On September 18, 2006, Georgia Gulf Corporation (the Company) completed a Third Amendment to Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement (the amendment) to amend the Amended and Restated Receivables Purchase Agreement, dated November 12, 2004. The amendment extends the termination date from September 29, 2006, to September 18, 2009. In conjunction with this transaction, we also completed a Third Amendment to Receivables Sale Agreement Dated as of September 18, 2006, to the Receivables Sale Agreement Dated as of November 15, 2002.

Under the terms of the amended agreements, the Company has sold to Variable Funding Capital Company LLC and Victory Receivables Corporation an undivided percentage ownership interest in a defined pool of its trade receivables on a revolving basis. The sale is recorded as a reduction in receivables on the Company's consolidated balance sheet. On-going costs will be charged to selling, general and administrative expenses. The balance sold is divided equally between the two purchasers. The funded balance has the effect of reducing accounts receivable and short-term liabilities by the same amount. As collections reduce accounts receivable included in the pool, we sell ownership interests in new receivables to bring the ownership interests sold up to a maximum of $165 million. We continue to service these receivables and maintain an interest in the receivables.

Continued availability of this financing is conditioned upon compliance with covenants, related primarily to the operation of the financing as set forth in the amended agreements. Should the Company be unable to comply with these covenants, the financing would be terminated and although we would not be required to repurchase previously sold receivables, we would be prevented from selling additional receivables. In that event, the Company would have to source these funding requirements with availability under its senior credit facility or obtain alternate financing. The maximum potential future payments under the amended agreements are the base sale amount of $165 million plus any program fees on the funded balance, which we believe are approximately $9.6 million annually. Copies of the amended agreements are attached hereto as exhibits 10.1 and 10.2 and are hereby incorporated by reference herein.
