Section 8 Other Events

Item 8.01 Other Events

On June 7, 2013, IntegriGuard, LLC (doing business as HMS Federal), a wholly owned subsidiary of HMS Holdings Corp. (the Registrant) received notification from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) that CMS has determined not to affirm HMS Federal s contract award to perform the Coordination of Benefits and Medicare Secondary Payer Business Program Operations for CMS and has issued the contract award to the incumbent vendor. The Registrant is evaluating whether to file a bid protest with the Government Accountability Office (GAO), which must be filed by the later of (i) five days after a formal debrief by CMS or (ii) June 17, 2013. If the Registrant files a bid protest, the GAO has up to 100 days after the bid protest is filed to issue its decision on the protest.

In September 2012, as previously disclosed, HMS Federal was awarded the Coordination of Benefits and Medicare Secondary Payer Business Program Operations contract. The incumbent vendor filed a bid protest with the GAO in October 2012 with respect to the contract award and HMS Federal received a stop work order from CMS, pending resolution of the protest. CMS then undertook a procurement corrective action with respect to this contract award, the result of which is its decision described above.
