Item 1.01. Entry Into A Material Definitive Agreement

On September 21, 2005, Boston Scientific Corporation and Medinol Ltd. reached a settlement resolving all outstanding litigation between the parties. Under the terms of the settlement, Boston Scientific will pay Medinol $750 million, and the parties will agree to:

A mutual release of existing claims against each other, effectively dismissing all outstanding stent litigation, including all disputes with respect to the Express and TAXUS Express stents.

A declaration that all agreements between each other, including the supply agreement, are canceled.

A covenant by Medinol not to sue Boston Scientific under certain Medinol patents other than through an established arbitration process.

The establishment of an arbitration process to be the sole forum to hear any future disputes that may arise involving certain Medinol patents, in which Medinol has agreed to limit any relief it seeks to reasonable royalties.

A copy of Boston Scientific's press release issued on September 21, 2005 announcing this settlement as well as a copy of the Settlement Agreement between Boston Scientific and Medinol are attached to this report as Exhibits 99.1 and 10.1, respectively.
