PROXY STATEMENT
2006 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
JUNE 1, 2006

INTRODUCTION

We are furnishing this proxy statement and the accompanying proxy card in connection with a solicitation of proxies by the board of directors ("Board" or "Board of Directors") of NYSE Group, Inc., a Delaware corporation ("NYSE Group", the "Company", "we", "us" or "our"), to be used at our 2006 annual meeting of stockholders (the "Annual Meeting") scheduled for Thursday, June 1, 2006, at 8:00 a.m., EDT, at 55 Wall Street, New York, NY.

The approximate date on which this proxy statement and the accompanying meeting notice, form of proxy and Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 are first being sent to stockholders is April 28, 2006. Whenever we refer in this proxy statement to the "Annual Meeting," we are also referring to any meeting that results from any postponement or adjournment of the June 1, 2006 meeting.

Holders of NYSE Group common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the "Common Stock"), as of the close of business on April 17, 2006, will be entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Annual Meeting. On that date, approximately 1,328 stockholders of record held 155,598,173 shares of our outstanding Common Stock.

We encourage you to vote your shares, either by voting in person at the Annual Meeting or by granting a proxy (i.e., authorizing someone to vote your shares). If you execute the attached proxy card or vote by Internet or touch-tone telephone, the individuals designated on that card (Marshall N. Carter, James S. McDonald and John A. Thain) will vote your shares according to your instructions. If any matter other than the election of directors and ratification of the appointment of our independent auditors is presented at the Annual Meeting, the designated individuals will, to the extent permissible, vote all proxies in the manner that the Board may recommend or, in the absence of such recommendation, in the manner they perceive to be in the best interests of the Company.

If you execute the enclosed proxy card but do not give instructions, your proxy will be voted as follows: FOR the election of the nominees for directors named below, FOR the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent registered public accounting firm, which we refer to as our independent auditors, for our fiscal year ending December 31, 2006 and otherwise in accordance with the recommendations of the Board or the judgment of the persons voting the proxy on any other matter properly brought before the Annual Meeting.

Information on how you may vote at the Annual Meeting (such as granting a proxy that directs how your shares should be voted, or attending the Annual Meeting in person), as well as how you can revoke a proxy, are contained in this proxy statement below under Solicitation of Proxies and Voting.

VOTING

Stockholders entitled to vote and shares outstanding

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

You may vote your shares at the Annual Meeting only if you were a stockholder of record at the close of business on April 17, 2006 (the "Record Date"). As of the Record Date, 155,598,173 shares of

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Common Stock were issued and outstanding and the Company had no other class of equity securities issued and outstanding. Subject to the voting limitations described below, you are entitled to one vote for each share of Common Stock you own. The number of shares you own (and may vote) is listed on the proxy card.

Voting limitations

Our certificate of incorporation places certain ownership and voting limits on the holders of our capital stock:

No Person, either alone or together with its Related Persons (defined in Annex A attached hereto), may beneficially own shares of our stock representing in the aggregate more than 20% of the total number of votes entitled to be cast on any matter; and

No person, either alone or together with its Related Persons, shall be entitled to vote or cause the voting of shares of our stock beneficially owned by that Person or its Related Persons to the extent that those shares would represent in the aggregate more than 10% of the total number of votes entitled to be cast on any matter, and no Person, either alone or together with its Related Persons, shall be entitled to vote more than 10% of the total number of votes entitled to be cast on any matter by virtue of agreements entered into by that Person or those Related Persons with other Persons not to vote shares of our outstanding capital stock.

Our Board of Directors may waive the provisions regarding ownership and voting limits by a resolution expressly permitting this ownership or voting (which resolution must be filed with and approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") prior to being effective), subject to a determination of the Board that:

the acquisition of beneficial ownership in excess of the ownership limits or exercise of voting rights in excess of the voting limits will not impair the ability of our regulated subsidiaries to discharge their respective responsibilities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and the rules and regulations under the Exchange Act and is otherwise in the best interests of NYSE Group and its stockholders and regulated subsidiaries;

the acquisition of beneficial ownership in excess of the ownership limits or exercise of voting rights in excess of the voting limits will not impair the SEC's ability to enforce the Exchange Act;

neither the person obtaining the waiver nor any of its Related Persons is subject to any statutory disqualification (as defined in Section 3(a)(39) of the Exchange Act) if such Person is seeking to obtain a waiver above the 20% ownership or voting level;

for so long as we directly or indirectly control NYSE Arca, NYSE Arca Equities, Inc. or any facility of NYSE Arca, neither the Person obtaining the waiver nor any of its Related Persons is an Equity Trading Permit ("ETP") Holder, an Option Trading Permit ("OTP") Holder or an OTP Firm (as such terms are defined in the rules of NYSE Arca as such rules may be in effect from time to time) if such Person is seeking to obtain a waiver above the 20% ownership or voting level; and for so long as we directly or indirectly control the NYSE or NYSE Market, Inc., neither the Person obtaining the waiver nor any of its Related Persons is a member or member organization of the NYSE if such Person is seeking to obtain a waiver above the 20% ownership or voting level.

In making these determinations, our Board of Directors may impose conditions and restrictions on the relevant stockholder or its Related Persons that it deems necessary, appropriate or desirable in furtherance of the objectives of the Exchange Act and the governance of NYSE Group. No such exception has been applied for, granted or become effective. Our Certificate of Incorporation requires us to, and we will, disregard any votes cast in excess of the voting limitations.

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

The voting limitations do not apply to a solicitation of a revocable proxy by us or by our Directors or officers on our behalf or to a solicitation of a revocable proxy by a stockholder in accordance with Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act. This exception, however, does not apply to certain solicitations by a stockholder pursuant to Rule 14a-2(b)(2) under the Exchange Act, which permits a solicitation made otherwise than on behalf of NYSE Group where the total number of persons solicited is not more than ten.

Our Certificate of Incorporation also provides that our Board of Directors has the right to require any person and its Related Persons that our Board of Directors reasonably believes to be subject to the voting or ownership restrictions summarized above, and any stockholder, including Related Persons, that at any time beneficially owns 5% or more of our then outstanding capital stock entitled to vote on any matter (and has not reported that ownership to us), to provide to us complete information as to all shares of our capital stock that such stockholder beneficially owns, as well as any other information relating to the applicability to such stockholder of the voting and ownership requirements outlined above as may reasonably be requested.

If you are a Related Person with another holder of our Common Stock where either: (i) you (either alone or with your Related Person) may vote shares of Common Stock representing more than 10% of the then outstanding votes entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, or (ii) you have entered into an agreement not to vote shares of our Common Stock, the effect of which agreement would be to enable any person, either alone or with its Related Persons, to vote or cause the voting of shares of our Common Stock that represent in the aggregate more than 10% of the then outstanding votes entitled to be cast at the Annual Meeting, then please so notify the Company by either including that information (including each Related Person's complete name) on your proxy card or by contacting the Corporate Secretary at NYSE Group, Inc., 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005.

How to vote

Submitting a Proxy via mail, the Internet or telephone

You may submit your proxy with voting instructions either by mail, touch-tone telephone or through the Internet by following the instructions set forth on the enclosed proxy card. Specifically, if you are a stockholder of record on the Record Date and:

reside within the United States, Puerto Rico or Canada, you may vote by mailing your proxy card, with voting instructions, to the address listed on your proxy card, calling the toll-free number listed on your proxy card or visiting the website address listed on your proxy card;

reside in any geographic location outside the United States, Puerto Rico or Canada, you may vote by mailing your proxy card, with voting instructions, to the address listed on your proxy card or visiting the website address indicated on your proxy card; or if you hold your shares through a broker, nominee, fiduciary or other custodian, you may vote by calling the toll-free telephone number listed on your proxy card or visiting the website address indicated on your proxy card.

If you choose to submit your proxy with voting instructions by touch-tone telephone or through the Internet, you will be required to provide your assigned control number noted on the enclosed proxy card before your proxy will be accepted. In addition to the instructions that appear on the enclosed proxy card, step-by-step instructions will be provided by recorded telephone message or at the designated website on the Internet. We must receive votes submitted via the Internet or by touch-tone telephone by 12:00 p.m. noon, EDT, on May 31, 2006 in order for them to be counted at the Annual Meeting.

Attending the Annual Meeting

You may also attend the Annual Meeting and vote your shares in person by ballot. If you plan to attend the Annual Meeting you will need to bring photo identification and proof of your ownership of our Common Stock as of the close of business on April 17, 2006, the Record Date. If you hold shares in "street name" (that is, through a bank, broker or other nominee) and would like to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person, you will need to bring an account statement or other acceptable evidence of ownership of Common Stock as of the close of business on April 17, 2006. Alternatively, in order to vote, you may contact the person in whose name your shares are registered and obtain a proxy from that person and bring it to the Annual Meeting. In accordance with our security procedures, all persons attending the Annual Meeting must present photo identification and submit to screening by metal detector and x-ray examination of all packages, handbags and luggage.

Revoking a proxy

Attending the Annual Meeting will not automatically revoke a proxy that was submitted through the Internet or by touch-tone telephone or mail

You may revoke a proxy that was submitted through the Internet or by touch-tone telephone at any time before it is exercised by executing a later-dated proxy card, by subsequently voting through the Internet or by touch-tone telephone or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person by ballot.

You may revoke a proxy that was submitted by mail at any time before it is exercised by giving written notice revoking the proxy to the Corporate Secretary, NYSE Group, Inc., 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005, by subsequently filing another proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person by ballot.

Broker authority to vote

Under NYSE rules, a member broker who holds shares in street name for customers generally has the authority to vote on certain proposals if it has transmitted proxy soliciting materials to the beneficial owner but has not received instructions from that owner. Consequently, if your broker holds shares in your name and delivers this Proxy Statement to you, the broker is entitled to vote your shares for the election of directors and ratification of the appointment of our independent auditors even if the broker does not receive voting instructions from you.

Quorum

A majority of all outstanding shares entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting constitutes a quorum (i.e., the minimum number of shares that must be present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting in order to transact business). Subject to the rules regarding the votes necessary to adopt the proposals discussed below, abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present. ("Broker non-votes" are proxies returned by brokerage firms for which no voting instructions have been received from beneficial owners.) Once a share is represented for any purpose at the Annual Meeting, it will be deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting (including any meeting resulting from an adjournment or postponement of the Annual Meeting, unless a new record date is set).

Votes necessary to adopt proposals

Under our Bylaws, a plurality of the votes cast by stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of directors. Accordingly, the directorships to be filled at the Annual Meeting will be filled by the nominees receiving the highest number of votes. In the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor of or withheld with respect to any or all nominees. Our Bylaw provisions notwithstanding, we have adopted corporate governance guidelines that include a majority vote policy for the election of directors. Under this policy, in non-contested elections, if a director nominee receives a greater number of "withheld" or "against" votes than "for" votes, the director must immediately tender his or her resignation from the Board, and the Board will decide, through a process managed by the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee and excluding the nominee in question, whether to accept the resignation. See Annex C NYSE Group, Inc. Corporate Governance Guidelines.

The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by stockholders entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is required to ratify the appointment of our independent auditors. An abstention from voting on this matter will be treated as "present" for quorum purposes. However, since an abstention is not treated as a "vote" for or against the matter, it will have no effect on the outcome of the vote.

Certain stockholder-related matters

There are no stockholder proposals to be brought before the Annual Meeting. To the extent permissible, your proxy will be voted in the manner recommended by the Board or in the discretion of the proxy holders with respect to each matter properly brought before the meeting that has not been enumerated in this proxy statement or for which no specific direction was given on the proxy card. For information regarding inclusion of stockholder proposals in our 2007 Annual Meeting, see the information in this proxy statement under Stockholder Proposals for 2007 Annual Meeting.

AVAILABILITY OF CERTAIN DOCUMENTS

Householding of Annual Meeting materials

Some banks, brokers and other nominee record holders may participate in the practice of "householding" proxy statements and their accompanying documents. This means that only one copy of our proxy statement and our Form 10-K are sent to multiple stockholders sharing the same address. We will promptly deliver a separate copy of these documents to you upon written or oral request to our Investor Relations Department at NYSE Group, Inc., 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005, (212) 656-5700 or InvestorRelations@nyse.com. If you want to receive separate copies of the proxy statement and our Form 10-K in the future, or if you are receiving multiple copies and would like to receive only one copy per household, you should contact your bank, broker or other nominee record holder, or you may contact us at the above address and phone number.

Our Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 is not proxy soliciting material.

Additional information

We are required to file annual, quarterly and current reports, proxy statements and other reports with the SEC. Copies of these filings are available through our Internet website at www.nyse.com or the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. We will furnish copies of our SEC filings (without exhibits), including our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, without charge to any stockholder upon written or oral request to our Investor Relations Department at NYSE Group, Inc., 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005, (212) 656-5700 or InvestorRelations@nyse.com.

Stockholders List

A list of the stockholders of record as of the Record Date will be available for inspection during ordinary business hours at our offices located at NYSE Group, Inc., 20 Broad Street, New York, NY, 10005, from May 18, 2006 up to the date of our Annual Meeting. To make arrangements to review the list, stockholders should contact our Corporate Secretary at (212) 656-2061. On the date of the Annual Meeting the list will be available for inspection by stockholders at the location of the Annual Meeting. In accordance with our security procedures, all persons requesting to inspect the stockholder list, either at our offices or at the location of the Annual Meeting, must present photo identification and submit to screening by metal detector and x-ray examination of all packages, handbags and luggage.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

Board of Directors

Under our certificate of incorporation, only our Board of Directors may set the number of directors who may serve on the Board at any time. Our Board of Directors currently consists of eleven directors.

At each annual meeting of the stockholders, all directors are elected for a term expiring at the next annual meeting of stockholders. Each director will hold office until the director's successor has been elected and qualified, or until the director's earlier resignation or removal. Currently, the Board of Directors consists of Marshall N. Carter (Chairman), John A. Thain (Chief Executive Officer), Ellyn L. Brown, William E. Ford, Shirley Ann Jackson, James S. McDonald, James J. McNulty, Alice M. Rivlin, Robert B. Shapiro, Karl M. von der Heyden and Edgar S. Woolard, Jr. Mr. Woolard is the only member of our Board of Directors not standing for re-election at the Annual Meeting.

2006 Annual Meeting

The Board proposes the election as directors of the persons named below under "Nominees for Election to the Board of Directors for a Term Expiring in 2007" to hold office for a term ending at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2007.

Your Vote

If you sign the enclosed proxy card and return it to the Company or submit your proxy by touch-tone telephone or Internet, your proxy will be voted for Marshall N. Carter, John A. Thain, Ellyn L. Brown, William E. Ford, Shirley Ann Jackson, James S. McDonald, Duncan M. McFarland, James J. McNulty, Alice M. Rivlin, Robert B. Shapiro, and Karl M. von der Heyden, for terms expiring at the end of the annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2007, unless you specifically indicate that you are withholding authority to vote for one or more of those nominees.

Ten of the eleven nominees are current directors of the Company, and all nominees have agreed to serve on the Board if they are elected. If any nominee is unable (or for whatever reason declines) to serve as a director at any time before the Annual Meeting, proxies may be voted for the election of a qualified substitute nominee, or else the size of the Board will be reduced.

The Board has determined, upon the recommendation of the Nominating & Governance Committee, and in accordance with our Corporate Governance Guidelines and the Candidate Nomination Policy of the NYSE Group, Inc., Board of Directors attached to this proxy statement as Annex D (the "Candidate Nomination Policy"), that all of our director nominees are "independent" within the meaning of the rules of the NYSE and NYSE Group's own director independence standards and have no material relationship with NYSE Group or its management (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with NYSE Group), with the exception of Mr. Thain, our Chief Executive Officer.

More information, including information concerning the operation of our Board as well as the security ownership and compensation of our directors, is included below in this proxy statement under Corporate Governance, Compensation and Security Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners and Management.

RATIFICATION OF SELECTION OF INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors has selected PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006. We are submitting the selection of independent auditors for stockholder ratification at the Annual Meeting. A representative of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP is expected to be present at the Annual Meeting and will be available to respond to appropriate questions from stockholders.

Our organizational documents do not require that our stockholders ratify the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as our independent auditors. We are doing so because we believe it is a matter of good corporate practice. If our stockholders do not ratify the selection, the Audit Committee will reconsider whether or not to retain PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, but still may retain them. Even if the selection is ratified, the Audit Committee, in its discretion, may change the appointment at any time during the year if it determines that such a change would be in the best interests of NYSE Group and its stockholders.

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

The Audit Committee pre-approves 100% of all audit and non-audit services rendered by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to NYSE Group or its subsidiaries. For more information regarding this policy, see Corporate Governance Audit Committee.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Overview

We are a holding company that, through our subsidiaries, operates two securities exchanges: the NYSE and NYSE Arca. We were formed in connection with the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago, which was completed on March 7, 2006.

On March 7, 2006, the date of the completion of the merger and the date preceding the date on which our stock became publicly traded, the members of our Board of Directors were Marshall N. Carter, John A. Thain, Ellyn L. Brown, William E. Ford, Shirley Ann Jackson, James S. McDonald, James J. McNulty, Alice M. Rivlin, Robert B. Shapiro, Karl M. von der Heyden and Edgar S. Woolard, Jr., all of whom had been duly appointed as directors of NYSE Group on December 1, 2005 with the exception of Mr. Thain who was appointed on May 2, 2005.

The charters of our Audit, Human Resources & Compensation and Nominating & Governance Committees, as well as our Code of Ethics and Business Conduct and Corporate Governance Guidelines, are available on our website at www.nyse.com and are available in hard copy to any stockholder upon request. We also have a Candidate Nomination Policy which is also available on our website. That policy, along with our Audit Committee Charter, Corporate Governance Guidelines, and the NYSE Group, Inc. Independence Policy of the Board of Directors ("the Independence Policy") are attached to this proxy statement as Annexes D, B, C and E, respectively.

Requirements for Directors in our Certificate of Incorporation

Our Certificate of Incorporation provides that no person that is subject to any statutory disqualification (as defined under Section 3(a)(39) of the Exchange Act) will be permitted to serve as a director of NYSE Group.

Director Independence

Our Common Stock is listed on the NYSE. Therefore, our Board of Directors must comply with the corporate governance requirements, including the director independence standards, set forth in the NYSE Listed Company Manual. Those standards require that a majority of the Board be comprised of directors that have no material relationship with the listed company. The Independence Policy goes beyond the listing standards in several respects. First, under our Independence Policy, each member of our Board, other than our Chief Executive Officer, must be independent, not just the majority required by the NYSE listing standards. Second, independence under our Independence Policy involves not only independence from the company and its management as prescribed by the NYSE listing standards, but also requires that (1) directors not be affiliated, presently or within the last three years, with any member organization of the NYSE or NYSE Arca, (2) directors not presently be employed by or affiliated with a non-member broker-dealer and (3) directors not presently be an executive officer of an issuer listed on the NYSE or NYSE Arca.

Our Audit, Human Resources & Compensation and Nominating & Governance Committees, which are described below in this section, are comprised entirely of directors who have been determined to be independent under our Independence Policy. Additionally, the members of our Audit Committee meet the criteria for independence under Rule 10A-3 under the Exchange Act.

Our full Board of Directors reviewed the independence of each board member under the standards set forth in our Independence Policy (which include the NYSE listing standards for independence). The full Board considered, among other things, transactions and relationships between each director or any member of his or her immediate family and NYSE Group and its subsidiaries and affiliates over a three-year period. The types of transactions and relationships that could be considered included direct commercial, industrial, banking, consulting, legal, accounting and charitable relationships as well as indirect relationships such as serving as a partner or officer, or holding shares, of an organization that has a relationship with NYSE Group and its subsidiaries and affiliates.

The full Board of Directors affirmatively determined that each of Marshall N. Carter, Ellyn L. Brown, William E. Ford, Shirley Ann Jackson, James S. McDonald, Duncan M. McFarland, James J. McNulty, Alice M. Rivlin, Robert B. Shapiro and Karl M. von der Heyden are independent. None of the independent directors, other than Mr. Ford, has any relationship with NYSE Group or its management, outside of their directorships on the boards of NYSE Group and its subsidiaries. The Board of Directors has determined that Mr. Ford has no material relationship. Mr. Ford's only relationship is his position with General Atlantic LLC, whose affiliated entities own approximately 6.7% of our Common Stock. The NYSE listing standards specify that "the Exchange does not view ownership of even a significant amount of stock, by itself, as a bar to an independence finding".

Annual Performance Evaluations

Because, prior to March 7, 2006, the NYSE Group conducted no material activities other than those incident to its formation and was not a publicly held company, the NYSE Group Board of Directors neither conducted a self evaluation nor evaluated itself and its committees to determine whether they were functioning effectively and to determine whether modifications were necessary. The Board of Directors intends to conduct annual evaluations in the future.

Meetings and Committees

Since December 1, 2005, the date on which our current Board was constituted, our Board of Directors held one meeting during the remainder of our 2005 fiscal year. It was held on December 1, 2005 solely for the purpose of effecting organizational matters pertaining to the merger and, accordingly, did not include an executive session of the non-management directors. Because they were not notified of the meeting, Messrs. Ford and McNulty did not attend the December 1, 2005 meeting. They subsequently waived notice. Each of our other incumbent directors attended the December 1, 2005 meeting. To date there have been three board meetings in 2006. Each of our incumbent directors has attended each of those meetings with the exception of Mr. Shapiro who was unable to attend one meeting. As a matter of Board policy, it is expected that each director will be available to attend substantially all of the meetings of the Board and any committees on which the director serves. Our Board of Directors has three standing committees, each of which is described below.

Because NYSE Group did not conduct any significant activities other than those incident to its formation and was not a publicly traded company during fiscal 2005, it did not need Board committees in 2005, and it did not have any. The following Board committees were formed on or before March 7, 2006, the date the merger was completed. On April 7, 2006, Mr. McNulty joined the Audit Committee and Mr. Ford joined the Human Resources & Compensation Committee. All of the independent directors were members of the Nominating & Governance Committee prior to April 6, 2006, when that committee was reconstituted with the membership specified below.

Audit Committee

Members: James S. McDonald (Chair), James J. McNulty, Robert B. Shapiro and Karl M. von der Heyden

All members of our Audit Committee are financially literate. Messrs. Shapiro and von der Heyden have been determined to be "audit committee financial experts" as defined by SEC rules. Mr. von der Heyden currently serves on the audit committees of five public companies. It is anticipated that by the end of June 2006, Mr. von der Heyden will conclude his service on two of the other public audit committees. In accordance with the NYSE listing standards, the Board has determined that this simultaneous service does not impair Mr. von der Heyden's ability to effectively serve on our Audit Committee. The Board of Directors has adopted an Audit Committee Charter which is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B and available on our website at www.nyse.com.

From March 7, 2006 to date, our Audit Committee has met twice. Both meetings included executive sessions and private sessions with management and private sessions with our independent auditors. The Audit Committee's responsibilities under its charter are described in detail in the report of the Audit Committee that is included in this proxy statement below under Report of the Audit Committee.

Human Resources & Compensation Committee

Members: William E. Ford, Shirley Ann Jackson, Alice M. Rivlin, Robert B. Shapiro (Chair), and Edgar S. Woolard, Jr.

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee has adopted a Compensation Committee Charter which is available on our website at www.nyse.com. From March 7, 2006 to date, our Human Resources & Compensation Committee has met once. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee's responsibilities under its charter are described in the report of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee that is included in this proxy statement under Report of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee.

Nominating & Governance Committee

Members: Marshall N. Carter, James J. McNulty, Alice M. Rivlin (Chair) and Karl M. von der Heyden

The Nominating & Governance Committee has adopted a Nominating & Governance Committee Charter which is available on our website at www.nyse.com. The Nominating & Governance Committee's responsibilities under its charter are described in the report of the Nominating & Governance Committee that is included in this proxy statement under Report of the Nominating & Governance Committee.

In identifying and recommending nominees for positions on the Board of Directors, the Nominating & Governance Committee places primary emphasis on the criteria set forth in our Corporate Governance Guidelines and Candidate Nomination Policy, which contain the minimum qualifications that nominees must meet in order for the Committee to recommend them to the Board, including independence, skills, experience, business understanding and available time.

The Committee considers each nominee on his or her individual merits, taking into account the needs of NYSE Group and the composition of the Board of Directors. Members of the Nominating & Governance Committee discuss and evaluate director candidates and may employ outside consultants to help identify director candidates.

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

The Nominating & Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by stockholders, listed companies, member organizations and public investors. The Candidate Nomination Policy is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D and provides a process for consideration of nominees recommended by stockholders.

From March 7, 2006 to date, our Nominating & Governance Committee has met once, as described in greater detail in the report of the Nominating & Governance Committee that is included in this proxy statement under Report of the Nominating & Governance Committee.

Meeting of Non-management Directors

Our non-management directors will meet regularly in executive session without management participation, as required by the NYSE listing standards. Marshall N. Carter will be the director presiding at these meetings.

Employee Complaint Procedures for Accounting, Internal Accounting Controls or Auditing Matters and Procedures for Communications with the Chairman of the Board

We have adopted a policy (1) to enable any employee of the NYSE Group who has a good-faith complaint regarding the NYSE Group's accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters to communicate that complaint directly to the Audit Committee, and (2) to enable anyone who has a concern about NYSE Group to communicate that concern directly to the Chairman of the Board of NYSE Group. Such communications may be made on a confidential or anonymous basis and may be emailed, submitted in writing or reported by phone. Employees with complaints regarding accounting matters may report them to the NYSE Group General Counsel, Richard P. Bernard, by mail to NYSE Group, Inc., 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005 or by email to rbernard@nyse.com, or through EthicsPoint, a third-party anonymous and confidential reporting website (www.ethicspoint.com) and telephone hotline (866-294-4493). Anyone wishing to communicate concerns to the Chairman of the Board, Marshall N. Carter, may mail him at the foregoing NYSE Group address or email him at mcarter@nyse.com or, alternatively, may forward their concerns through the General Counsel or Ethicspoint.

Employment Contracts and Change of Control Arrangements

Employment Agreement with John A. Thain

Mr. Thain, our Chief Executive Officer and a member of our Board of Directors, is engaged pursuant to letter agreements with NYSE to serve at an annual base salary of $4,120,000. Under these letter agreements, Mr. Thain irrevocably waived his right to participate in any employee benefit plans, programs or arrangements of the NYSE, other than participation in the medical, dental, vision and short-term disability benefit plan portions of the NYSE's welfare benefit plan and the executive medical spending program. Mr. Thain is not eligible for an incentive award and does not participate in the Capital Accumulation Plan ("CAP"), the Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan ("SERP"), the Supplemental Executive Savings Plan ("SESP"), the Employee Savings Plan (as defined below) or the Retirement Plan for Eligible Employees of the NYSE (the "Retirement Plan"). In addition, Mr. Thain has agreed to defer $120,000 of his annual base pay each year, and the NYSE has agreed to credit Mr. Thain with a deemed matching contribution equal to $120,000 per year, all to be invested in the vehicles delineated under SESP. This money may be withdrawn only after Mr. Thain reaches age 60.

Mr. Thain disclosed his then existing equity securities holdings to the NYSE in the letter agreements. Consistent with his responsibilities under the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, the letter agreements reiterate his obligation to recuse himself from matters pertaining to his former employer, The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. The NYSE employee ethics statement precluded (and our employee ethics statement precludes) employees from owning equity securities of member organizations and requires new employees to divest any of these securities within six months of employment. At the time that he accepted the position of chief executive officer, Mr. Thain had significant holdings of The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. equity securities. The NYSE Board of Directors determined to waive the divestiture requirement and, instead, to require Mr. Thain to place the securities in a blind trust.

Our Board of Directors intends to propose to Mr. Thain an amendment to his letter agreements that would reduce his annual base salary to $750,000, create performance-based incentive compensation with cash and equity targets totaling $5.25 million, for a total compensation target of $6.0 million, and cause him to participate in the benefit plans currently available to senior executives.

Letter Regarding Mrs. Kinney's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan Benefits

The minimum SERP benefits established for Mrs. Kinney are documented in a letter. If Mrs. Kinney terminates employment at age 55, she will receive a life annuity under the SERP equal to $1,000,000 per year, which will increase ratably each year until the life annuity reaches $1,250,000 per year at age 60, at which point she will continue to receive $1,250,000 per year. The present value of the SERP benefit will be paid in ten annual payments in accordance with the terms of the SERP, as soon as practicable after the date of retirement. In addition, if Mrs. Kinney terminates employment prior to age 55, she is vested in $900,000 per year payable as a life annuity commencing at age 55. These amounts are offset by Social Security benefits beginning at age 62.

Change-In-Control Severance Agreements

Prior to the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago, Archipelago had entered into employment or change-in-control severance agreements with each of Messrs. Putnam, Chai and Kevin J.P. O'Hara. Messrs. Putnam and Chai are now President and Co-Chief Operating Officer, and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of NYSE Group, respectively. Prior to his resignation effective April 12, 2006, Mr. O'Hara was Executive Vice President and Co-General Counsel of NYSE Group. Those agreements provided, among other things, that the unvested equity awards of each of Messrs. Putnam, Chai and O'Hara will vest in the event of their termination.

On December 30, 2005, Archipelago entered into modification agreements, which modified certain payments and vesting that would have otherwise occurred in 2006 following certain terminations after the completion of the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago. The modification agreements were entered into in order to help ensure (1) the executive officers would remain with the combined company following the merger, (2) compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"), which governs the taxation of arrangements that provide for the deferral of compensation, and (3) that certain significant tax-related cost savings for the combined company were achieved. In addition, the agreements helped to harmonize the compensation structure applicable to Archipelago executives after the closing of the merger with the compensation structure applicable to NYSE executives. The NYSE consented to the execution of these modification agreements.

Under the modification agreements, on December 30, 2005, (1) each of the Archipelago executive officers received a cash payment in lieu of the cash severance amount otherwise payable pursuant to the executive officer's employment agreement or change-in-control severance agreement, as applicable, and (2) each of their Archipelago restricted stock units fully vested in lieu of the accelerated vesting otherwise provided under such equity awards. In addition, the modification agreements provided that, immediately prior to the closing of the merger, up to 75% of the unvested stock options held by each of the executive officers would vest.

In the case of Mr. O'Hara, the remainder of his stock options vested upon his termination of employment in accordance with the terms of his change-in-control severance agreement.

The table below sets forth the amounts provided by the modification agreements:

	Cash Payment	Restricted Stock Options Vesting	Options Vesting
Gerald D. Putnam	$ 7,875,000	135,893	303,234
Nelson Chai	$ 2,250,000	52,906	87,778
Kevin J.P. O'Hara	$ 2,250,000	52,906	87,778

Legal Proceedings Involving Directors, Officers, Affiliates or Beneficial Owners

Matters Relating to John A. Thain

On July 12, 2005, Allison L. Wey filed a complaint in New York Supreme Court against the NYSE and the Chief Executive Officer of the NYSE, John A. Thain, alleging causes of action for fraud, negligent misrepresentation and breach of fiduciary duty, and seeking unspecified compensatory damages. Ms. Wey, a former NYSE member, alleges that in connection with the sale of her NYSE membership on March 21, 2005, she relied to her detriment on statements that Mr. Thain allegedly made to certain NYSE members on February 15, 2005 regarding the NYSE's intention to "go public." The NYSE and Mr. Thain believe that the claims are without merit. The NYSE and Mr. Thain filed an answer to the complaint on December 23, 2005; the case presently is in discovery.

On March 2, 2006, Janet Hyman, a former NYSE member, filed a complaint in New York Supreme Court against the NYSE and Mr. Thain. The complaint seeks compensatory damages for alleged breach of fiduciary duty based on a purported duty of defendants to disclose NYSE's merger discussions with Archipelago prior to Hyman's sale of her NYSE membership on March 1, 2005.

On March 15, 2006, Sylvia Lief, another former NYSE member who is represented by the same law firm as plaintiff Janet Hyman, filed a similar complaint in New York Supreme Court against the NYSE and Mr. Thain that also seeks compensatory damages for alleged breach of fiduciary duty based on a purported duty of defendants to disclose NYSE's merger discussions with Archipelago prior to Lief's sale of her NYSE membership on March 2, 2005.

On April 24, 2006, the NYSE and Mr. Thain filed motions to dismiss each of the complaints filed by plaintiffs Hyman and Lief on the ground, among others, that they had no legal duty to make the disclosures alleged by plaintiffs.

Matters Relating to Gerald D. Putnam

Mr. Putnam, our President and Co-Chief Operating Officer, is currently, or was, involved in the following legal proceedings. Archipelago had also been a party to each of the matters described below; however, subsequently, Archipelago has been dismissed from each matter.

Borsellino Litigation. In September 2000, plaintiffs Lewis Borsellino, a former business partner of Mr. Putnam and equity holder in Chicago Trading and Arbitrage ("CTA"), and I.M. Acquisitions, L.L.C., an entity owned by Mr. Borsellino, filed a complaint in Illinois State Circuit Court naming Mr. Putnam and other former members of CTA as defendants. The complaint alleged that Mr. Putnam and the other defendants secretly diverted assets of CTA to their other business ventures. The complaint also alleges that a 1998 Settlement Agreement between the parties addressing these allegations was based on fraud, and that the defendants violated their fiduciary duties with respect to plaintiffs by allegedly failing to disclose material information during the 1998 settlement negotiations. Archipelago, L.L.C. (the predecessor company to Wave Securities, L.L.C.) was also named as a defendant in this action although it was never a member of CTA.

On April 11, 2001, the court dismissed Archipelago L.L.C. and the other defendants with prejudice from the September 2000 complaint. In May 2001, the plaintiffs filed a motion to vacate the court's dismissal order and for leave to file an amended complaint against the original defendants.

In November 2001, the court granted the plaintiffs' motion and allowed the plaintiffs to file their amended complaint against Mr. Putnam and the other defendants, except Archipelago L.L.C.

On January 16, 2002, the plaintiffs filed a second amended complaint that seeks compensatory and punitive damages in excess of $80.0 million, as well as reimbursement of attorneys' fees and the cost of litigation.

On March 24, 2004, the plaintiffs filed a motion for leave to file a third amended complaint, which, if granted, would replace the second amended complaint. On April 28, 2004, the defendants filed a motion in opposition to the plaintiffs' motion for leave to file a third amended complaint.

In addition to the litigation described above, on March 23, 2004, the plaintiffs filed a separate complaint against Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. and "ArcaEx" alleging, among other things, unjust enrichment in connection with the alleged activities of the CTA member defendants, including Mr. Putnam. On September 14, 2004, the Illinois Circuit Court entered an order dismissing both Archipelago Holdings L.L.C. and "ArcaEx" from this litigation with prejudice.

Lozman Litigation. Archipelago L.L.C., Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C., Terra Nova Trading, L.L.C. ("TNT"), an investor in Archipelago and Mr. Putnam, were named as defendants in a civil action filed in the Circuit Court of Cook County, Illinois, on August 9, 1999. One plaintiff, Fane Lozman, is a former business associate of Mr. Putnam, and another plaintiff, Blue Water Partners, Inc., is a corporation owned by Mr. Lozman. Mr. Putnam was at one time its president. The wrongful conduct alleged in plaintiffs' complaint predates Archipelago's formation in December 1996. Plaintiffs alleged that Archipelago (i) breached a joint venture agreement with the plaintiffs, (ii) engaged in corporate oppression in violation of Illinois law, (iii) usurped corporate opportunities belonging to the plaintiffs in the form of the plaintiffs' "ideas" concerning electronic communication networks, electronic trading and electronic stock exchanges, (iv) breached duties of good faith and fair dealing, and (v) conspired with the other defendants to injure the plaintiffs. The lawsuit seeks, among other relief, money damages, an accounting and the imposition of a constructive trust on all property, benefits, profits and unjust enrichment the defendants have received and will receive by virtue of the alleged wrongful acts.

We believe these claims relate only to TNT's ownership in Archipelago and any direct or indirect interest of Mr. Putnam, Stuart Townsend and MarrGwen Townsend in Archipelago.

The Circuit Court dismissed all of the plaintiffs' claims against Archipelago on March 20, 2000. In April 2002, the Appellate Court of Illinois affirmed the Circuit Court's order of dismissal, except that it determined that it did not have appellate jurisdiction to review the dismissal of the plaintiffs' claims against Archipelago for usurpation of corporate opportunities, which contend that Archipelago is derivatively liable for the conduct of the remaining defendants.

With regard to the remaining claims against Mr. Putnam and TNT, a trial by jury commenced in November 2004. On December 16, 2004, the jury rendered binding verdicts on the oral and written contract claims and found that Mr. Putnam and TNT were not liable. The jury also found that the releases executed in 1995 by and between the plaintiffs and Mr. Putnam and TNT, were valid and enforceable. As for the claim that Mr. Putnam breached his fiduciary duty to the plaintiffs, the jury issued an advisory verdict to the judge in which it determined that Mr. Putnam and TNT, had usurped a corporate opportunity in violation of his fiduciary duties. The jury also answered a non-binding special interrogatory in which it valued the usurped opportunity at $2.5 million. However, the judge determined that because plaintiffs' fiduciary duty claim is equitable in nature, the judge, rather than the jury, would make the final, binding determination as to Mr. Putnam's liability under this claim and the amount of damages. On July 25, 2005, the court entered a final judgment in favor of Mr. Putnam and the other defendants on all counts including the plaintiffs' claim of usurpation of corporate opportunity and breach of fiduciary duty.

COMPENSATION

NYSE Group Director Compensation and Indemnification

NYSE Group directors, other than our Chairman and our Chief Executive Officer, are entitled to an annual fee of $75,000. The Chairman of the Board is entitled to an annual fee of $250,000. No NYSE Group director is entitled to receive an annual fee except upon request. NYSE Group directors are also reimbursed for their out-of-pocket travel expenses. During 2006, the Board of Directors plans to implement an equity compensation plan for directors.

The NYSE Group Bylaws provide indemnification to NYSE directors and others against liability arising from their service to the full extent permitted by law. NYSE Group has obtained a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy.

Executive Compensation

NYSE Group was created in 2005 for the purpose of consummating the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago. Prior to the completion of the merger on March 7, 2006, NYSE Group conducted no significant business. Thus, for the past three fiscal years, NYSE Group's officers and directors were not compensated by NYSE Group, but rather by either the NYSE or Archipelago, as and to the extent indicated below. The table below sets forth for the last three fiscal years the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer of NYSE Group and the other four most highly compensated executive officers who served as officers of NYSE Group during 2005 and who were serving as officers of the NYSE or Archipelago at the end of the last completed fiscal year.

- (1) Because the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago was not completed until after the end of 2005, the compensation for Mr. Thain and Mrs. Kinney represents compensation that they received as executive officers of the NYSE, and the compensation for Messrs. Putnam, Chai and O'Hara represents compensation that they received as executive officers of Archipelago. Mr. Thain did not join the NYSE until January 2004.
- (2) Salaries were paid to Archipelago employees on a bi-weekly basis, and in 2004 there were 27 pay periods. As a result, the 2004 salaries for Messrs. Putnam, Chai and O'Hara include their respective base salary (consisting of $750,000 in the case of Mr. Putnam and $330,000 for Messrs. Chai and O'Hara), plus a payment for one additional pay period.
- (3) The values of the restricted stock unit awards that were granted for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 were determined for each named executive officer, respectively, by multiplying the number of RSUs awarded to each named executive officer by $50.00, the closing price of Archipelago common stock on December 30, 2005, the date on which the restricted stock units vested and the underlying shares were deliverable to the named executive officers. Each restricted stock unit represents a right to receive one share of Common Stock upon vesting.
- (4) Includes the following number of stock options granted on March 16, 2005 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004: 55,700 to Mr. Putnam and 25,648 for each of Messrs. Chai and O'Hara. Such options have an exercise price of $19.30.
- (5) Effective January 1, 2004, the Capital Accumulation Plan was frozen. No further credits to the Capital Accumulation Plan have been made for services performed after December 31, 2003. Prior awards continue to vest according to the vesting schedules. The award is treated as a book entry earning the interest rate of the 10-year U.S. treasury note in effect on the last business day of the prior calendar year until it is vested. Vesting is based solely on the age of the participant and continued employment. Once vested, the awards are transferred to a Rabbi Trust, where the rate of return is based on the individual participant's selection of investment vehicles. Participants may currently choose from nine mutual funds as investment vehicles. Participants may elect to receive their vested account balances in a lump sum distribution or annual installments following termination of employment. The current vesting schedule is as follows:

Age	% Vested
56	20
57	30
58	50
60	100

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

The vesting schedule for amounts credited through the year 2000 provided similar percentage vesting but over an age range from 50 to 55 years of age.

- (6) Includes (a) NYSE company match to the executive's Employee Savings Plan account and SESP account, and (b) taxable term life insurance premiums. The NYSE permitted all employees with five weeks of vacation (those with 18 or more years of service) to "cash in" up to five vacation days per year. The NYSE also permitted all employees to similarly "cash in" up to six sick days per year. These amounts, if any, for the named executives are also included in this column. Effective January 1, 2005, the ability to "cash in" vacation and sick days was terminated. The NYSE eliminated reimbursement for initiation fees and annual dues for country clubs and other entertainment venues (other than for luncheon clubs) and for financial planning benefits, effective July 2004.
- (7) Includes a payment of $743,207 made to GSP, L.L.C., in which Mr. Putnam owns a controlling interest, to permit the payment of taxes owed for the shares of Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C.'s profits in 2004, as a limited liability company through the date of reorganization, calculated primarily based on the highest federal and state income tax rate applicable for tax withholding purposes to an individual. This amount excludes a payment of $148,404 made to Terra Nova Trading, L.L.C., in which Mr. Putnam and his wife indirectly own an interest of approximately 40%.
- (8) On March 24, 2006, Mr. O'Hara submitted his resignation, which was effective on April 12, 2006.
- (9) On December 30, 2005, Archipelago entered into agreements with Messrs. Putnam, Chai and O'Hara that accelerated cash payments that would have occurred in March 2006 following certain terminations after the completion of the merger. The NYSE consented under the merger agreement to the execution of these agreements and related cash payments of $7,875,000, $2,250,000 and $2,250,000 for Messrs. Putnam, Chai and O'Hara, respectively.
- * NYSE Group provides a private aircraft, in which it owns a shared interest, a small number of cars with drivers and an apartment in New York City to various senior executive officers exclusively for business purposes.

Stock Option Grants and Exercise in 2005

The following tables set forth information regarding stock options granted to the named executive officers set forth below in their capacity as executive officers of Archipelago. The stock underlying all such options at the time of grant was Archipelago common stock. On March 7, 2006, the NYSE and Archipelago merged becoming wholly owned subsidiaries of NYSE Group, and the underlying stock for such options was converted to NYSE Group Common Stock, and certain of these options were accelerated.

Compensation Plans

NYSE Group Compensation Plans

NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan

Generally. In order properly to reward and provide incentives for our officers, employees and outside directors, and as is customary for for-profit, public companies, we adopted and our stockholder approved the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan. The purpose of the plan is to enhance our profitability and value for the benefit of stockholders by enabling us to offer equity based incentives to our officers, employees and the outside directors and officers and employees of our subsidiaries in order to attract, retain and reward such individuals, while strengthening the mutuality of interests between those individuals and our stockholders. Officers and employees of NYSE Regulation do not participate in the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan but instead participate in a cash incentive plan.

Administration of NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee administers the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan and selects the individuals who are eligible to participate in the plan. With respect to the application of the plan to non-employee directors, our Board of Directors is expected to serve as the "Committee" and will administer the plan with respect to those directors. The NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan permits the Committee to grant stock options (non-qualified and incentive stock options), stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares and other stock-based awards (including, without limitation, restricted stock units and deferred stock units) to certain eligible employees and non-employee directors, as determined by the Committee.

Shares Reserved Under the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan. Up to 11,500,000 shares of Common Stock may be issued under the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan (subject to adjustment to reflect certain transactions and events specified in the plan). The plan's share reserve includes an additional 3,000,000 shares of Common Stock for issuance to NYSE employees in connection with the merger. If any award granted under the plan expires, terminates or is canceled without having been exercised in full, the number of shares underlying such unexercised award will again become available for awards under the plan.

The Committee has discretion to delegate all or a portion of its authority under the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan and the Committee also determines the terms and conditions of the awards at the time of grant in accordance with the terms of the plan.

Merger Transaction Restricted Stock Unit Awards. The Committee granted restricted stock unit awards to eligible non-regulatory employees of the NYSE and to certain employees of Securities Industry Automation Corporation, a two-thirds owned subsidiary of NYSE, under the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan in connection with the merger. These awards were made from the portion of the plan's share reserve authorized by the merger agreement for grants to NYSE and subsidiary employees upon completion of the merger. Each restricted stock unit award vests as follows: 50% of the award vested at the time of the grant, another 25% of the award vests one year after the grant date, and the remaining 25% of the award vests two years after the grant date. However, no shares covered by the vested portion of any restricted stock unit award will be delivered until the third anniversary of the grant date, unless otherwise determined by the Committee. Mr. Thain, our Chief Executive Officer, did not participate in this initial grant of equity awards under the Stock Incentive Plan.

Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m) and Transition Rule. The provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallow a tax deduction to a publicly-traded company for compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to its chief executive officer or any of its other four most highly compensated executive officers in any fiscal year, unless the plan and awards pursuant to which any portion of the compensation is paid meet certain requirements. Certain exceptions apply in the case of plans adopted by a private company that subsequently becomes publicly-traded.

The NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan is intended to constitute a plan described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.162-27(f)(1), pursuant to which the deduction limits under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code do not apply during the applicable transition period. In general, the transition period ends upon the earliest of: (i) the expiration of the plan (i.e., 10 years after the date the plan is approved by stockholders); (ii) the material modification of the plan; (iii) the issuance of all available stock under the plan; or (iv) the first stockholder meeting at which directors are to be elected that occurs after December 31, 2007.

Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code, enacted by Congress in the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, imposes an additional 20% income tax and interest on payments of deferred compensation to recipients that fail to meet certain payment and distribution requirements of Section 409A. The plan contains provisions that would allow us to adjust payments under award grants to comply with Section 409A. There is no penalty imposed on us for failure to comply with the payment and distribution requirements of Section 409A.

NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Annual Performance Bonus Plan

Our employees are eligible to participate in the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Annual Performance Bonus Plan. Employees hired between January and November in any fiscal year are eligible to participate in the plan in their year of hire. Employees hired in December are eligible to participate in the plan in the following year. Awards are completely discretionary and are paid in cash. The bonus, if any, is paid in January of the following year. While employees of NYSE Regulation are eligible to participate in this plan, their performance will be measured against the performance of NYSE Regulation, their particular division or department and their own individual performance.

Discretionary Pool

In addition to the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan, our Chief Executive Officer will have the authority to grant awards of shares of NYSE Group common stock to our officers and employees and the officers and employees of our subsidiaries, other than employees of NYSE Regulation, in his discretion and based on individual employee discretionary award guidelines or limits approved by our Human Resources & Compensation Committee. This discretionary pool of 50,000 shares of our Common Stock primarily will be used for performance awards for individuals who may not normally be eligible to participate in the NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan based on managerial level and will give the Chief Executive Officer the flexibility to reward officers and employees as he considers appropriate.

NYSE Compensation Plans

Generally, the NYSE adopted these plans prior to its merger with Archipelago and now maintains them for the potential benefit of certain officers and employees of NYSE Group, NYSE Market, and NYSE Regulation, except as specifically noted otherwise.

The Retirement Plan for Eligible Employees of the NYSE

The NYSE sponsors the Retirement Plan. As noted below, the Retirement Plan was frozen as of March 31, 2006. The Retirement Plan is a funded, tax-qualified, noncontributory defined-benefit pension plan that covers NYSE employees generally, but does not cover any of the named executives other than Mrs. Kinney. The NYSE pays the entire cost of plan benefits. For employees hired before June 30, 2002, benefits under the Retirement Plan are based on a set percentage of the participant's annual base salary during each year of employment, subject to certain alternative calculations to mirror a final average compensation plan. Since 1989, that percentage has been 2.35%. Employees that were employed by the NYSE on or before February 17, 1998 receive an additional benefit equal to $100 for each year of service before January 1, 1981. For employees hired after June 30, 2002, benefits are calculated as follows: (1) 1.25% of final average compensation (i.e., average annual compensation during an employee's best five years) up to the average social security wage base ($46,200 in 2005), plus (2) 1.45% of final average compensation (i.e., average annual compensation during an employee's best five years) in excess of the average social security wage base, times (3) an employee's years of plan participation. The amount of annual compensation that may be considered in calculating benefits under the Retirement Plan is limited by law. In 2006, the limit is $220,000.

Normal retirement age under the plan is age 65. However, employees can retire and receive a reduced benefit at any time after they reach age 55. Employees become vested in their benefits upon completion of five years of service with the NYSE.

The estimated annual benefits payable from the Retirement Plan in the form of a life annuity commencing at normal retirement age (age 65) for the named executive officers hired prior to July 1, 2002 are as follows: $164,000 for Mrs. Kinney. These amounts assume future salary is equal to the amounts earned in 2005.

Effective March 31, 2006, the Retirement Plan was frozen. Accrued benefits will continue to vest and will be paid according to the existing plan terms. No additional compensation or service credit will be awarded after March 31, 2006. Effective April 1, 2006, the Retirement Accumulation Plan described below was introduced.

Retirement Accumulation Plan

Effective April 1, 2006 for NYSE employees, a new employer-funded defined contribution Retirement Accumulation Plan account was established in the Employee Savings Plan.

Employees are eligible to receive a Retirement Accumulation Plan contribution beginning as of the later of April 1, 2006 or the first day of the month following the completion of the six-month eligibility requirement with the NYSE. Any service completed prior to April 1, 2006 will count toward determining eligibility for the new employer contribution.

To receive a contribution, an employee must be actively employed on December 31 of the plan year for which the Retirement Accumulation Plan contribution is made. The plan year is a calendar year. However, if employment ends during the plan year due to death, retirement (termination of employment on or after age 55) or disability, the employee (or his/her beneficiary) is eligible to receive a contribution for that year based on the employee's age at the date of the event and the employee's base salary earned during the plan year.

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

We will make annual contributions to this account based on the employee's age on December 31 and the employee's base salary earned during each plan year he/she is eligible for the plan. Since this new account becomes effective April 1, 2006, the first year's contribution will be calculated using base salary earned from April 1 to December 31, 2006.

The employer contribution amounts range from 3% to 6% of base salary depending on the employee's age according to the following schedule:

Age as of December 31	Contribution Percentage
Less than 35	3%
35 to 44	4%
45 to 54	5%
55 and over	6%

An employee will be fully vested in his/her Retirement Accumulation Plan contribution account:

after completion of five years of service with the NYSE, or at age 55, regardless of years of service.

Service with the NYSE completed before and after April 1, 2006, will count toward vesting.

Since the Retirement Accumulation Plan is an account in the Employee Savings Plan, the amounts credited to this account will be invested automatically in the investment options employees have elected for contributions under the Employee Savings Plan.

Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

The NYSE maintains the SERP for its employees who earn salary above a stipulated threshold ($184,442 in 2006) to supplement benefits under the Retirement Plan. As noted below, the SERP was frozen as of March 31, 2006. The SERP provides a base benefit to participants who have completed ten years of NYSE service or are employed by the NYSE until age 55 with at least 36 months of SERP participation. In general, the benefit is based upon years of service and the participant's annual average of the highest 60 consecutive months of salary (plus, for senior officers, two-thirds of the bonus, not to exceed annual salary). Vested benefits do not become payable until the later of age 55 or the date of retirement. Generally, the benefit under the SERP is offset by benefits paid under the Retirement Plan and Social Security benefits, and is further reduced if benefit payments commence prior to age 60. Participants may elect to receive their account balances in a lump sum distribution for those employees who were 55 or older and had 10 years of service or more as of December 31, 2004, specified annuities or annual installments following termination of employment. If the participant elects an installment payout, the account is credited with earnings based on a measurement alternative selected by the participant from among a choice of funds. Forms of distribution are currently under review for compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Effective March 31, 2006, the SERP was frozen. Accrued benefits will continue to vest and will be paid according to the existing plan terms. No additional compensation or service credits will be awarded after March 31, 2006.

Employee Savings Plans

The NYSE sponsors two substantially similar tax-qualified defined contribution plans (together, the "Employee Savings Plans" and, individually, an "Employee Savings Plan"). The New York Stock Exchange and Subsidiary Companies Employee Savings Plan covers salaried employees, and the New York Stock Exchange and Subsidiary Companies Operations Level Employee Savings Plan covers employees who are subject to a collective bargaining agreement.

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

Under the Employee Savings Plans, which are tax-qualified retirement savings plans (so-called 401(k) plans), participating employees may contribute up to 25% of their base salaries into their Employee Savings Plan accounts, on a pre-tax or after-tax basis, or both, subject to limitations under the Internal Revenue Code on the annual amount of contributions that participants may make and the amount of annual compensation that may be taken into account in computing benefits under the Employee Savings Plan. The NYSE matches the first 6% of base salaries that employees contribute to the plan. Participants are immediately vested in all contributions and all earnings or loss on those contributions.

Effective January 1, 2006, employer matching contributions for new employees will vest at the rate of 20% per year for the first five years of recognized service.

Supplemental Executive Savings Plan

The NYSE maintains the SESP to provide deferred compensation opportunities to employees who earn compensation over the limit set by the Internal Revenue Code, including the named executive officers, to supplement benefits under the Employee Savings Plan that are subject to limitations under the Internal Revenue Code, as well as to permit additional deferrals.

Generally, employees are eligible to participate in the SESP if their base salary exceeds the Internal Revenue Service limit ($44,000 in 2006) on annual contributions to a qualified savings plan divided by 0.31. A participant's account is also credited with earnings based on a measurement alternative selected by the participant from among specified alternatives. Participants may elect to receive their account balances in a lump sum distribution or annual installments following termination of employment. If the participant elects an installment payout, the account is credited with earnings based on a measurement alternative selected by the participant from among a choice of funds. Forms of distribution are currently under review for compliance with Section 409A.

The SESP is divided into three different plans: SESP A, SESP B, and SESP C. Participation in one, two, or all three of these plans depends on how much the employees earn and how much they contribute to the SESP.

SESP A. This plan is intended to be an excess plan, which allows employees to defer a percentage of base salary (up to $220,000 in 2006) which cannot be contributed to the qualified savings plan because of the $44,000 Internal Revenue Service contribution limit.

SESP B. Employees are eligible to contribute to SESP B if their annual salary exceeds $220,000 in 2006. This plan is also intended to be an excess plan, and it generally allows employees to defer up to 25% of base salary over $220,000 on a before-tax basis. The NYSE matches the first 6% of base salary that employees contribute to the plan.

SESP C. Employees are eligible to contribute to SESP C if their annual salary exceeds $220,000 in 2006. This plan allows employees to contribute more than 25% of their base salary on a before-tax basis.

Participants are always 100% vested in their pre-tax contributions, matching contributions by the NYSE and any earnings or losses thereon.

Effective January 1, 2006, matching contributions for new employees will vest at the rate of 20% per year for the first five years of recognized service.

The NYSE also maintains plans permitting senior vice presidents and above to defer amounts otherwise paid to them as bonus. There is no NYSE match under these other plans.

Capital Accumulation Plan

The NYSE sponsored the CAP for designated senior executives through the end of 2003. Effective January 1, 2004, the NYSE froze the CAP, and no further credits have been made for services performed after December 31, 2003. Existing awards will continue to vest in accordance with the plan, and will be distributed upon termination of employment. The plan provided supplemental retirement benefits to a select group of management and highly compensated employees of the NYSE who were designated as eligible to participate in the plan by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the NYSE Board of Directors. The plan is "unfunded" and is not intended to qualify under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Historically, under the CAP, each year participating executives were credited with an amount based upon a percentage of their Annual Bonus Plan award. These awards vest, for each executive, between the ages of 55 and 60, and are transferred into a Rabbi Trust as they vest. Unvested CAP amounts earn interest based upon the ten-year Treasury Bond rate as of December 31 of the prior year. Participants may elect to receive their vested account balances in a lump sum distribution or annual installments following termination of employment. If the participant elects an installment payout, the account is credited with earnings based on a measurement alternative selected by the participant from among a choice of funds. Forms of distribution are currently under review for compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. Awards are included as compensation expense in the year awarded and any related interest is included in compensation expense in the year earned.

Long-Term Incentive Deferral Plan

The NYSE sponsored a Long-Term Incentive Deferral Plan for designated senior executives through the end of fiscal year 2000. The plan permitted eligible executives to defer receipt of their long-term performance awards. Effective May 1, 2001, the Long-Term Incentive Deferral Plan was frozen. A few executives have deferred balances under this plan that will be paid upon their termination or retirement. Participants may elect to receive their vested account balances in a lump sum distribution or annual installments following termination of employment. If the participant elects an installment payout, the account is credited with earnings based on a measurement alternative selected by the participant from among a choice of funds. Forms of distribution are currently under review for compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

ICP Award Deferral Plan

The ICP Award Deferral Plan permits senior officers of the NYSE to defer receipt of their bonuses under the Annual Bonus Plan. Participants may elect to receive their vested account balances in a lump sum distribution or annual installments following termination of employment. If the participant elects an installment payout, the account is credited with earnings based on a measurement alternative selected by the participant from among a choice of funds. Forms of distribution are currently under review for compliance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code.

Severance Plans

All employees of the NYSE (other than those covered by a collective bargaining agreement or those who are non-expatriate foreign employees) are eligible to participate in the Severance Pay Plan. The Severance Pay Plan provides for basic and enhanced severance benefits upon certain terminations of employment. Basic severance benefits are equal to two weeks of an employee's base salary, less any other severance payments the employee receives from the NYSE. Managerial/professional employees are eligible for enhanced severance benefits. Enhanced severance is generally calculated at two weeks of base pay per year of service up to a maximum of 52 weeks, less any other severance the employee receives from the NYSE.

All severance benefits are paid in equal installments in accordance with the NYSE's regular payroll practices. Payment of enhanced severance benefits is conditioned upon the employee's execution of a release of claims in favor of the NYSE and its related entities.

Executive Medical Spending Plan

Senior Executives (at the Senior Vice President level or above) may be reimbursed, in total, up to $3,000 each calendar year for medical, vision, or dental expenses not covered by the NYSE's standard plans.

Effective January 1, 2006, we terminated this plan.

Archipelago Compensation Plans

We assumed the Archipelago plans in connection with the merger, with our Common Stock being substituted on a one-for-one basis for any Archipelago common stock as the underlying security of any grants under the plans. In the merger, subject to certain vesting accelerations, all outstanding options on Archipelago common stock and restricted stock units issued under the Archipelago plans prior to the merger were converted to options on our Common Stock and our restricted stock units, respectively.

Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan

Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. adopted the Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. 2000 Long-Term Incentive Plan ("Archipelago 2000 LTIP") on July 6, 2000. Later, the board of directors of Archipelago Holdings, Inc. expressly adopted and assumed, and the stockholders approved, the 2000 LTIP and amended the plan to reflect the conversion of Class A shares to Archipelago common stock.

Types of Awards Granted Under the Plan. Options to acquire and rights with respect to shares of our Common Stock have been granted under the Archipelago 2000 LTIP.

Exercisability. Subject to the applicable award agreements, no option or right granted under the 2000 Archipelago LTIP may be exercised until the earlier of (i) Archipelago's initial public offering, which has already occurred, and (ii) the fifth anniversary of the date of the grant.

Non-Transferability. Awards granted under the Archipelago 2000 LTIP are generally not transferable or assignable.

Amendment; Termination. The Board of Directors may amend, suspend or terminate the Archipelago 2000 LTIP or any portion thereof at any time.

Change in Control. In the event that Archipelago merges into or consolidates with another corporation or entity or sells all or substantially all of its assets to another corporation, the awards granted under the Archipelago 2000 LTIP will either be assumed or an equivalent award will be substituted by the successor corporation or, if not so assumed or substituted, immediately vest and be cashed out. In the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago, NYSE Group assumed the Archipelago 2000 LTIP. If the successor corporation assumes or substitutes the awards and the participant's employment is terminated without cause or if the participant quits for good reason within 18 months of the closing of the applicable transaction, then the awards will fully vest and be exercisable for at least 12 months.

Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. 2003 Long-Term Incentive Plan

Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. adopted the Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. 2003 Long-Term Incentive Plan (the "Archipelago 2003 LTIP") on August 11, 2003, and amended such plan on November 6, 2003. Later, the board of directors of Archipelago expressly adopted and assumed, and the stockholders of Archipelago approved, the Archipelago 2003 LTIP and amended the plan to reflect the conversion of Class B shares of Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. to Archipelago common stock.

Archipelago 2004 Stock Incentive Plan

Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. adopted the 2004 Stock Incentive Plan (the "Archipelago 2004 SIP"). Later, the board of directors of Archipelago expressly adopted and assumed, and the stockholders of Archipelago approved, the Archipelago 2004 SIP and amended the plan to reflect the conversion of shares of Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C. to Archipelago Holdings, Inc. common stock.

Type of Awards. The Archipelago 2004 SIP provides for grants of options, rights, dividend equivalent rights, restricted stock, restricted stock units and other equity-based awards (including unrestricted stock and performance shares).

Non-Assignability. Except to the extent otherwise provided in the award agreement or approved by the Compensation Committee, no award or right granted to any person under the Archipelago 2004 SIP will be assignable or transferable other than by will or by the laws of descent and distribution, and all awards and rights will be exercisable during the life of the grantee only by the grantee or the grantee's legal representative.

Change in Control. The Compensation Committee may provide in any award agreement for provisions relating to a change in control of us or any of our subsidiaries or affiliates, including, without limitation, the acceleration of the exercisability of, or the lapse of restrictions with respect to, the award.

Amendment; Termination. Except as otherwise provided in an award agreement, the Board of Directors may from time to time suspend, discontinue, revise or amend the Archipelago 2004 SIP provided that no amendment will materially adversely affect a grantee without such person's prior written consent.

Human Resources & Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee was not constituted until after December 31, 2005. The following individuals served as members of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the board of directors of the NYSE (the predecessor to NYSE Group) during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005: (1) Shirley Ann Jackson; (2) Edgar S. Woolard, Jr.; (3) Alice M. Rivlin; (4) Robert B. Shapiro; and (5) Dennis Weatherstone. None of these individuals was, during the fiscal year, an officer or employee of the NYSE, NYSE Group or any of its subsidiaries. The NYSE Group Human Resources & Compensation Committee first convened on March 7, 2006. No member of that committee is a current or former officer or employee of NYSE Group or any of its subsidiaries.

SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT

The following table sets forth information, as of April 17, 2006, regarding the beneficial ownership of our Common Stock by:

each person who is known by us to own beneficially 5% or more of our outstanding Common Stock;

each of our directors and director nominees and each of our named executive officers (the business address of each such person is 11 Wall Street, New York, NY 10005); and all of our directors and executive officers as a group.

Beneficial ownership is determined under the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power over securities. Shares of our Common Stock subject to options or warrants that are currently exercisable or exercisable within 60 days of the date of April 17, 2006 are considered outstanding and beneficially owned by the person holding the options for the purposes of computing the percentage ownership of that person, but are not treated as outstanding for the purpose of computing the percentage ownership of any other person. Except in cases where community property laws apply or as indicated in the footnotes to this table, we believe that each stockholder identified in the table possesses sole voting and investment power over all shares of our Common Stock shown as beneficially owned by that stockholder. Percentage of beneficial ownership is based on the 155,598,173 shares of our Common Stock that were outstanding as of April 17, 2006.

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions in Connection with the Merger

NYSE Group was created on May 2, 2005 to facilitate the merger, and its stock was not held by the public until March 7, 2006, the date of the completion of the merger, at which time the NYSE and Archipelago became wholly owned subsidiaries of NYSE Group pursuant to the merger agreement. In the merger, (1) each holder of a share of Archipelago common stock, par value $0.01 per share, was entitled to receive one share of Common Stock and (2) each holder of a NYSE membership was entitled to receive $300,000 in cash and 80,177 shares of Common Stock. In addition, the NYSE declared a cash dividend of $70,570.78 to be paid to each holder of a NYSE membership as of March 6, 2006.

Relationships with General Atlantic

General Atlantic beneficially owns 10,380,505 shares (or approximately 6.7%) of our outstanding Common Stock. William E. Ford, a director of NYSE Group, is President and a Managing Director of General Atlantic and a general partner of GAPCO II.

The shares of our Common Stock held by General Atlantic are subject to transfer restrictions pursuant to the terms set forth in a support and lock-up agreement between the NYSE and General Atlantic. These transfer restrictions are scheduled to expire in three equal installments on the first, second and third anniversaries of March 7, 2006. Our board of directors may, in its discretion, remove the transfer restrictions applicable to any shares of our Common Stock held by General Atlantic or on any other shares of our Common Stock subject to transfer restrictions. We granted General Atlantic registration rights in connection with its execution of the support and lock-up agreement.

Relationships with The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc.

The Goldman Sachs Group, Inc. ("Goldman Sachs") and its affiliates beneficially own 8,989,439 shares (or approximately 5.8%) of our outstanding Common Stock. These shares are subject to transfer restrictions pursuant to the terms set forth in a support and lock-up agreement or our certificate of incorporation. These transfer restrictions are scheduled to expire in three equal installments on the first, second and third anniversaries of March 7, 2006. Our Board of Directors, in its discretion, may remove the transfer restrictions applicable to any shares of our Common Stock held by Goldman Sachs and its affiliates or on any other shares of our Common Stock subject to transfer restrictions.

In addition, both the NYSE and Archipelago have entered into various commercial arrangements with certain subsidiaries and affiliates of Goldman Sachs, including, without limitation, performing financial advisory and investment banking services for the NYSE and Archipelago for which Goldman Sachs has received fees, commissions or other payments. In August 2004, Goldman Sachs served as lead underwriter in the initial public offering of Archipelago common stock. In January 2006, Archipelago paid Goldman Sachs a fee of $500,000 for financial advisory services rendered in connection with Archipelago's acquisition of PCX Holdings. In addition, both the NYSE and Archipelago hired Goldman Sachs to facilitate discussions regarding the merger for which Goldman Sachs received a transaction fee of $3.5 million. Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, L.P. also serves as a specialist for some NYSE-listed companies and performs certain clearing and technical services for NYSE Arca.

John A. Thain, our Chief Executive Officer, held various positions at Goldman Sachs before becoming the Chief Executive Officer of the NYSE and subsequently Chief Executive Officer of NYSE Group. Mr. Thain was President and Chief Operating Officer of Goldman Sachs from July 2003 until January 2004 and was President and Co-Chief Operating Officer from May 1999 through June 2003. Mr. Thain had been a director of Goldman Sachs since 1998. He was President and Co-Chief Operating Officer of The Goldman Sachs Group, L.P., the predecessor of Goldman Sachs, in 1999.

From 1994 to 1999, he served as Chief Financial Officer and Head of Operations, Technology and Finance. From 1995 to 1997, he was also Co-Chief Executive Officer for European operations.

At the time that he accepted the position of Chief Executive Officer of the NYSE, Mr. Thain also had significant holdings of Goldman Sachs equity securities. Mr. Thain disclosed his then existing securities holdings to the NYSE in a letter agreement with the NYSE. Consistent with his responsibilities under the NYSE Officers' and Employees' Statement of Business Conduct and Ethics, the letter agreement reiterates his obligation to recuse himself from matters pertaining to Goldman Sachs. The NYSE employee ethics statement also precludes employees from owning equity securities of member organizations and requires new employees to divest any such securities within six months of employment. The Board of Directors determined to waive the divestiture requirement and, instead, to require Mr. Thain to place the securities in a blind trust. As a result of the blind trust, neither Mr. Thain nor the Board knows Mr. Thain's current holdings, if any, of Goldman Sachs equity securities.

Henry M. Paulson, Jr., chairman of the board of directors and Chief Executive of Goldman Sachs, served on the NYSE board of executives during 2004 and 2005 and served on the NYSE board of directors from June 1999 to December 2003. Duncan Niederauer, a managing director of Goldman Sachs and previously Co-Chief Executive Officer of Goldman Sachs Execution & Clearing, L.P. (formerly known as Spear, Leeds & Kellogg L.P., and is now a subsidiary of Goldman Sachs), served on the board of managers of Archipelago from March 2002 until his resignation on February 27, 2004 and, thereafter, served as an observer to Archipelago's board of managers in a non-voting capacity until Archipelago's conversion to a Delaware corporation on August 11, 2004.

Relationships with Gerald D. Putnam

GSP, LLC, an entity in which Gerald D. Putnam, our president and co-chief operating officer, has a controlling interest, beneficially owns 1,127,252 shares (or approximately 0.7%) of our outstanding Common Stock. The shares of our Common Stock held by GSP, LLC are subject to transfer restrictions set forth in a support and lock-up agreement between the NYSE and GSP. These transfer restrictions are scheduled to expire on March 7, 2007. Our Board of Directors may, in its discretion, remove the transfer restrictions applicable to any shares of our Common Stock held by GSP, LLC or on any other shares of our Common Stock subject to transfer restrictions. For a more detailed description of these transfer restrictions, see Registration Rights Agreements below.

Mr. Putnam and his wife indirectly own approximately 40% of TNT, a broker-dealer that regularly engages in trading activities on ArcaEx. In connection with the merger, Mr. Putnam is required to dispose of his interest in TNT by May 15, 2006. As a result of TNT's trading activities and the execution services provided by Archipelago, in 2005: (1) Archipelago received transaction fees from TNT in an aggregate amount equal to $3.4 million; (2) Archipelago made liquidity payments to TNT in an aggregate amount equal to $1.2 million; and (3) Archipelago made rebate payments in an aggregate amount equal to $21,000 to TNT, with whom it agreed to share a portion of the market data fees we received in connection with trades in exchange-listed securities executed by TNT on ArcaEx. We believe that all payments to TNT, and all amounts charged to TNT, are determined based on prevailing market rates, terms and conditions that are available to all other market participants.

Pursuant to a contribution agreement entered into in January 1999, Mr. Putnam agreed to indemnify Archipelago and affiliates of Goldman, Sachs & Co. and E*TRADE Group, Inc. for liability and certain legal expenses incurred in connection with the Lozman litigation discussed above under Legal Proceedings Involving Directors, Officers, Affiliates or Beneficial Owners Matters Relating to Gerald D. Putnam. Mr. Putnam owns 100% of GDP, Inc.

Pursuant to the limited liability company agreement of Archipelago Holdings, L.L.C., Mr. Putnam and GSP, LLC agreed that, subject to limited exceptions, they will not, and will not permit any of their affiliates to, manage, be employed by or provide consulting or other goods or services to, own any interest in or operate or control any ECN, alternative trading system, exchange or other facility for matching or executing orders, in each case that provides for the trading of equity securities of U.S. issuers and/or non-U.S. issuers whose equity securities are traded on a U.S. stock exchange or Nasdaq, for 24 months after the date that Mr. Putnam is no longer a manager, officer, employee or consultant of Archipelago or any of its subsidiaries.

Registration Rights Agreements

The shares of our Common Stock received by the General Atlantic Entities in the merger are subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the support and lock-up agreement between the NYSE and General Atlantic, and may be "restricted securities" or "control securities" under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act") because William E. Ford, who is President and a Managing Director of General Atlantic, is also a director of NYSE Group. In general, "restricted securities" and "control securities" under the Securities Act may not be offered or sold unless the offer or sale is registered under the Securities Act, or unless an exemption from such registration is available. Accordingly, the NYSE and NYSE Group granted the General Atlantic Entities certain registration rights in connection with the execution of the support and lock-up agreement between the NYSE and the General Atlantic Entities. The terms of these registration rights are set forth in the Amended and Restated Support and Lock-up Agreement with the General Atlantic Entities, which is included as Annex B to our Registration Statement on Form S-4, File No. 333-126780, first filed with the SEC on July 21, 2005, as well in the Registration Rights Agreement, dated as of October 20, 2005, incorporated by reference into Exhibit 10.15 to our Form S-4 (the "Registration Rights Agreement").

Under these agreements, if, on or prior to the first anniversary of the completion of the merger, which occurred on March 7, 2006, there shall not have been at least one registered offering of our Common Stock in which the General Atlantic Entities could have participated, then the General Atlantic Entities would have the right, exercisable once between the first and second anniversaries of the completion of the merger, to require us to effect the registration under the Securities Act of some or all of the our Common Stock held by the General Atlantic Entities that are not subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the support and lock-up agreement (to the extent that such shares are "restricted securities" or "control securities" under the Securities Act or are otherwise not freely transferable in a single transaction under Rule 144(k) of the Securities Act). If, on or prior to the second anniversary of the completion of the merger, there shall not have been at least two registered offerings of our Common Stock in which the General Atlantic Entities could have participated, then the General Atlantic Entities would have the right, exercisable once between the second and third anniversaries of the completion of the merger, to require us to effect the registration under the Securities Act of some or all of the shares of our Common Stock held by the General Atlantic Entities that are not subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the support and lock-up agreement (to the extent that such shares are "restricted securities" or "control securities" under the Securities Act or are otherwise not freely transferable in a single transaction under Rule 144(k) of the Securities Act). After the third anniversary of the completion of the merger, the General Atlantic Entities will have the right, exercisable once between the third and fourth anniversaries of the completion of the merger, to require us to effect the registration under the Securities Act of some or all of our Common Stock held by the General Atlantic Entities that are not subject to the transfer restrictions set forth in the support and lock-up agreement (to the extent that such shares are "restricted securities" or "control securities" under the Securities Act or are otherwise not freely transferable in a single transaction under Rule 144(k) of the Securities Act).

All stockholders who hold shares of our common stock that are subject to transfer restrictions imposed in connection with the merger will have the right to participate in these registrations on equal terms and pro rata with the General Atlantic Entities.

Under the Registration Rights Agreement, we have the right to postpone effecting a registration requested by the General Atlantic Entities for a period of time not to exceed 45 days if we determine in good faith that effecting the registration would materially and adversely affect an offering of our securities (the preparation of which has already commenced) or would require us to disclose material non-public information (the disclosure of which during such period would not be in our best interests). We may not postpone a registration more than twice during any period of 12 consecutive months.

Under the Registration Rights Agreement, the General Atlantic Entities will be liable for their portion of the registration and filing fees payable to the SEC in connection with any registered offering of our Common Stock (with such portion based on the proportion of our common stock being sold by or on behalf of the General Atlantic Entities in the offering). We will be liable for all other registration-related expenses of the offering, other than the underwriters' discounts and commissions related to the shares of our Common Stock sold by or on behalf of the General Atlantic Entities in the offering, which discounts and commissions will be the responsibility of the General Atlantic Entities. However, at our option, we may pay for some or all of the underwriters' discounts and commissions for every person participating in an underwritten offering, including the General Atlantic Entities. We also may, at our option, require all stockholders participating in a registered offering to pay for all or some of their portion of the expenses of such offering (with such portion based on the proportion of our common stock being sold by or on behalf of such stockholders in the offering, in which case General Atlantic will also be required to pay its portion of such expenses).

The General Atlantic Entities and the Goldman Sachs Affiliates (defined in the Registration Rights Agreements) also have the right to participate in certain registered offerings of our common stock to the extent that they continue to hold our Common Stock subject to the transfer restrictions imposed by the support and lock-up agreements. Specifically, if we propose an offering of our common stock for our own account and decide to permit certain of our stockholders to participate in that registered offering, then the General Atlantic Entities and the Goldman Sachs Affiliates will also be entitled to participate in that registered offering pro rata with the other NYSE Group stockholders that are participating in the offering. Moreover, if the NYSE agrees to register an offering of our Common Stock for any of the former NYSE members, the General Atlantic Entities or the Goldman Sachs Affiliates (in respect of the shares issued in the merger), then the Goldman Sachs Affiliates and the General Atlantic Entities (to the extent not already participating in that offering) will be entitled to participate in that offering on equal terms and pro rata with all of the other stockholders participating in the offering.

Any underwritten offering in connection with registration under the Registration Rights Agreement, however, is subject to limits on the number of shares of our Common Stock that may be offered. If the managing underwriter of such an offering determines that the number of shares of our Common Stock to be registered exceeds the largest number that can be sold without having an adverse impact on such offering, then the number of shares to be offered will be reduced to a level that will not have an adverse impact. If the registration and underwritten offering is in connection with a request for registration by the General Atlantic Entities, then the shares to be sold will be allocated among the participants pro rata based on the number of shares requested to be included. If the registration and underwritten offering is initiated by us to sell shares of our Common Stock on our own account, then we may sell all of the shares that we had planned to sell, with any additional shares to be registered and sold allocated among the other participants pro rata based on the number of shares requested to be included.

Pending Secondary Offering

On March 13, 2006, NYSE Group filed, and subsequently filed amendments to, a registration statement on Form S-1 with the SEC in connection with an offering of our Common Stock by certain selling shareholders. In connection with that offering, we will be waiving the restrictions applicable to an as yet unspecified number of shares of Common Stock held by General Atlantic, Goldman Sachs, Gerald D. Putnam and Nelson Chai, to the extent they choose to participate in the offering. Goldman Sachs is participating as an underwriter in that offering.

In 2005, the committee raised $143,507. The committee also commenced making political contributions in the fall totaling $167,000 ($85,000 to Republicans, $81,000 to Democrats and a $1,000 transfer to the NYSE State PAC). REPORT OF THE NOMINATING & GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE

The Nominating & Governance Committee operates pursuant to a written charter that was originally adopted on January 5, 2006, which is available on NYSE Group's website at www.nyse.com. The Board has determined that each member of the Nominating & Governance Committee is independent, as independence for Nominating Committee members is defined in the NYSE listing standards and in NYSE Group's own director independence standards. As discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement, prior to the completion of the merger on March 7, 2006, NYSE Group was not a publicly held company and had conducted no significant activities other than those incident to its formation. For that reason, the Nominating & Governance Committee was not first convened until January 5, 2006 and therefore held no meetings in 2005. Following March 7, 2006, the Nominating & Governance Committee has held one meeting to date in 2006.

The primary responsibilities of the Nominating & Governance Committee are:

recommending to our Board of Directors candidates for our Board of Directors, and for positions on the boards of our operating companies other than NYSE Regulation, designated for our directors;

conducting our Board of Directors' annual governance review;

reviewing and recommending our governance guidelines;

establishing an appropriate process for, and overseeing implementation of, our Board of Directors' self-assessments (including board self-assessment, committee self-assessments and director assessments);

recommending the compensation of our directors; and conducting succession planning for the chief executive officer of NYSE Group.

The Nominating & Governance Committee considers stockholder, listed company, member organization and public investor recommendations of candidates for our Board of Directors.

In the first quarter of 2006, the Nominating & Governance Committee reviewed NYSE Group's Corporate Governance Guidelines, attached to this proxy statement as Annex C, Independence Policy and Candidate Nomination Policy (collectively, the "Governance Documents"). The Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Board adopt the Governance Documents, which the Board of Directors acted on and adopted. The Candidate Nomination Policy included procedures for the submission of director candidates recommended by stockholders and member organizations to the Committee. These actions were undertaken to strengthen NYSE Group's corporate governance practices.

In April 2006, the Nominating & Governance Committee recommended to the Board, and the Board determined, that the incumbent directors of NYSE Group and director candidate Mr. McFarland were independent within the meaning of the rules of the NYSE and under NYSE Group's own director independence standards, and have no material relationship with NYSE Group (either directly or as a partner, stockholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with NYSE Group), with the exception of Mr. Thain, our Chief Executive Officer. The Committee also recommended to the Board, and the Board determined that each member of NYSE Group's Audit Committee is independent within the meaning of Rule 10A-3 under the Exchange Act. Additionally, the Committee evaluated and recommended to the Board that ten of NYSE Group's incumbent directors stand for re-election and that director candidate Mr. McFarland stand for election at the Annual Meeting. Mr. Woolard has determined not to stand for re-election.

The Nominating & Governance Committee discussed recommendations for director candidates, determined their eligibility and made recommendations to the Board with respect to the NYSE Group 2006 slate, as well as recommendations for NYSE Group Directors to serve on the board of NYSE LLC, NYSE Market and NYSE Regulation. It also reviewed, and determined the eligibility of, persons proposed by the Director Candidate Recommendation Committee for Non-Affiliated Directors of NYSE LLC and Constituent Directors of NYSE Market. It also reviewed, determined the eligibility of and made recommendations for additional Constituent Directors of NYSE Market.

Edgar Filing: NYSE Group, Inc. - Form DEF 14A

The Nominating & Governance Committee will undertake an evaluation of the performance of the Board of Directors and its three standing committees, as is required by the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, and report its results to the Board of Directors in 2006.

From the date of its formation on January 5, 2006 to date, the Nominating & Governance Committee has performed all appropriate duties and responsibilities under the Nominating & Governance Committee Charter.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee operates pursuant to a written charter adopted on February 2, 2006 and which is available on NYSE Group's website at www.nyse.com and attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is independent, as independence for committee members is defined in the NYSE listing standards and in NYSE Group's own director independence standards. A copy of the Independence Policy is attached to this proxy statement as Annex E. As discussed elsewhere in this proxy statement, prior to the completion of the merger on March 7, 2006, NYSE Group was not a publicly held company, had no assets (other than the $200 it received on December 29, 2005 from the sale of one share of its Common Stock to each of the NYSE and Archipelago) and had not conducted any material activities other than those incident to its formation. For that reason, the Audit Committee of the NYSE Group was not convened prior to the merger and therefore held no meetings in 2005. Since March 7, 2006, the Audit Committee has held two meetings, both included executive sessions and private sessions with each of our independent auditors, and senior management. One of the meetings included a private session with the internal auditors. Also since March 7, 2006, the Chair of the Audit Committee had several separate meetings with our Chief Financial Officer. The Audit Committee appointed PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to audit the Company's financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2006.

The Audit Committee's primary responsibility is to assist our Board in its oversight of the integrity of our financial statements and internal controls. To fulfill this responsibility, the Audit Committee:

- assists our Board in monitoring our compliance with all relevant rules and regulations;
- assesses the independent auditor's qualifications and independence;
- appoints, oversees, compensates and, if necessary, replaces the independent auditor;
- approves all audit and non-audit services performed by the independent auditor;
- meets regularly in separate private sessions with the independent auditor and internal auditors;
- reviews the independent auditor's reports and the internal auditor's reports with respect our internal controls; and
- determines the budget and staffing for our corporate audit department.

In addition, the Audit Committee:

- regularly receives internal and external reviews of our information technology systems;
- appoints and receives, at minimum, an annual report from the Chief Ethics Officer regarding the ethics program and any significant deviations therefrom; and
- recommends to the Board, for appointment, the senior internal audit executive.

In the first quarter of 2006, the Audit Committee reviewed NYSE Group's Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, Code of Conduct for Finance Professionals, Employee Complaint Procedures for Accounting and Auditing Matters, and Insider Trading Policy (collectively, the "Ethics Documents"). The Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the Board adopt the Ethics Documents, which recommendation the Board adopted.

In addition to determining that each member of the Audit Committee is "independent" within the meaning of the rules of both the NYSE and the SEC, our Board of Directors and the Nominating & Governance Committee also have determined that each member of the Audit Committee is "financially literate" and has accounting or related financial management expertise, as such qualifications are defined under the rules of the NYSE. Our Board has also determined that Robert B. Shapiro and Karl

M. von der Heyden are "audit committee financial experts" within the meaning of the rules of the SEC.

At its meeting in February, Mr. von der Heyden informed the Board that, after the merger was completed and NYSE Group became a public company, the number of public company audit committees on which he served would rise to five. Mr. von der Heyden anticipated that, by the end of June 2006, he would reduce the number of the other audit committee obligations to two. The Board reviewed his audit committee obligations and determined that, given the brief period of time during which Mr. von der Heyden would serve on five public company audit committees, these commitments would not impair him from fulfilling his responsibilities on our Audit Committee.

Management is responsible for the preparation, presentation and integrity of our financial statements, accounting and financial reporting principles and the establishment and effectiveness of internal controls and procedures designed to assure compliance with accounting standards and applicable laws and regulations. The independent auditors are responsible for performing an independent audit of the financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. The independent auditors have free access to the Audit Committee to discuss any matters they deem appropriate.

In performing its oversight role, the Audit Committee has considered and discussed the audited financial statements with management and the independent auditors. The Audit Committee has also discussed with the independent auditors the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 90, Communication with Audit Committees, as currently in effect. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from the independent auditors required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as currently in effect, and has discussed with the auditors the auditors' independence. The Audit Committee or a member thereof must specifically pre-approve all non-audit services that the independent auditors perform.

Based on the reports and discussions described in this report, and subject to the limitations on its role and responsibilities, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements of NYSE Group for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2005 be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for such fiscal year.

REPORT OF THE HUMAN RESOURCES & COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

Overview

NYSE Group was created in 2005 in connection with the consummation of the merger of the NYSE and Archipelago. Prior to the completion of this merger on March 7, 2006, NYSE Group conducted no significant business and was not a publicly traded company. Thus, in 2005 NYSE Group's officers and directors were not compensated by NYSE Group, but rather by the NYSE or Archipelago. As of March 7, 2006, the date the merger was completed, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee consisted of Mr. Shapiro, who serves as the committee chair, Ms. Jackson, Ms. Rivlin and Mr. Woolard. Prior to that date, the functions of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee were performed by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the NYSE (the "Predecessor Compensation Committee") for executive officers of the NYSE and the Compensation Committee of Archipelago for the executive officers of that entity. Accordingly, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee has been administering the executive compensation arrangements established and approved by those committees since the completion of the mergers on March 7, 2006. In addition, the Committee has been reviewing these executive compensation arrangements with an eye toward making modifications that may be necessary or advisable in light of the combined companies' compensation objectives and business goals.

Attendance and Independence

Since March 7, 2006, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee has met once. Each member of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee has met the standards of "independence" under the rules established by the NYSE and qualified as an "outside director" for purposes of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and as a "non-employee director" for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. Our Board of Directors determines the membership of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee.

Human Resources & Compensation Committee Purpose

The primary purpose of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee is to discharge the Board of Director's responsibilities relating to compensation of the our senior management. In furtherance of that role, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee has prepared this report for inclusion in this proxy statement.

When requested, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee also provides guidance to the Board of Directors and its Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee on director compensation, but the Human Resources & Compensation Committee itself does not have any authority with regard to the compensation arrangements for members of the Board who are not employees of the Company. Such arrangements are authorized solely by the Board.

Human Resources & Compensation Committee Duties and Responsibilities

The primary responsibilities of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee are as follows:

reviewing and advising the Chairman of the Board and the officers of NYSE Group with respect to human resource policies and procedures relating to NYSE Group, including the activities relating to recruiting, labor relations, training and compensation of employees, as well as development and succession planning of key staff;

reviewing employee benefit plans, and the operation and administration of benefit plans by the employee benefit plans committee, including reviewing compliance of such plans with applicable law;

at the request of the Nominating & Governance Committee, advising and assisting the Nominating & Governance Committee in reviewing (i) director compensation and benefits and (ii) any development plans for potential successors to the Chief Executive Officer;

reviewing and approving corporate goals and objectives relevant to executive officer compensation, evaluating the executive officers' performance in light of those goals and objectives, and, together with the other directors, determining and approving such compensation;

certifying the achievement of performance goals;

reviewing and approving salary grade structures and guidelines, and bonus and merit plans, including the cumulative effect of awards made pursuant to such plans;

at the request of the Board, reviewing the appointment of all officers who are subject to section 16(b) of the Exchange Act and all officers who report directly to the chief executive officer of NYSE Group, and recommendations involving personnel received from the Audit Committee;

reviewing, approving, and submitting for ratification by the Board, the compensation for senior executive officers;

approving officers appointed by, and reporting directly or indirectly to, the Chief Executive Officer;

reviewing and approving any employment agreements for senior executives of NYSE Group;

at the request of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of NYSE Regulation, advising and assisting the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of NYSE Regulation concerning human resource policies and procedures, director compensation and salary grade structures and merit plans; with respect to corporate audit and regulatory quality review personnel, making recommendations to, and advising, the Board on compensation and personnel actions; and reporting annually to the stockholders and the public on the compensation of the five most highly compensated officers of NYSE Group and its subsidiaries (as well as director compensation) and on the compensation philosophy and methodology used to award that compensation (including information relating to appropriate comparisons, benchmarks, performance measures and evaluation processes consistent with the missions of NYSE Group and its subsidiaries (including NYSE Regulation)).

The charter of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee reflects these responsibilities, and the Human Resources & Compensation Committee and the full Board of Directors periodically review and revise the Charter. In carrying out the foregoing responsibilities, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee will apply our executive compensation philosophy, as discussed below, and endeavor, where appropriate, to link each member of senior management's compensation to his or her service to us and overall performance. As used above, the term "senior management" includes those officers of the NYSE Group designated by the Human Resources & Compensation Committee in its discretion.

Executive Compensation Philosophy

The NYSE Group believes that highly talented, dedicated and results-oriented executives are critical to our growth and long term success. Our compensation programs are designed to attract and retain the highest caliber executive talent and to align our management's long-term interests with those of our investors. We also believe that compensation should be tied in part to financial performance so that executives are held accountable through their compensation for the performance of the business for which they are responsible and that compensation should be tied in part to the individual's performance to encourage and reflect individual contributions to our performance. We use a combination of compensation vehicles including annual base salary and a short-term cash incentive program, as well as long-term cash and equity plans that reward the management for successful long term corporate performance.

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee reviews our compensation practices and programs with the guidance of outside compensation consultants. The compensation consultants assist the Human Resources & Compensation Committee in the design and evaluation of executive pay packages.

A senior executive's annual base salary is targeted at the 50th percentile of a selected comparator group as reviewed by our outside consultants. Total direct compensation including base salary, bonus and long-term incentives is targeted between the 50th and 75th percentile.

Compensation Consultant

The Human Resources Division supports the Human Resources & Compensation Committee in its work. In addition, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee has the authority under its charter to engage the services of outside advisors and experts for assistance. In accordance with this authority, the Committee engages Towers Perrin as independent outside compensation consultant to advise the Human Resources & Compensation Committee on all matters related to chief executive officer and other executive compensation. The independent compensation committee consultant is retained by and reports directly to the Human Resources & Compensation Committee.

Compensation Comparison

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee uses a comparison study utilizing a sample of publicly traded exchanges and securities firms that do not trade for their own proprietary accounts.

Components of Executive Compensation

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee has broken down total executive compensation into the following components:

salary;

annual bonus;

long-term cash and equity incentives;

pension benefits;

welfare benefits; and perquisites.

A more detailed discussion of each component follows:

Salary. In 2006, our executives' base salaries will be targeted at the median range of compensation for equivalent positions within a defined comparator group. Base salaries are established based on the scope and breadth of responsibilities. These salary levels are reviewed annually.

Annual Bonus. A significant component of our executives' total cash compensation in 2006 will be our short-term incentive bonus which is dependant on the achievement of financial and strategic objectives. The performance metrics that may be used include, but are not limited to, market share, earnings, earnings-per-share, operating profit, operating margin, return on equity, return on assets, total return to stockholders, technology improvements, return on investment capital, revenue growth, cash flow, expense reduction and systems reliability.

Long Term Cash and Equity Incentives. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee believes that compensation should be tied in part to NYSE Group's stock performance through various forms of equity compensation to align executives' interests with those of our investors. To that end, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee intends to review and introduce long-term equity based incentive programs in 2006. We will implement long-term cash incentives for employees who are precluded from owning NYSE Group stock.

Pension Benefits. In 2006, NYSE Group froze all accrued benefits of the defined benefit pension plans and implemented an employer paid defined contribution plan. NYSE Group has a 401(k) Savings Plan that is tax-qualified under the Internal Revenue Code. The NYSE Group also has the SESP.

Welfare Benefits. NYSE Group has broad-based health, dental, vision, life, and disability benefit programs. There are no other welfare-benefit programs and there are no welfare-benefit plans, programs or arrangements exclusive to executives. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee does not currently intend to implement any executive-level welfare-benefit plans, programs or arrangements in the future.

Perquisites. NYSE Group has no executive-level perquisite plans, programs or arrangements, and the Human Resources & Compensation Committee does not currently intend to implement any executive-level perquisite plans, programs or arrangements in the future.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee, with the assistance of its external compensation consultants, will annually review the total compensation package for our Chief Executive Officer, setting the compensation level, mix and performance goals for each subsequent calendar year. As part of its review, the Human Resources & Compensation Committee also will consider competitive data regarding salaries and incentives awarded to chief executives in a comparator group. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee will weight the Chief Executive Officer's target compensation package significantly toward performance based incentive pay.

In 2005, Mr. Thain received a base salary of $4,120,000. Mr. Thain's salary level is determined by his employment letter agreement, dated January 15, 2004, and benefits letter agreement dated December 1, 2004, which the Predecessor Compensation Committee adopted. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee recommended and the Board of Directors awarded Mr. Thain a bonus of $2.0 million for 2005.

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee recommended and the Board of Directors intends to propose to Mr. Thain an amendment to his letter agreements that would reduce his annual base salary to $750,000, create a performance-based incentive compensation with cash and equity targets totaling $5.25 million, for a total compensation target of $6.0 million, and cause him to participate in the benefit plans currently available to senior executives.

Section 162(m) Policy

The provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallow a tax deduction to a publicly-traded company for compensation in excess of $1,000,000 paid to its chief executive officer or any of its other four most highly compensated executive officers in any fiscal year, unless the plan and awards pursuant to which any portion of the compensation is paid meet certain requirements. Certain exceptions apply in the case of plans adopted by a private company that subsequently becomes publicly-traded.

The NYSE Group, Inc. 2006 Stock Incentive Plan is intended to constitute a plan described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.162-27(f)(1), pursuant to which the deduction limits under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code do not apply during the applicable transition period. In general, the transition period ends upon the earliest of: (i) the expiration of the plan (i.e., 10 years after the date the plan is approved by stockholders); (ii) the material modification of the plan; (iii) the issuance of all available stock under the plan; or (iv) the first stockholder meeting at which directors are to be elected that occurs after December 31, 2007.

Conclusion

The Human Resources & Compensation Committee believes that the executive compensation plans and programs with respect to fiscal year 2005 were both competitive and appropriate based on the NYSE's performance over that year. The Human Resources & Compensation Committee will continue its review and analysis of executive compensation plans and programs during fiscal year 2006.

OTHER MATTERS

Section 16(a) Beneficial Ownership Reporting Compliance

Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act requires our directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities, to file reports of ownership of, and transactions in, our equity securities with the SEC. Such directors, executive officers and 10% stockholders are also required to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) reports they file.

Prior to March 7, 2006, the date of the completion of the merger, NYSE Group did not have a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act. Consequently, no reports under Section 16(a) were filed or required to be filed with respect to any NYSE Group securities.

Based on a review of the copies of reports we received, and on written representations from our reporting persons, we believe that all Section 16(a) filing requirements applicable to our directors, executive officers and 10% stockholders were complied from March 7, 2006 to the date of this proxy statement, with the exception of one Form 4 report for Edgar S. Woolard, Jr. disclosing the purchase of 100 shares of our Common Stock on March 8, 2006, the day our stock began to publicly trade, that was inadvertently filed late.

Incorporation by Reference

To the extent that this proxy statement is incorporated by reference into any other filing by NYSE Group under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act, the sections of this proxy statement entitled "Report of the Nominating & Governance Committee," "Report of the Audit Committee" (to the extent permitted by the rules of the SEC) and "Report of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee" as well as the annexes to this proxy statement, will not be deemed incorporated, unless specifically provided otherwise in such filing.

Other Matters

As of the date of this proxy statement, there are no other matters that the Board of Directors intends to present, or has reason to believe others will present, at the Annual Meeting. If other matters come before the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the accompanying form of proxy will vote in accordance with the recommendation of the Board or in their best judgment with respect to such matters.

("Group") and charged with assisting the Board in its oversight of: (a) the integrity of the Group's financial statements and internal controls, (b) compliance with legal and regulatory requirements, as well as the Group's ethical standards and policies, (c) the qualifications and independence of the Group's independent auditor, and (d) the performance of the Group's internal audit function and its independent auditors; and preparing the Audit Committee report for inclusion in the Group's annual proxy statement.

At least one member of the Committee will have accounting or related financial management expertise, as such qualification is interpreted by the Board in its business judgment. Organization

The Committee will meet at least four times during each Board year, or more frequently as it deems necessary to carry out its responsibilities. Meetings of the Committee may be called by the Chairman or a majority of the members of the Committee. A majority of the Committee members will constitute a quorum, except as may be otherwise required by law or the Group's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws. Annex C

NYSE GROUP, INC.
CORPORATE GOVERNANCE GUIDELINES

A. DIRECTOR QUALIFICATIONS AND BOARD COMPOSITION

1. Board Size

Subject to the rights of the holders of any series of preferred stock of NYSE Group, Inc. ("NYSE Group") to elect additional Directors under specified circumstances, the number of Directors on the Board of Directors (the "Board") shall be fixed from time to time exclusively by the Board pursuant to a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board.

2. Independence and Qualification of Directors

All members of the Board, other than the Chief Executive Officer, shall satisfy the independence requirements for Directors of NYSE Group, as modified and amended by the Board from time to time. The Chief Executive Officer shall be recused from deliberations of the Board, whether it is acting as the Board or as a committee of the Board, with respect to activities of any committee of the Board that is required to be comprised solely of Directors who satisfy the independence requirements of NYSE Group, as modified and amended by the Board of Directors from time to time.

The Nominating & Governance Committee is responsible for reviewing the qualifications and independence of the members of the Board and its various committees on a periodic basis as well as the composition of the Board as a whole. This assessment will include members' qualification as independent, as well as consideration of diversity, age, skills, and experience in the context of the needs of the Board. Nominees for Director will be recommended to the Board by the Nominating & Governance Committee in accordance with the policies and principles in its charter.

While the Nominating & Governance Committee will make recommendations to the Board as to whether Directors or director candidates satisfy the independence requirements for Directors of NYSE Group, an affirmative determination of the satisfaction of those requirements by any Director or director candidate will be made by the Board as a whole.

Directors of NYSE Group or its subsidiaries may not contribute to any political action committee of member organizations or, except for management directors, to any political action committee of the employees of the NYSE Group or its subsidiaries. Except for management directors, directors of NYSE Group or its subsidiaries also may not influence the selection of charitable organizations to which the NYSE Group or its subsidiaries contribute.

3. Annual Election of Directors

The Directors shall be elected by the stockholders at each annual meeting of stockholders (or any adjournment or continuation thereof) at which a quorum is present, to hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders, but shall continue to serve despite the expiration of their terms until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Elections of Directors need not be by written ballot except and to the extent provided in the Bylaws of the NYSE Group. Each year, the Board shall recommend a slate of Directors for election by the stockholders at the annual meeting of stockholders.

In an uncontested election, any nominee for Director who receives a greater number of votes "withheld" from or "against" his or her election than votes "for" such election (a "Majority Withheld Vote") shall tender his or her resignation for consideration by the Nominating & Governance Committee. The Nominating & Governance Committee shall recommend to the Board the action to be taken with respect to such tendered resignation. Any Director who tenders his or her resignation pursuant to this provision shall not participate in the Nominating & Governance Committee recommendation or Board action regarding whether to accept the tendered resignation.

If each member of the Nominating & Governance Committee received a Majority Withheld Vote at the same election, then the independent Directors who did not receive a Majority Withheld Vote shall appoint a committee among themselves to consider the tendered resignation and recommend to the Board whether to accept them. However, if the only Directors who did not receive a Majority Withheld Vote in the same election constitute three or fewer Directors, all Directors may participate in the action regarding whether to accept the tendered resignation.

4. Business Judgment; Indemnification

The basic responsibility of the Directors is to exercise their business judgment in good faith to act in what they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of NYSE Group and to discharge their obligations under the Certificate of Incorporation of NYSE Group. The Chief Executive Officer is the only member of management who may serve as a Director.

7. Resignation Policy

Any Director may resign at any time by giving written notice of resignation to the Board, the Chairman of the Board or the Secretary of the NYSE Group. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if the time when it shall become effective shall not be so specified, then it shall take effect immediately upon its receipt.

8. Limitations on Other Board Service

Directors should advise the Chairman of the Board and the chairman of the Nominating & Governance Committee in advance of accepting an invitation to serve on the board of directors, the audit committee or the compensation committee of another public company. There should be an opportunity for the Board, through the Nominating & Governance Committee, to review the Director's availability to fulfill his or her responsibilities as a Director if he or she serves on more than three other public company boards, or on the audit committee or compensation committee of more than three other public company boards.

This orientation will include presentations by senior management to familiarize new Directors with NYSE Group's strategic plans, its significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, its compliance programs, its Code of Ethics and Business Conduct, its principal officers, and its internal and independent auditors. All continuing Directors are also invited to attend the Orientation Program. In addition, NYSE Group offers Directors continuing director education opportunities.

12. Director Communications with Third Parties

The Board believes that the management speaks for NYSE Group. As appropriate, the Chairman speaks for the Board. Individual Directors may, from time to time, meet or otherwise communicate in their capacity as Directors of NYSE Group with various constituencies that are involved with NYSE Group. However, it is expected that Directors will do this with respect to matters that have been, are, or may come before the Board only with the knowledge of the management and, absent unusual circumstances or as contemplated by the committee charters, only at the request of management.

B. BOARD MEETINGS

1. Frequency of Meetings

The Board shall have not less than four meetings each year. Special meetings of the Directors may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or a majority of the Directors then in office, in accordance with the provision of the Bylaws of NYSE Group.

2. Strategic Plan Review

The Board will review NYSE Group's long-term strategic plans and the principal issues that NYSE Group will face in the future during at least one Board meeting each year.

4. Information Flow and Distribution of Meeting Materials

Information and data that are important to the Board's understanding of the business to be conducted at a Board or committee meeting should generally be distributed in writing to the Directors before the meeting, and Directors should review these materials in advance of the meeting.

5. Selection of Agenda Items

The Chairman will establish the agenda for each Board meeting. At the beginning of the year, the Chairman will identify agenda subjects to be discussed during the year (to the degree this can be foreseen). Each Director is free to suggest the inclusion of items on the agenda. Each Director is free to raise at any Board meeting subjects that are not on the agenda for that meeting. The Chief Executive Officer will give a report at each meeting.

6. Access to Management and Independent Advisors

Directors have full and free access to officers and employees of NYSE Group. Any meetings or contacts that a Director wishes to initiate may be arranged through the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer or the Secretary of the NYSE Group or directly by the Director. The Directors will use their judgment to ensure that any such contact is not disruptive to the business operations of NYSE Group and does not inappropriately disclose any confidential or sensitive information in the possession of the Director and will, to the extent not inappropriate, copy the Chief Executive Officer on any written communications between a Director and an officer or employee of NYSE Group.

7. Executive Sessions

The Directors will meet regularly in executive session without the Chief Executive Officer or any staff members present, unless such staff member's presence is specifically requested. The Chairman will preside at these meetings. The Board shall disclose a method for interested parties to communicate directly and confidentially with the Chairman or with the elected Directors as a group.

C. COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD

1. Committees and Responsibilities

The Board will have three standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Human Resources and Compensation Committee, and a Nominating & Governance Committee. All of the members of these committees will be independent Directors under the criteria established by the NYSE Group, the NYSE listed company standards and, in the case of the Audit Committee, Section 10A(m) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. A full description of the responsibilities of each of the committees is set forth in the charter for each committee.

2. Committee Charters

Each committee will have its own charter. The charters will set forth the purposes, goals, responsibilities and authority (consistent with any applicable Bylaws or resolutions of the Board) of the committees, as well as any specific qualifications for committee membership and procedures for committee member appointment; in addition, the charters will address committee reporting to the Board. The charters will also provide that each committee will annually evaluate its own performance and report the results of this evaluation to the Board.

3. Membership and Chairs of Committees

In general, committee members will be appointed by the Board on the recommendation of the Chairman, with the concurrence of the Nominating & Governance Committee. Although the Board may consider rotating committee members periodically, the Board does not believe that rotation should be mandated as a policy.

4. Committee Meetings

The chairman of each committee, in consultation with the committee members, will determine the frequency and length of the committee meetings consistent with any requirements set forth in the committee's charter. The chairman of each committee, in consultation with the members of the committee and appropriate members of management, will develop the committee's agenda. At the beginning of the year, each committee will identify agenda subjects to be discussed during the year (to the degree these can be foreseen). The committee chairmen will report to the Board on each committee's actions. The schedule for each committee will be furnished to all Directors.

5. Independent Advisors

The Board and each committee has the power to hire, at the expense of NYSE Group, independent legal, financial or other advisors as it may deem necessary, without consulting or obtaining the approval of any officer of NYSE Group in advance.

6. Additional Committees

The Board may, from time to time, designate one or more additional committees of the Board, with such lawfully delegable powers and duties as it thereby confers, to serve at the pleasure of the Board and shall, for those committees and any others, elect a Director or Directors to serve as the member or members, designating, if it desires, other Directors as alternate members who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee.

E. DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

The form and amount of Director compensation will be determined in accordance with the policies and principles set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation of NYSE Group or other applicable rules, and the Nominating & Governance Committee will conduct an annual review of Director compensation and make recommendations regarding Director compensation.

F. REVIEW

The Nominating & Governance Committee will review these guidelines and may make recommendations to the Board for appropriate modifications from time to time.

Annex D

NYSE GROUP, INC.
CANDIDATE NOMINATION POLICY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The NYSE Group Board of Directors consists of a number of Directors fixed from time to time by the Board, all of whom, apart from the chief executive officer, comply with the independence requirements of the NYSE's own rules applied to listed companies as well as with the terms of the Independence Policy of the NYSE Group Board. Nominees to the NYSE Group Board will be recommended by the Board's Nominating & Governance Committee. To ensure that highly qualified individuals are identified, the Nominating & Governance Committee considers Director candidates from a variety of sources, including from NYSE Group stockholders, listed companies, investors in equity securities and current Directors.

To ensure fair representation of NYSE member organizations in the selection of directors and the administration of the affairs of New York Stock Exchange LLC ("NYSE LLC"), twenty percent (20%), and not less than two, of the directors on the boards of each of NYSE LLC, NYSE Market and NYSE Regulation must be directors who are not NYSE Group Directors, and who are chosen solely from candidates ("Fair Representation Candidates") who are recommended by the NYSE Market Director Candidate Recommendation Committee ("DCRC") or NYSE Regulation DCRC, as applicable. Fair Representation Candidates for the NYSE LLC board are recommended jointly by the DCRCs of NYSE Market and NYSE Regulation. NYSE member organizations have the right to propose alternative Fair Representation Candidates by petition. The board of NYSE Arca must also include Fair Representation Candidates representing its members.

In addition to the inclusion of Fair Representation Candidates, the boards of the NYSE Group subsidiaries are subject to the following requirements:

The NYSE LLC Fair Representation Candidates must not be Directors of NYSE Group ("Non-Affiliated Directors") and must qualify as independent under the Independence Policy of the NYSE Group Board.

A majority of the NYSE Regulation board, including the Fair Representation Candidates, must be Non-Affiliated Directors who qualify as independent under the Independence Policy of the NYSE Group Board.

Along with the required Fair Representation Candidates, the NYSE Market board will include an additional constituency representative director. Both the aforementioned constituency representative director and the Fair Representation Candidates must be Non-Affiliated Directors, but none of them need qualify as independent under the Independence Policy of the NYSE Group Board.

To facilitate receipt of recommendations for director candidates, NYSE Group maintains a website that describes the criteria for director candidates and provides contact information for the Office of the Corporate Secretary (www.nyse.com/candidatenominations). This information is also provided below.

The Office of the Corporate Secretary collects and maintains candidate recommendations on an ongoing basis so that the NYSE Group Board and the subsidiary boards can tap the pool of potential director candidates as needed. The NYSE Group Board and the subsidiary boards evaluate their own composition and performance annually and, if additional or replacement directors are required in a particular year, consider whether candidates from the pool can meet the need.

The Nominating & Governance Committees of NYSE Group and NYSE Regulation (together, the "NYSE Nominating Committees") and the DCRCs do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, disability, or sexual preference in selecting director candidates.

Criteria for Director Candidates

1. The NYSE Nominating Committees and the DCRCs select director candidates on the basis of outstanding achievement in their professional careers, broad experience, personal and professional integrity, previous board or top-level management/leadership experience, and ability to make independent analytical inquiries. They also consider the skill sets and experiences of the existing directors, and actively seek to add directors who would bring additional relevant skill sets and experiences to the applicable board or would replace skill sets and experience lost through a director's retirement.

2. The NYSE Nominating Committees and the DCRCs believe that director candidates must have:

The experience and analytic skills necessary to gain a basic understanding of:

The self-regulatory functions of NYSE Group's two exchanges,

The principal operational, financial and strategic objectives and plans of the applicable NYSE Group entity,

The results of operations and financial condition of the applicable NYSE Group entity and of any significant subsidiaries or business segments,

The position of the applicable NYSE Group entity and its business segments relative to its competitors,

A perspective that will enhance the board's strategic discussions, and

The commitment and capability of devoting adequate time to board duties and availability to attend board and committee meetings

For examples of the types of qualifications necessary for nomination to the boards of the NYSE Group and its subsidiaries, please refer to the curriculum vitae of the current directors, which can be found at www.nyse.com/nyseboard.

3. At least one Director of NYSE Group should have the qualifications and skills necessary to be considered an "Audit Committee Financial Expert" under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

4. All directors other than the NYSE Market or NYSE Arca "constituent" directors are required to be independent from listed companies, member organizations, NYSE Arca trading permit firms and trading permit holders, and certain other broker/dealers under the Independence Policy established by the NYSE Group Board. Among other things, no such director currently may be, or within the past three years may have been, (i) a NYSE member (prior to the merger between the NYSE and Archipelago) or employed by a NYSE member organization or (ii) employed by a NYSE Arca trading permit firm or trading permit holder. In addition, no such director may currently be an executive officer of a listed company. The NYSE Group Board's Independence Policy may be found at www.nyse.com/pdfs/DirectorIndependencePolicy.pdf.

5. All directors (with the exceptions of the single management director (the CEO) on each board) also must be independent from the management of NYSE Group and its subsidiaries in a manner comparable to the requirements of the NYSE governance standards for listed companies. Among other things, no director currently may be, or within the past three years may have been, an employee of NYSE Group or its subsidiaries, and directors must have no other material relationship with NYSE Group and its subsidiaries. The NYSE's governance standards for listed companies, which provide further information on the types of disqualifying management relationships, can be found at www.nyse.com/pdfs/section303A_final_rules.pdf.

Annex E

NYSE GROUP, INC.
INDEPENDENCE POLICY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Purpose

The purpose of this Policy is to set forth the independence requirements that shall apply to the members of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of NYSE Group.

Independence Requirements

1. Each Director other than the Chief Executive Officer, and the Chairman of the Board if not also the Chief Executive Officer, shall be independent within the meaning of this Policy. A list of the Directors shall be maintained on the NYSE Group's web site.

2. A Director shall be independent only if the Board determines that the Director does not have any material relationships with NYSE Group. When assessing a Director's relationships and interests, the Board shall consider the issue not merely from the standpoint of the Director, but also from the standpoint of persons or organizations with which the Director is affiliated⁽¹⁾ or associated.

(1) An "affiliate" of, or a person "affiliated" with, a specific person is a person that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the person specified.

3. In making independence determinations, the Board shall consider the special responsibilities of a Director in light of the fact that NYSE Group includes entities that are self-regulatory organizations and national securities exchanges subject to the supervision of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

4. The Board shall make an independence determination with respect to each Director required to be independent hereunder upon the Director's nomination or appointment to the Board and thereafter at such times as the Board considers advisable in light of the Director's circumstances and any changes to this Policy, but in any event not less frequently than annually.

5. It shall be the responsibility of each Director to inform the Chairman of the Board and the Chairman of the Nominating & Governance Committee promptly and otherwise as requested of the existence of such relationships and interests which might reasonably be considered to bear on the Director's independence.

6. Any Director required to be independent hereunder whom the Board otherwise determines not to be independent under this Policy shall be deemed to have tendered his or her resignation for consideration by the Board, and such resignation shall not be effective unless and until accepted by the Board.

Independence Qualifications

1. In making an independence determination with respect to any Director or Director candidate, the Board shall consider the standards below with respect to relationships or interests of the Director or Director candidate with or in (a) NYSE Group or its subsidiaries, (b) members and allied members (as defined in paragraphs (a) and (c), respectively, of Rule 2 of New York Stock Exchange LLC), and "allied persons" (as defined in Rule 1.1(b) of the Pacific Exchange and Rule 1.1(c) of PCX Equities, Inc.), (c) member organizations of New York Stock Exchange LLC and OTP Firms of the Pacific Exchange and ETP Holders of PCX Equities, Inc. (collectively, "Member Organizations") or non-member broker-dealers that engage in business involving substantial direct contact with securities customers ("Non-Member Broker-Dealers"), and (d) companies other than Member Organizations whose securities are listed on New York Stock Exchange LLC or on the Pacific Exchange ("Listed Companies"). The standards below relating to category (a) are the same as those that New York Stock Exchange LLC applies to its own listed companies. The standards below relating to categories (b), (c) and (d) stem from the differing regulatory responsibilities and roles that New York Stock Exchange LLC and the Pacific Exchange exercise in overseeing the organizations and companies included in those categories.

2. The term "approved person" used herein has the meaning set forth in the Rules of New York Stock Exchange LLC, the Pacific Exchange, Inc. and PCX Equities, Inc.

3. The term "immediate family member" with respect to any Director has the meaning set forth in the NYSE Listed Company Manual.

4. The following independence criteria shall apply:

Independence from NYSE Group

A Director is not independent if the Director or an immediate family member of the Director has or had a relationship or interest with or in NYSE Group which, if such relationship or interest existed with respect to a Listed Company on the NYSE Stock Exchange LLC, would preclude a Director of the Listed Company from being considered an independent Director of the Listed Company pursuant to Section 303A.02(a) or (b) of the Listed Company Manual.⁽²⁾

(2) The relevant sections of the Listed Company Manual and commentary are available on the website at www.nyse.com/pdfs/finalcorpgovrules.pdf

Members, Allied Members, Allied Persons and Approved Persons

A Director is not independent if he or she is, or within the last three years was, or has an immediate family member who is, or within the last three years was, a member, allied member, allied person or approved person.

Member Organizations

A Director is not independent if the Director (a) is, or within the last three years was, employed by a Member Organization, (b) has an immediate family member who is, or within the last three years was, an executive officer of a Member Organization, (c) has within the last three years received from any Member Organization more than $100,000 per year in direct compensation, or received from Member Organizations in the aggregate an amount of direct compensation which in any one year is more than 10 percent of the Director's annual gross income for such year, excluding in each case Director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service), or (d) is affiliated, directly or indirectly, with a Member Organization.

Non-Member Broker-Dealers

A Director is not independent if the Director is employed by or affiliated, directly or indirectly, with a Non-Member Broker-Dealer.

Listed Companies

A Director is not independent if the Director is an executive officer of an issuer of securities listed on New York Stock Exchange LLC or the Pacific Exchange.

The NYSE Group shall make disclosure of any charitable relationship that a listed company would be required to disclose pursuant to Listed Company Manual Section 303A.02(b)(v) and commentary. Gifts by the NYSE Group shall not favor charities on which any Director serves as an executive officer or member of the board of trustees or directors or comparable governing body.
