Media Release

Credit Suisse Group appoints Eric Varvel to Executive Board as Chief Executive Officer of Europe, Middle East and Africa

Zurich/London, January 10, 2008 Credit Suisse Group is pleased to announce that Eric Varvel has been appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Europe, Middle East and Africa (EMEA) region. In this role, Mr. Varvel will report to Brady W. Dougan, Chief Executive Officer of Credit Suisse, and will be a member of the Executive Board. He will be based in London and assumes his role on February 1, 2008.

Eric Varvel succeeds Michael Philipp, who has been Chairman and CEO of the EMEA region for the past three years. Michael Philipp will step down as a member of the Executive Board to assume a new role as Chairman of the Middle East and Africa, focusing on strategic clients in the region, working closely with Eric Varvel. Michael Philipp will continue as Chairman of the Environmental Business Group of Credit Suisse.

Eric Varvel will work with the Investment Banking, Private Banking and Asset Management businesses, leading the integrated bank in the region. He will assume this role in addition to his responsibilities as Co-Head of the Global Investment Banking Department and Head of the Global Markets Solutions Group in the Investment Bank.

Brady W. Dougan, CEO of Credit Suisse, said: Eric is one of our most respected leaders within the Investment Bank and brings to the regional role more than twenty years of investment banking and capital markets experience and a deep understanding of Credit Suisse.

He added: Under Michael Philipp's leadership, we have built a very strong franchise, delivering holistic solutions to our clients and realizing the benefits of the integrated bank. We continue to see growth opportunities in the EMEA region and, with Eric's appointment, we expect to build on the momentum that we have established.

Eric Varvel said: I am very excited by the opportunity offered in the EMEA region, which is a unique mix of developed and emerging markets. I look forward to building on our momentum and working with our talented team to further expand our business in the EMEA region.

Eric Varvel

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

Eric Varvel has been with Credit Suisse for seventeen years in a variety of senior roles. For the past three years, he has been based in New York as Co-Head of the Global Investment Banking Department and Head of the Global Markets Solutions Group in the Investment Banking Division of Credit Suisse and has served as a member of the Investment Banking Division Management Committee.

Prior to his current appointment in 2004, Eric Varvel spent fifteen years in the Asia Pacific region in a variety of senior roles, including Head of Investment Banking and Emerging Markets Coverage for Asia Pacific ex-Japan and Head of Fixed Income Sales and Corporate Derivative Sales. During that time, Eric Varvel was based in Tokyo, Jakarta and Singapore.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking and Non-GAAP Information

This press release contains statements that constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. In addition, in the future we, and others on our behalf, may make statements that constitute forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements may include, without limitation, statements relating to the following:

Our plans, objectives or goals;

Our future economic performance or prospects;

The potential effect on our future performance of certain contingencies; and

Assumptions underlying any such statements.

Words such as believes, anticipates, expects, intends and plans and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying such statements. We do not intend to update these forward-looking statements except as may be required by applicable securities laws.

Edgar Filing: CREDIT SUISSE GROUP - Form 6-K

By their very nature, forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific, and risks exist that predictions, forecasts, projections and other outcomes described or implied in forward-looking statements will not be achieved. We caution you that a number of important factors could cause results to differ materially from the plans, objectives, expectations, estimates and intentions expressed in such forward-looking statements. These factors include:

The ability to maintain sufficient liquidity and access capital markets;

Market and interest rate fluctuations;

The strength of the global economy in general and the strength of the economies of the countries in which we conduct our operations in particular;

The ability of counterparties to meet their obligations to us;

The effects of, and changes in, fiscal, monetary, trade and tax policies, and currency fluctuations;

Political and social developments, including war, civil unrest or terrorist activity;

The possibility of foreign exchange controls, expropriation, nationalization or confiscation of assets in countries in which we conduct our operations;

Operational factors such as systems failure, human error, or the failure to implement procedures properly;

Actions taken by regulators with respect to our business and practices in one or more of the countries in which we conduct our operations;

The effects of changes in laws, regulations or accounting policies or practices;

Competition in geographic and business areas in which we conduct our operations;

The ability to retain and recruit qualified personnel;

The ability to maintain our reputation and promote our brand;

The ability to increase market share and control expenses;

Technological changes;

The timely development and acceptance of our new products and services and the perceived overall value of these products and services by users;

Acquisitions, including the ability to integrate acquired businesses successfully, and divestitures, including the ability to sell non-core assets;

The adverse resolution of litigation and other contingencies; and

Our success at managing the risks involved in the foregoing.

We caution you that the foregoing list of important factors is not exclusive. When evaluating forward-looking statements, you should carefully consider the foregoing factors and other uncertainties and events, as well as the information set forth in our Form 20-F Item 3 - Key Information - Risk factors.
