Item 5. Other Events and Regulation FD Disclosure.

On December 17, 2003, Enterprise Products Partners L.P. (the Partnership ) issued and sold 4,413,549 Class B Special Units to an affiliate of Enterprise Products Company ( EPCO ) in a private sale. EPCO is a privately held company controlled by Dan Duncan, the Partnership s co-founder and chairman of its general partner.

The purchase price for the Class B Special Units was $100,000,000, or approximately $22.6575 per unit, representing a 5% discount from the $23.85 closing price of the Partnership s Common Units on the New York Stock Exchange on December 16, 2003. The 5% discount is consistent with the 5% discount available to all unitholders under the Partnership s distribution reinvestment plan. The Partnership plans to use the proceeds of the unit sale to retire debt.

The Partnership s Class B Special Units have rights identical to the Partnership s Common Units with respect to Partnership distributions and other matters. However, the Class B Special Units do not have voting rights. The Class B Special Units may become convertible into Common Units upon receipt of the requisite approval by the holders of the Partnership s Common Units as required by the New York Stock Exchange.
