The Company filed a registration statement on Form S-3 (the Registration Statement) for the sale of up to $100,000,000 in shares of Common Stock, which Registration Statement became effective on October 17, 2008.

On May 19, 2009, the Company and Novartis Pharma entered into an S-3 Financing Waiver and Consent (the Waiver and Consent) under which Novartis Pharma consented to the filing of the Registration Statement, waived its right to include shares of Common stock in such Registration Statement, approved the issuance and sale by the Company of new shares of Common Stock pursuant to the Registration Statement (such issuance and sale, the S-3 Financing) and waived its right to purchase a pro rata portion of such new shares. The Waiver and Consent is conditioned on Novartis holding not less than forty-three percent (43%) of the Common Stock outstanding immediately after completion of the S-3 Financing and is effective through December 31, 2010.

As described in the Original Schedule 13D, Novartis Pharma and the Company are parties to a Letter Agreement under which Novartis Pharma has certain rights with respect to the selection, appointment and termination of the Chief Financial Officer of the Company. On January 28, 2009, Novartis Pharma and the Company entered into an amendment to the Letter Agreement (the Letter Amendment). The Letter Amendment provides that so long as Novartis Pharma and its affiliates own at least forty percent (40%) of the Company's Common Stock, Novartis Pharma's consent is required for the selection and appointment of the Company's Chief Financial Officer. Prior to the execution of the Letter Amendment, the ownership requirement was fifty percent (50%). If in Novartis Pharma's reasonable judgment the Chief Financial Officer is not satisfactorily performing his or her duties, the Company is required to terminate his or her employment.

The descriptions of each of the Waiver and Consent and Letter Amendment are qualified by reference to the full text thereof, which is included as an exhibit hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
