Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement

On December 2, 2016, Teledyne Technologies Incorporated (the "Company") entered into agreements (the "Second Amendment Agreements") that amend and restate the Amended and Restated Loan Agreements, dated as of November 21, 2013, with each of Bank of America, N.A. ("Bank of America") and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association ("Wells Fargo Bank") and U.S. Bank, National Association ("U.S. Bank"), relating to term loans of $182.5 million in aggregate principal amount (the "Term Loans"). The Second Amendment Agreements amend each of the Term Loans primarily by:

• extending the maturity date of the Term Loans from March 1, 2019 to January 31, 2022 and extending the date on which amortization of principal begins; and

• generally lowering the applicable rate for base rate and Eurocurrency loans.

The Second Amendment Agreements do not result in new borrowings by the Company and do not amend or restate in any material respect the representations and covenants of the Company or the applicable events of default. The same subsidiaries of the Company that acted as guarantors under the original Amended and Restated Loan Agreements act as guarantors under the Second Amendment Agreements.

The descriptions set forth above are qualified in their entirety by the Second Amendment Agreements entered into with each of Bank of America and Wells Fargo Bank and U.S. Bank, together with the exhibits and schedules thereto, copies of which are filed as exhibits to this report and are incorporated by reference herein.

Bank of America, Wells Fargo Bank and U.S. Bank, and/or their affiliates, are among the lenders under the Company's amended and restated revolving credit facility and have provided, from time to time, and may continue to provide commercial banking, financial and other services to the Company, for which the Company has paid and intends to pay customary fees
