Description of Transaction and Securities Beneficially Owned

The Merger

On July 7, 2000, Electro-Kinetic Systems, Inc. ("EKS") and Sterling Media Fund Management liability company ("Sterling Managers"), completed the transactions contemplated by the Letter Agreement, a complete copy of which is attached as Exhibit A to the 8-K filing with the SEC dated July 24, 2000, 15% of the equity interests in Sterling Managers. On the same day EKS changed its name to Sterling Media ("Sterling Media"). Thereafter, on the 10th day of July 2000, Sterling Media acquired the remaining equity interests in Sterling Managers with Sterling Managers continuing as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sterling Media.

As a result of the acquisition, the equity holders of Sterling Managers and the person who held an equity interest in Sterling Managers now own approximately 91.5% of the voting stock of Sterling Media Capital Group, Inc.

Because of the change in ownership of voting stock and the composition of the board of directors, there was a change in control of EKS upon completion of the acquisition.

Reduction in Outstanding Shares

Pursuant to a resolution by the Board of Directors dated November 2, 2000, the number of shares of Sterling Media common have been effectively reduced whereby one share of "new" Sterling Media common was issued for every three shares of Sterling Media common shares outstanding on that date. On the same date, each share of Sterling Media common issued as a part of the merger, were converted into 3.2840938 "new" shares of Sterling Media common then outstanding. These actions effectively reduced the number of outstanding shares from 3,535,538 shares of Series A Preferred to approximately 17,000,000 "new" common shares.
