In each case, such information may not be accurate or complete and AIG takes no responsibility therefor and makes no representation to its accuracy or completeness as of the date hereof or any subsequent date.

(d) and (e):

2006 Regulatory Settlements

In February 2006, AIG reached a final settlement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the United States Department of Justice (DOJ), the Office of the New York Attorney General (NYAG) and the New York State Department of Insurance (DOI). The settlements resolved outstanding litigation filed by the SEC, NYAG and DOI against AIG and concluded negotiations with these authorities and the DOJ in connection with the accounting, financial reporting and insurance brokerage practices of AIG and its subsidiaries, as well as claims relating to the underpayment of certain workers compensation premium taxes and other assessments. As a result of these settlements, AIG made payments or placed amounts in escrow in 2006 totaling approximately $1.64 billion, $225 million of which represented fines and penalties. The following is additional information regarding the settlements.

AIG, without admitting or denying the allegations in the SEC complaint, consented to the issuance of a final judgment on February 9, 2006: (a) permanently restraining and enjoining AIG from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act), and Sections 10(b), 13(a), 13(b)(2) and 13(b)(5) and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-13 and 13b2-1 of the Exchange Act; (b) ordering AIG to pay disgorgement; and (c) ordering AIG to pay a civil penalty.

In February 2006, AIG and the DOJ entered into a letter agreement. In the letter agreement, the DOJ notified AIG that in its view, AIG, acting through some of its employees, violated federal criminal law in connection with misstatements in periodic financial reports that AIG filed with the SEC between 2000 and 2004 relating to certain transactions. The settlement with the DOJ consists of, among other things, AIG s cooperating with the DOJ in the DOJ s ongoing criminal investigation, accepting responsibility for certain of its actions and those of its employees relating to these transactions and paying money into a fund. Also effective February 9, 2006, AIG entered into agreements with the NYAG and the DOI, settling claims under New York s Martin Act and insurance laws, among other provisions, which were originally brought by the NYAG and the DOI in a civil complaint filed on May 26, 2005.

As part of these settlements, AIG has agreed to retain for a period of three years an independent consultant who will conduct a review that will include the adequacy of AIG s internal controls over financial reporting and the remediation plan that AIG has implemented as a result of its own internal review.

PNC Settlement

In November 2004, AIG and AIG Financial Products Corp. (AIGFP), a subsidiary of AIG, reached a final settlement with the SEC, the Fraud Section of the DOJ and the United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana with respect to issues arising from certain structured transactions entered into with Brightpoint, Inc. and The PNC Financial Services Group, Inc. (PNC), the marketing of transactions similar to the PNC transactions and related matters.

As part of the settlement, the SEC filed against AIG a civil complaint, based on the conduct of AIG primarily through AIGFP, alleging violations of certain antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and for aiding and abetting violations of reporting and record keeping provisions of those laws. AIG, without admitting or denying the allegations in the SEC complaint, consented to the issuance of a final judgment permanently enjoining it and its employees and related persons from violating certain provisions of the Exchange Act, Exchange Act rules and the Securities Act, ordering disgorgement of fees it received from the PNC transactions and providing for AIG to establish a transaction review committee to review the appropriateness of certain future transactions and to retain an independent consultant to examine certain transactions entered into between 2000 and 2004 and review the policies and procedures of the transaction review committee.

The DOJ filed against AIGFP PAGIC Equity Holding Corp. (AIGFP PAGIC), a wholly owned subsidiary of AIGFP, a criminal complaint alleging that AIGFP PAGIC violated federal securities laws by aiding and abetting securities law violations by PNC, in connection with a transaction entered into in 2001 with PNC that was intended to enable PNC to remove certain assets from its balance sheets. The settlement with the DOJ consists of separate agreements with AIG and AIGFP and a complaint filed against, and deferred prosecution agreement with, AIGFP PAGIC. Under the terms of the settlement, AIGFP paid a monetary penalty of $80 million. On January 17, 2006, the court approved an order dismissing the complaint with prejudice. The obligations of AIG, AIGFP and AIGFP PAGIC under the DOJ agreements relate principally to cooperating with the DOJ and other federal agencies in connection with their related investigations.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction

Item 4 of this schedule is hereby supplemented as follows:

On March 11, 2005 the Filers adopted a pre-arranged stock trading plan (the Expired Plan). The Expired Plan contemplated the sale of less than 20 percent of their stock over time as part of a long-term strategy for asset diversification and liquidity. The Expired Plan was adopted in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934.

The Expired Plan involved 3,000,000 shares, or approximately 18% of the shares beneficially owned by the Filers, at that time. The Expired Plan represents approximately three 3% of the then outstanding common stock. Under the terms of the Expired Plan, the Filers gave their broker the discretion to sell, within stated parameters, up to 3,000,000 shares over an 18-month period, which, if all were sold, would have left the Filers with beneficial ownership of approximately 13,500,000 shares, or more than 80% of their then current holdings. The Expired Plan expired on December 31, 2006. There were no sales conducted under the Expired Plan.

On May 21, 2007, AIGGSEF, AIGGEM and GEM Parallel (collectively, the Funds) adopted a new pre-arranged stock trading plan (the New Plan). The New Plan was amended on May 31, 2007 to correct technical issues. The New Plan authorizes the sale of up to eight million shares, approximately 48% of the shares beneficially owned by the Funds, over time as part of a long-term strategy for asset diversification and liquidity. The New Plan was adopted in accordance with guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. Under the terms of the New Plan, the Funds instructed their broker to sell, subject to various price and volume parameters, common shares over a two-year period, which, if all of the shares covered by the New Plan were sold, would leave the Funds with beneficial ownership of approximately fifty-two percent (52%) of their current holdings. The New Plan expires on May 31, 2009.

Rule 10b5-1 allows stockholders to adopt written pre-arranged stock trading plans subject to certain restrictions. Using these plans, stockholders can gradually diversify their investment portfolios, can spread stock trades out over an extended period of time to reduce market impact of large sale transactions and can avoid concerns about whether they had material, non-public information when they sold their stock. Such plans may be initiated only when the stockholders are not in possession of material and non-public information. The rule allows stockholders adopting such plans to sell shares over a specified period of time, at specific prices in the future, even if subsequent material and non-public information becomes available to them. Sales of Common Stock by the Funds under the New Plan have been, and, if necessary, will be disclosed as required by applicable law in public filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including further amendments to this Schedule 13D. Except as set forth herein, the Funds do not have plans or proposals at this time that relate to or would result in any of the transactions described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 5. Interest in Securities of the Issuer
(a) and (b):

The information required by these paragraphs is set forth in Items 7 through 11 and 13 of each of the cover pages of this Amendment No. 3 and is incorporated herein by reference. Such information is based upon 142,632,540 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding as of July 31, 2007 as reported by the Issuer in its Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2007 filed on November 9, 2007.
