Emerging growth company

If an emerging growth company, indicate by check mark if the registrant has elected not to use the extended transition period for complying with any new or revised financial accounting standards provided pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On November 29, 2017, Chipotle Mexican Grill, Inc. announced that Steve Eells, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Chipotle—and the founder of the company in 1993—will cease to serve as Chief Executive Officer, and be appointed Executive Chairman of Chipotle’s Board of Directors, effective as of the completion of a search to identify, and appointment of, a new Chief Executive Officer of the company.

In connection with the planned transition, Chipotle and Mr. Eells entered into an Executive Chairman Agreement, dated November 28, 2017. The agreement provides that, upon his appointment as Executive Chairman, Mr. Eells will have an annualized base salary for the 2018 fiscal year of $900,000, a target annual bonus opportunity of 100% of his base salary, and a maximum annual bonus opportunity of 225% of his base salary. In addition, on or about January 2, 2018 and subject to his continued employment through such date, the company will make Mr. Eells a one-time grant of a stock option to purchase 175,000 shares of Chipotle common stock having a per share exercise price equal to the greater of $500 and the fair market value of a share of common stock on the date of grant. The stock option will vest on the date that is 18 months following the date of grant, subject to (1) Mr. Eells’s continued employment through the vesting date, (2) the appointment of a new Chief Executive Officer prior to the vesting date, and (3) accelerated vesting upon Mr. Eells’s earlier termination of employment by Chipotle without cause, by Mr. Eells with good reason, or due to his death or disability. The stock option, if vested, will first be exercisable on January 4, 2021, and will expire on January 4, 2022.

Under the agreement, Mr. Eells has agreed that, while he is employed by Chipotle and for a two-year period thereafter, he will not, (a) directly or indirectly, own, manage, operate, control, be employed, or engaged in any capacity (whether or not for compensation) by, or render services, advice, or assistance in any capacity to, a business competing with Chipotle in the continental United States, (b) recruit, hire, or solicit Chipotle’s employees, or (c) induce any of Chipotle’s suppliers, licensees, or other business relations to cease doing business with Chipotle or interfere with the relationship between any such supplier, licensee, or other business relation and Chipotle. The agreement also includes customary confidentiality provisions and a mutual non-disparagement covenant. If Mr. Eells’s employment is terminated by Chipotle without cause or by Mr. Eells with good reason, then, subject to his continued compliance with the restrictive covenants set forth in the agreement, the company will continue to pay Mr. Eells his then-current base salary during the applicable restricted period.

The foregoing description of the agreement with Mr. Eells does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Executive Chairman Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
