On April 26, 2005, the stockholders of Crompton Corporation approved the 2005 Crompton Corporation Short-Term Incentive Plan (the "Incentive Plan"). The Incentive Plan is intended to constitute a qualified performance-based compensation plan under Section 162(m)(4)(C) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") and will be administered and interpreted so as to ensure such compliance.

Section 162(m) of the Code prohibits the deduction by publicly held corporations of compensation other than qualifying performance-based employee compensation, exceeding $1 million that is paid during a year to a company's chief executive officer and the next four most highly compensated executives ("Covered Employees"). To be deductible, such compensation must be paid solely on account of one or more performance goals established by, and the achievement must be certified by, a compensation committee consisting of two or more outside directors. In addition, the material terms of the performance goals used to determine the maximum compensation for the Covered Employees must be disclosed to and approved by the stockholders of the corporation paying the compensation prior to payment.

The Incentive Plan will be effective as of January 1, 2005. A copy of the Incentive Plan is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is herein incorporated by reference.
