consumers and small businesses. It will provide customers with more and broader choices, not fewer."

I'm an AT&T [or SBC] customer. How will this affect me? Do I need to do anything?

"No, you don't need to do anything at this point. Whatever services you have from either company will continue and are not affected by this announcement."

I'm an SBC stockholder. I don't like this plan.

"SBC believes this merger will create a strong, financially secure company that will be good for stockholders like you. I would suggest you direct any other questions or concerns about your stock ownership to Investor Relations, which you can reach via our Web site, www.sbc.com."

I'm an AT&T VoIP customer. What affect does this have on me?

"None. Your service will continue to be provided."

What affect will this have on prices for services?

"Today's announcement will not have any immediate impact on pricing"
