ANZ appoints Group Managing Director for Operations, Technology and Shared Services

ANZ today announced the appointment of Mr David Cartwright as Group Managing Director, Operations, Technology and Shared Services reporting to Chief Executive Officer, Mr John McFarlane.

Mr Cartwright will move from the United Kingdom to join ANZ over the next few months following the planned retirement of Mr Mike Grime.

Mr Cartwright joins ANZ from Intelligent Processing Solutions Limited (iPSL) where he was Chief Executive Officer. iPSL is a joint venture created by Unisys, Lloyds TSB Bank, Barclays and HSBC that provides around 70% of cheque processing services in the United Kingdom.

Previously Mr Cartwright had a 22-year career in operations and technology at Barclays PLC. His recent roles at Barclays include Director, Operations and Client Experience, Private Clients and International (2002-2004), Managing Director, Service Delivery (1999-2002) and Managing Director, Barclays Technology Services (1998-99).

Commenting on Mr Cartwright's appointment Mr McFarlane said: We are very pleased to have someone of David's calibre join ANZ. His experience in technology and operations is important in continuing to advance our agenda on productivity, particularly end-to-end simplification.

On Mr Grime's retirement, Mr McFarlane said: It will be sad to see Mike leave ANZ. He and I first worked together in Citibank 25 years ago, then at Standard Chartered, and I was delighted to have him join us at ANZ. While we are fortunate to have Mike with us for a little longer, I would like to express my gratitude to him for his immense contribution to the Group since he joined us in 2003.
