Subject: Justice Dept Gives Antitrust Clearance for Merger

In the event that you haven't heard, I am pleased to report that the U.S. Department of Justice has granted antitrust clearance to proceed with the merger. This is one of the key approvals we need to obtain before the transaction can close.

While this is good news, it does not change how we must act until the merger actually occurs. Both firms must continue to compete vigorously and abide by the attached protocols and guidelines that we distributed firmwide on June 28. We must ensure that during the pre-merger period, Towers Perrin and Watson Wyatt do not improperly share information or collaborate. Any failure to comply with these requirements could jeopardize the timely closing of the transaction.

Also, we have received a few questions about the Reuters article that recently reported the Department of Justice's clearance of the transaction. This article stated that Watson Wyatt is acquiring Towers Perrin, which is simply a reporting mistake. As you know, this is a merger of equals.

We will be posting this information as a Headlines article on Insite for all associates.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify these statements and other forward-looking statements in this document by words such as may, will, would, expect, anticipate, believe, estimate, plan, intend, continue, or similar words, expressions or the negative of such terms or other comparable terminology. These statements include, but are not limited to, the benefits of the business combination transaction involving Towers Perrin and Watson Wyatt, including the combined company's future financial and operating results, plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of Towers Perrin's and Watson Wyatt's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements.

The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: the ability to obtain governmental approvals of the transaction on the proposed terms and schedule; the failure of Towers Perrin shareholders and Watson Wyatt stockholders to approve the transaction; the risk that the businesses will not be integrated successfully; the risk that anticipated cost savings and any other synergies from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; the ability to recruit and retain qualified employees and to retain client relationships; the combined company's ability to make acquisitions, on which its growth depends, and its ability to integrate or manage such acquired businesses; and the risk that a significant or prolonged economic downturn could have a material adverse effect on the combined company's business, financial condition and results of operations. Additional risks and factors are identified under "Risk Factors" in Watson Wyatt's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on August 15, 2008, which is on file with the SEC, and under "Risk Factors" in the joint proxy statement/prospectus that will be filed by Jupiter Saturn Holding Company.

You should not rely upon forward-looking statements as predictions of future events because these statements are based on assumptions that may not come true and are speculative by their nature. None of Jupiter Saturn Holding Company, Towers Perrin or Watson Wyatt undertakes an obligation to update any of the forward-looking information included in this document, whether as a result of new information, future events, changed expectations or otherwise.
