Proposed 50/50 company for Ketel One with Nolet update

26 March 2008

The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) has made a request for additional information under the U.S. Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act (HSR) in connection with Diageo's agreement with the Nolet family to form a 50/50 company for the sale and distribution of Ketel One vodka products. The request, commonly referred to as a second request, will extend the waiting period imposed by HSR until, at the latest, 30 days after Diageo has substantially complied with the second request. Diageo will comply with the second request as expeditiously as possible and will continue to cooperate fully with the FTC's review.

As previously announced, completion of the transaction requires regulatory approval from the FTC. The waiting period can be extended voluntarily by the parties or terminated sooner by the FTC.

No further announcement will be made until completion of the transaction.
