BITSTREAM INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2001
(Unaudited)

(1) Significant Accounting Policies

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The consolidated financial statements of Bitstream Inc. (the "Company" or Bitstream) presented herein, without audit, have been prepared pursuant to the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) for quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and do not include all of the information and footnote disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles. The balance sheet information at December 31, 2000 has been derived from the Company's audited consolidated financial statements. These statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto for the period ended December 31, 2000 included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K, which was filed by the Company with the SEC on April 2, 2001.

The balance sheet as of June 30, 2001, the statements of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, the statements of cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, and the notes to each thereof are unaudited, but in the opinion of management include all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the Company and its subsidiaries for these interim periods.

The results of operations for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 may not necessarily be indicative of the results to be expected for any future interim period or for the year ending December 31, 2001.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly owned subsidiaries: Bitstream World Trade, Inc. (a Delaware corporation), a holding company for Bitstream, B.V. (a Dutch corporation); Mainstream Software Solutions Ltd. (an English corporation); Type Solutions, Inc. (a New Hampshire Corporation); Archetype, Inc. (a Delaware corporation); Pageflex, Inc. (a Delaware corporation) and MyFonts.com, Inc. (a Delaware corporation). All material inter-company transactions and balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain prior year account balances have been reclassified to be consistent with the current year's presentation. RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Edgar Filing: COOPER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

In September 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities. SFAS No. 140 provides accounting and reporting standards for transfers and servicing of financial assets and extinguishments of liabilities. Under SFAS No. 140, after a transfer of financial assets, an entity recognizes the financial and servicing assets it controls and the liabilities it has incurred, derecognizes financial assets when control has been surrendered, and derecognizes liabilities when extinguished. SFAS No. 140 also provides standards for distinguishing transfers of financial assets that are sales from transfers that are secured borrowings. SFAS No. 140 is effective for certain transactions occurring after March 31, 2001 and certain disclosures for the year ending December 31, 2001. The Company has adopted SFAS No. 140, which did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In June 1998, the FASB issued SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. This statement establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities. It requires that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position and measure those instruments at fair value. This statement, as amended by SFAS No. 137 and SFAS No. 138, is effective for fiscal years ending December 31, 2001. The Company has adopted SFAS No. 133 as amended, which did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

On June 29, 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141, Business Combinations, and SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. These statements establish new standards for accounting for business combinations, goodwill, and intangible assets. Statement 141 eliminates the pooling-of-interests method of accounting for business combinations except for qualifying business combinations that were initiated prior to July 1, 2001 and changes the criteria to recognize intangible assets apart from goodwill. The requirements of Statement 141 are effective for any business combination accounted for by the purchase method that is completed after June 30, 2001. Statement 142 supersedes APB Opinion No. 17, Intangible Assets (which required that goodwill and intangible assets be amortized over a life not to exceed 40 years), and carries forward its provisions related to internally developed intangible assets without the FASB's reconsideration. Under Statement 142, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are no longer amortized but are reviewed annually for impairment, or more frequently if impairment indicators arise. Goodwill is required to be tested for impairment between the annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that more-likely-than-not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying value. An indefinite-lived intangible asset is required to be tested for impairment between the annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change indicating that the asset might be impaired. Separable intangible assets that have finite lives will continue to be amortized over their useful lives, for which Statement 142 does not impose a limit. Any required goodwill impairment charges would be presented as a separate line item within the operating section of the income statement. The Company has adopted Statement 141, which did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. The Company is required to adopt Statement 142 on January 1, 2002 and is currently evaluating the impact on the Company's financial position and results of operations.

(2) Property and Equipment (in thousands)

Property and equipment are stated at cost, less accumulated depreciation and amortization. Property and equipment consists of the following:

	June 30, 2001	December 31, 2000
	2001	2000
Office and computer equipment	$ 2,321	$ 2,069
Purchased software	347	347
Equipment under capital lease	---	167

Leasehold improvements	659	659
	3,699	3,608
Less Accumulated depreciation and amortization	3,155	2,972
Property and equipment, net	544	$ 636

(3) Concentration of Credit Risk

SFAS No. 105, Disclosure of Information About Financial Instruments with Off-Balance Sheet Risk and Financial Instruments with Concentration of Credit Risk, requires disclosure of any significant off-balance sheet and credit risk concentrations. Financial instruments that potentially expose the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents and trade accounts receivable. The Company places a majority of its cash investments in one financial institution. The Company has not experienced significant losses related to receivables from any individual customers or groups of customers in any specific industry or by geographic area. Due to these factors, no additional credit risk beyond amounts provided for collection losses is believed by management to be inherent in the Company's accounts receivable. At June 30, 2001, three customers accounted for 10% each of the Company's accounts receivable. At December 31, 2000, one customer accounted for 18% of the Company's accounts receivable. The Company does not have any financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk as of June 30, 2001. For the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001, no customers accounted for more than 10% of the Company's revenue. For the three months ended June 30, 2000, two customers accounted for 21% and 12%, respectively, of the Company's revenue. For the six months ended June 30, 2000, one customer accounted for 14% of the Company's revenue.

For the three months ended June 30, 2001, one customer of the Company's type and technology segment accounted for 10% of that segment's revenue, and one customer of the Pageflex segment accounted for 19% of that segment's revenue. For the six months ended June 30, 2001 no customers of the Company's type and technology segment accounted for 10% or more of that segment's revenue, and three customers of the Pageflex segment accounted for 11%, 11% and 10%, respectively, of that segment's revenue. For the three months ended June 30, 2000, two customers of the Company's type and technology segment accounted for 20% and 10%, respectively, of the revenue for that segment, and three customers of the Pageflex segment accounted for 58%, 12% and 11%, respectively, of that segment's revenue. For the six months ended June 30, 2000, one customer of the Company's type and technology segment accounted for 11% of the revenue for that segment, and two customers of the Pageflex segment accounted for 47% and 16%, respectively, of that segment's revenue.

The Company's MyFonts.com segment had no customers responsible for 10% or more of its accounts receivable balance as of June 30, 2001 or December 31, 2000, and had no customers that accounted for 10% or more of its revenue for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 or 2000.

(4) Accrued Expenses (in thousands)

Accrued expenses consist of the following:

	June 30,	December 31,
	2001	2000
Accrued royalties	$ 213	$ 210
Payroll and other compensation	496	648
Accrued professional and consulting services	137	169
Other	245	260
Total	$ 1,091	$ 1,287

(5) Loss Per Share (in thousands)

In accordance with SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share, basic earnings per share was determined by dividing net loss by the weighted average shares of common stock outstanding during the applicable period. Diluted earnings per share reflect dilution from potentially dilutive securities, primarily stock options based on the treasury stock method. In computing diluted earnings per share, common stock equivalents are not considered in periods in which a net loss is reported as the inclusion of the potential common stock equivalents would be antidilutive. Thus potential common shares were not included for the three or six months ended June 30, 2001 or 2000. Had the numerator been a profit, the potential common shares would have increased the weighted average shares outstanding by 696 and 2,005 shares for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and by 792 and 2,162 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively. In addition, there were warrants and options to purchase 449 and 116 shares for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, that were not included in the potential common share computations because their exercise prices were greater than the market price of the Company's common stock. These common stock equivalents are antidilutive even when a profit is reported in the numerator.

(6) Segment Reporting (in thousands)

The Company has three reportable business segments: (1) its type and technology segment; (2) its Pageflex segment and (3) its MyFonts.com segment. The Company's reportable segments are strategic business units that sell the Company's products through distinct distribution channels. They are managed separately as each business requires different marketing strategies. The Company's approach is based on the way that management organizes the segments within the enterprise for making operating decisions and assessing performance.

Edgar Filing: COOPER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

MyFonts.com's revenues include revenue from products it purchases from the type and technology segment. The inter-segment revenues created by these transactions have been eliminated from MyFonts.com's revenue below, as well as from the Company's consolidated financial statements. The Company evaluates performance based on profit or loss from operations before income taxes, not including non-recurring gains and losses.

(7) Geographical Reporting (in thousands)

The Company attributes revenues to different geographical areas on the basis of the location of the customer. All of the Company's product sales for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000 were shipped from its headquarters located in the United States or its office located in Cheltenham, England. Revenues by geographic area are as follows:

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto.

OVERVIEW

Bitstream Inc. (Bitstream or the Company), headquartered in Cambridge, Massachusetts, is composed of three separate and distinct businesses: (1) type and technology in which Bitstream develops and licenses font technology and custom font designs to manufacturers of Internet appliances, wireless devices, set-top boxes, embedded systems, printers, and personal digital assistants; (2) MyFonts.com, a showcase of the world's fonts in one easy-to-use e-commerce web site operated by Bitstream's wholly-owned subsidiary, MyFonts.com, Inc. (MyFonts.com); and (3) Pageflex, formerly referred to as the Company's on-demand marketing segment, in which the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary Pageflex, Inc. (Pageflex) develops, markets and supports on-demand document composition solutions which automatically produce customized one-to-one marketing collateral such as datasheets and brochures directly from XML text and graphics data stored in web servers and/or databases.

FORWARD LOOKING STATEMENTS

Except for the historical information contained herein, this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Investors are cautioned that forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain. Actual performance and results of operations may differ materially from those projected or suggested in the forward-looking statements due to certain risks and uncertainties, including, without limitation, market acceptance of the Company's products, competition and the timely introduction of new products. Additional information concerning certain risks and uncertainties that would cause actual results to differ materially from those projected or suggested in the forward-looking statements is contained in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including those risks and uncertainties discussed in the Company's final Prospectus, dated October 30, 1996, included as part of the Company's Registration Statement on Form S-1 (333-11519), in the section entitled "Risk Factors", the Company's 2000 Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on April 2, 2001, and Quarterly Reports to be filed in 2001. The forward-looking statements contained herein represent the Company's judgment as of the date of this report, and the Company cautions readers not to place undue reliance on such statements. Management undertakes no obligation to publicly release any revisions to the forward-looking statements or reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document.

Edgar Filing: COOPER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

The decrease in revenue for the three months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months ended June 30, 2000 was attributable to decreases in revenue for the type and technology segment of $317 and the Pageflex segment of $393, partially offset by an increase in MyFonts.com revenues of $111. The decrease in revenue for the six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2000 was attributable to decreases in revenue for the type and technology segment of $906 and the Pageflex segment of $438, partially offset by an increase in MyFonts.com revenues of $191. These segments are discussed in more detail below.

Type and Technology Revenues:

	JUNE 30, 2001	% of Revenue	JUNE 30, 2000	% of Revenue	Change Dollars	Percent

Percentage of total revenues	67.3%		70.1

The decrease in type and technology license revenues for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 versus the three and six months ended June 30, 2000 was due to decreases in OEM technology licensing of $268 and $705, respectively, decreases in reseller sales of $28 and $11, respectively, and decreases in retail sales of $62 and $230, respectively. These decreases were primarily due to the softening of the market for high technology products in general and increased concern over future economic conditions. Service revenue increased $41 and $40, respectively, for the three and six month periods ended June 30, 2001.

MyFonts.com Revenues:

MyFonts.com's revenue, prior to the elimination of inter-company royalties paid to Bitstream's type and technology segment, increased by $160 to $168 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to $8 for the three months ended June 30, 2000, and by $263 to $271 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to $8 for the six months ended June 30, 2000. MyFonts.com began selling through its web site at the end of the first quarter of 2000. Revenue from the MyFonts.com web site and revenue that it earns from managing the e-commerce portion of Bitstream's web site have increased each month since its inception.

The decrease in license revenue for the Pageflex segment for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2000 was attributable to non-recurring OEM licensing fees from an existing long-term contract with Atex Media Solutions, Inc. (Atex) of $252 and $336, respectively, during the three and six months ended June 30, 2000. Pageflex license revenues increased $129 and $274, respectively, for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000, excluding these license fees, primarily due to increases in direct sales and subscriptions of the Company's Mpower product. Revenues from services decreased as a result of a decreased emphasis on consulting, and specifically due to the completion of certain non-recurring consulting projects during the six months ended June 30, 2000.

The decrease in the gross profit for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000 is primarily attributable to decreases in revenues discussed above totaling $599 and $1,153, respectively, partially offset by a decrease in cost of revenues totaling $72 and $190, respectively. Type and technology's cost of revenues for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2000 decreased $70 and $147, respectively, primarily because of the elimination of outside subcontractors whose services were utilized during 2000 and a reduction in time spent by type engineers on customer specific projects. Pageflex's cost of revenues for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2000 decreased $87 and $191, respectively, as a result of a decreased emphasis on consulting which has a higher cost than licensing revenue and included $67 of non-recurring development costs associated with Atex consulting revenue during the three and six months ended June 30, 2000. These decreases were partially offset by increases for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2000 of $85 and $148, respectively, in MyFonts.com cost of revenues related to royalties paid to outside font foundries for the sale of their fonts.

Cost of revenue is composed of direct costs of licenses, as well as direct costs of product sales to end-users. Included in the cost of licenses are fees paid to third parties for the development or license of rights to technology and/or unique typeface designs and costs incurred in the fulfillment of custom orders from OEM and ISV customers. Included in cost of product sales to end users and distributors are the direct costs associated with the duplication, packaging and shipping of product.

Percentage of total revenue	44.5%	41.5%

Selling and marketing expenses for the type and technology segment increased $18 or 4.7% to $404 and decreased $25 or 3.1% to $778, respectively, for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2000. Selling and marketing expenses for the MyFonts.com segment remained unchanged at $6 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and June 30, 2000, and increased $15 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the six months ended June 30, 2000. Selling and marketing costs associated with the Pageflex segment decreased $238 or 42.6% to $321 and $359 or 32.0% to 763, respectively, for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000. These reductions resulted from management's decision to reduce marketing expenses including our trade show expenses and from non-recurring costs related to new product introductions and branding which took place on a limited basis during the first two quarters of 2000. Specifically, trade show and print and production expenses decreased $108 and $203, respectively, and marketing consultant use decreased $24 and $45, respectively.

R&D costs associated with the type and technology segment decreased $17 or 3.7% and increased $26 or 2.9%, respectively, from $460 and $903 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000 to $443 and $929 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001. R&D costs associated with the Myfonts.com segment increased $83 or 92.2% from $90 for the three months ended June 30, 2000 to $173 for the three months ended June 30, 2001, and $118 or 59.6% from $198 for the six months ended June 30, 2000 to $316 for the six months ended June 30, 2001. These MyFonts.com expenses relate to employee and subcontractor costs for the continued enhancement of the MyFonts.com web site. R&D costs associated with the Pageflex segment decreased $8 or 1.2% and $46 or 3.3%, respectively, from $657 and $1,394 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000 to $649 and $1,348 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001.

Consolidated General and Administrative (G&A):

Six months ended:
General and administrative	$ 833	$ 1,137	$ (304)	(26.7)%
Percentage of total revenue	23.8%	24.4%

G&A costs associated with the type and technology segment decreased $18 or 7.9% and $93 or 16.1%, respectively, from $257 and $577 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000 to $239 and $484 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001, respectively. Bad debt expense decreased $126 and $288, respectively, for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000. G&A expenses, excluding bad debt activity, increased $108 and $195 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000, respectively. These increases are primarily attributable to increases in professional service fees of $52 and $101 and facilities related costs of $46 and $74, for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three and six months ended June 30, 2000, respectively. G&A costs associated with the Pageflex segment decreased $108 or 39.7% and $235 or 42.7%, respectively, from $272 and $550 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000 to $164 and $315 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001. Bad debt expense decreased $120 and $252, respectively, for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000. G&A expenses, excluding bad debt activity, increased $12 and $17 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to the three months and six months ended June 30, 2000, respectively. G&A costs associated with the MyFonts.com segment increased $9 and $24, respectively, to $18 and $34 for the three months and six months ended June 30, 2001 from $9 and $10 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2000. Bad debt expense decreases resulted from the net decrease in reserves for doubtful accounts during the first six months of 2001 resulting from the collection of several accounts receivable balances which had been reserved for during the year ended December 31, 2000.

A significant portion of the Company's operating expenses are fixed, and planned expenditures in any given quarter are based on sales and revenue forecasts. Accordingly, if products are not completed and/or shipped on schedule and revenues do not meet the Company's expectations in any given quarter, the Company's operating results and financial condition could be adversely affected.

(Loss) Income on Investment in DiamondSoft, Inc.:

The Company made a $500 equity investment in DiamondSoft, Inc. in March of 1998 and made additional investments totaling $150 during the three months ended March 31, 2001 and $100 during the three months ended June 30, 2001. As of June 30, 2001 the Company's ownership percentage in DiamondSoft, Inc. is 28%. DiamondSoft, Inc. is a California corporation primarily engaged in the business of developing, marketing and distributing software tools to a variety of professional markets. The Company recognizes its share of DiamondSoft's income or loss during each quarter and recorded a loss of $(76) and income of $3 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, and a loss of $(151) and income of $11 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

Interest income, net:

Interest income consists primarily of interest income earned on the Company's cash equivalents.

Provision for income taxes:

The Company's income tax expense for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001 and June 30, 2000 primarily represents foreign income taxes.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES (in thousands)

The Company has funded its operations primarily through the public sale of equity securities, cash flows from operations and cash received from the sale of the Company's MediaBank and InterSep OPI product lines to Inso Providence Corporation in August of 1998. As of June 30, 2001, the Company had net working capital of $5,412 versus $7,371 at December 31, 2000.

The Company's operating activities used cash of $266 during the six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to $1,208 during the six months ended June 30, 2000. The cash used during the six months ended June 30, 2001 was primarily due to losses in all three business segments offset by the collection of $1,112 in receivables during the period. The cash used during the six months ended June 30, 2000 was primarily due to the net losses from the Pageflex and MyFonts.com businesses, partially offset by the income from the type and technology business. The net loss adjusted for non-cash expenses resulted in a use of $1,604 and $1,127 in cash during the six months ended June 30, 2001 and June 30, 2000, respectively.

The Company's investing activities used cash of $477 during the six months ended June 30, 2001 as compared to using $430 during the six months ended June 30, 2000. The purchase of property and equipment used $97 and $160 of cash during the six months ended June 30, 2001 and June 30, 2000, respectively. During the six months ended June 30, 2001, the Company made additional investments in DiamondSoft, Inc. totaling $250. For the six months ended June 30, 2000 the Company also used $300 to secure a $300 line of credit granted by Wells Fargo Bank to DiamondSoft, Inc. This cash is presented on the Company's consolidated balance sheet as restricted cash.

The Company's financing activities provided cash of $148 and $453 during the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively, from the exercise of stock options.

The Company believes its current cash and cash equivalent balances will be sufficient to meet the Company's operating and capital requirements for at least the next 12 months. There can be no assurance, however, that the Company will not require additional financing in the future. If the Company were required to obtain additional financing in the future, there can be no assurance that sources of capital will be available on terms favorable to the Company, if at all. As of June 30, 2001, the Company had no material commitments for capital expenditures. From time to time, the Company evaluates potential acquisitions of products, businesses and technologies that may complement or expand the Company's business. Any such transactions consummated may use a portion of the Company's working capital or require the issuance of equity or debt.

In November 1996, the Company completed an initial public offering ("IPO") of 2,415 shares of its Class A Common Stock. Net proceeds from the IPO were approximately $12,200, of which approximately $1,500 was used to repay outstanding indebtedness.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In September 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 140, Accounting for Transfers and Servicing of Financial Assets and Extinguishments of Liabilities. SFAS No. 140 provides accounting and reporting standards for transfers and servicing of financial assets and extinguishments of liabilities. Under SFAS No. 140, after a transfer of financial assets, an entity recognizes the financial and servicing assets it controls and the liabilities it has incurred, derecognizes financial assets when control has been surrendered, and derecognizes liabilities when extinguished. SFAS No. 140 also provides standards for distinguishing transfers of financial assets that are sales from transfers that are secured borrowings. SFAS No. 140 is effective for certain transactions occurring after March 31, 2001 and certain disclosures for the year ending December 31, 2001. The Company has adopted SFAS No. 140, which did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

In June 1998, the FASB issued SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. This statement establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, and for hedging activities. It requires that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the statement of financial position and measure those instruments at fair value. This statement, as amended by SFAS No. 137 and SFAS No. 138, is effective for fiscal years ending December 31, 2001. The Company has adopted SFAS No. 133 as amended, which did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

Edgar Filing: COOPER COMPANIES INC - Form 8-K

On June 29, 2001, the FASB issued SFAS No. 141, Business Combinations, and SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets. These statements establish new standards for accounting for business combinations, goodwill, and intangible assets. Statement 141 eliminates the pooling-of-interests method of accounting for business combinations except for qualifying business combinations that were initiated prior to July 1, 2001 and changes the criteria to recognize intangible assets apart from goodwill. The requirements of Statement 141 are effective for any business combination accounted for by the purchase method that is completed after June 30, 2001. Statement 142 supersedes APB Opinion No. 17, Intangible Assets (which required that goodwill and intangible assets be amortized over a life not to exceed 40 years), and carries forward its provisions related to internally developed intangible assets without the FASB's reconsideration. Under Statement 142, goodwill and indefinite-lived intangible assets are no longer amortized but are reviewed annually for impairment, or more frequently if impairment indicators arise. Goodwill is required to be tested for impairment between the annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change that more-likely-than-not reduce the fair value of a reporting unit below its carrying value. An indefinite-lived intangible asset is required to be tested for impairment between the annual tests if an event occurs or circumstances change indicating that the asset might be impaired. Separable intangible assets that have finite lives will continue to be amortized over their useful lives, for which Statement 142 does not impose a limit. Any required goodwill impairment charges would be presented as a separate line item within the operating section of the income statement. The Company has adopted Statement 141, which did not have a material impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations. The Company is required to adopt Statement 142 on January 1, 2002 and is currently evaluating the impact on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

PART 1, ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

Derivative Financial Instruments, Other Financial Instruments and Derivative Commodity Instruments.

As of June 30, 2001, the Company did not participate in any derivative financial instruments or other financial and commodity instruments for which fair value disclosure would be required under SFAS No. 107. All of the Company's investments are short-term, investment-grade commercial paper, and money market accounts that are carried on the Company's books at amortized cost, which approximates fair market value. Accordingly, the Company has no quantitative information concerning the market risk of participating in such investments.

Primary Market Risk Exposures

The Company's primary market risk exposures are in the areas of interest rate risk and foreign currency exchange rate risk. The Company's investment portfolio of cash equivalent and short-term investments is subject to interest rate fluctuations, but the Company believes this risk is immaterial due to the short-term nature of these investments. The Company's exposure to currency exchange rate fluctuations has been and is expected to continue to be modest due to the fact that the operations of its international subsidiaries are almost exclusively conducted in their respective local currencies. International subsidiary operating results are translated into U.S. dollars and consolidated for reporting purposes. The impact of currency exchange rate movements on inter-company transactions was immaterial for the three and six months ended June 30, 2001. Currently the Company does not engage in foreign currency hedging activities.

PART II OTHER INFORMATION
