SEC 1344 Persons who are to respond to the collection of information contained in this form are not required to respond (03-05) unless the form displays a currently valid OMB control number.

The AES Corporation (the Company) announced today that it would delay the filing of its 2006 Annual Report on Form 10-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The Company's 2006 annual report on Form 10-K could not be filed by March 1, 2007 without unreasonable effort or expense due to the fact that the Company had to allocate significant time and resources to the restatement of prior period financials that will be filed with the 2006 report on Form 10-K and its continuing accounting review, including with respect to those matters described in the Form 8-K filed by the Company on February 26, 2007. Although the Company can provide no assurance that it will be able to file in that time period if additional issues are identified in its review, the Company currently believes that the Form 10-K can be filed no later than the fifteenth calendar day following the date on which the Form 10-K was due.
