Murry S. Gerber Retirement as Full Time Employee

Effective May 10, 2011, Murry S. Gerber, who had served as the Company's Executive Chairman, retired as a full-time employee of EQT Corporation (the Company). Mr. Gerber will continue to serve as a member of the Company's Board of Directors.

On May 10, 2011, the Company and Mr. Gerber entered into an Executive Alternative Work Arrangement Employment Agreement (Agreement), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. Pursuant to its terms, Mr. Gerber will serve as part-time employee of the Company through January 3, 2012, at which time he will cease to be an employee. Mr. Gerber will be paid a salary of $7,056 per two-week pay period during the term of the Agreement. He will remain subject to non-competition, non-solicitation and confidentiality obligations to the Company through the later of January 3, 2014 and one year after the date Mr. Gerber ceases to serve on the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Gerber will not receive compensation for his service as a member of the Company's Board of Directors until he ceases to be employed by the Company.

Approval of EQT Corporation 2011 Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan

On May 10, 2011, the shareholders of the Company at the 2011 Annual Meeting of Shareholders (the Annual Meeting) approved the EQT Corporation 2011 Executive Short-Term Incentive Plan (the Executive STIP), which was adopted by the Compensation Committee of the Company's Board of Directors on December 1, 2010. The purposes of the Executive STIP are to maintain a competitive level of total cash compensation and to align the interests of the Company's executive employees with those of the Company's shareholders and customers and with the strategic direction of the Company. Shareholder approval of the Executive STIP permits the continued qualification of the Executive STIP as performance-based compensation, which is excepted from the limit on executive officer compensation deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Executive STIP as approved by the shareholders is largely as previously in effect. Key changes from the prior plan include the following:

- the list of available performance criteria on which tax-deductible incentive awards may be granted was expanded;

Edgar Filing: EQT Corp - Form 8-K

- certain refinements were made to the procedure for establishing incentive targets;
- a procedure for measuring the fair market value of shares of the Company's common stock issued in substitution for a cash payment was added;
- the description of the tax consequences was updated; and
- a provision requiring that any incentive award paid shall be subject to the terms and conditions of any compensation recoupment policy adopted from time to time by the Board of Directors or any committee of the Board, to the extent such policy is applicable to annual incentive compensation, was included.

A complete copy of the Executive STIP is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to Stock Option Terms and Conditions

On May 10, 2011, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the terms and conditions of all of the Company's outstanding stock options to provide that upon an optionee's termination of service from the Company for any reason other than for cause, the optionee's outstanding options, to the extent vested on the date of such termination of service, shall remain exercisable for the entire remaining original term. Previously such options would have expired upon the optionee's termination of service. The Compensation Committee expects to incorporate these terms and conditions into all future stock option award agreements.

Item 3.03. Material Modifications to Rights of Security Holders

Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Amendment to Restated Articles of Incorporation

On May 10, 2011, the Company's Board of Directors amended the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation to update the address of the Company's registered office. In addition, at the Annual Meeting on the same date, the shareholders of the Company approved amendments to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation to:

- adopt a majority voting standard for uncontested director elections and eliminate cumulative voting;
- provide that a person elected by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy in the Board of Directors will hold office for a term expiring at the next annual meeting of shareholders held immediately following such person being elected to fill the vacancy and that thereafter such person will hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders at which the term of the class to which such person has been elected expires; and
- eliminate shareholder pre-emptive rights in their entirety.

Each of the amendments (other than the change to the registered office) is more fully described in the Company's proxy statement dated March 24, 2011. All amendments were filed with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and became effective on May 10, 2011. A copy of the Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended May 10, 2011, is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to By-Laws

On May 10, 2011, the Board of Directors approved certain amendments to the Company's By-Laws to conform to the shareholder approved amendments to the Company's Restated Articles of Incorporation described above. More specifically, the By-Laws were amended to:

- adopt a majority voting standard for uncontested director elections, including a resignation policy; and
- provide that a person elected by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy in the Board of Directors will hold office for a term expiring at the next annual meeting of shareholders held immediately following such person being elected to fill the vacancy and that thereafter such person will hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders at which the term of the class to which such person has been elected expires.

The Board of Directors also amended the Company's By-Laws to:

- provide that the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside at annual shareholder meetings;
- update the advance notice provisions by (i) centralizing all advance notice provisions in one location, (ii) requiring greater disclosure regarding hedging, vote selling and other situations where there is a dislocation of a person's economic interest and voting rights, and (iii) clarifying the application of the advance notice provisions to special meetings;
- eliminate the By-Law requirement that the salaries of all officers of the Company be fixed by the Board of Directors; and
- make other procedural and administrative changes and clarifications.

The By-Law amendments did not require shareholder approval. Clean and marked versions of the complete text of the Company's By-Laws, as amended May 10, 2011, are attached hereto as Exhibits 3.2 and 3.3 and are incorporated herein by reference.
