Item 5.03                    Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On November 9, 2017, the Board of Directors of AvalonBay Communities, Inc. (the "Company") amended the Company's bylaws, effective immediately. The amendment adds new Section 10.03 to the bylaws, which permits the stockholders of the Company to amend the Company's bylaws by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to a proposal submitted by any stockholder or group of up to five stockholders holding at least one percent of the outstanding shares of the Company's Common Stock for at least one year (the "Ownership Threshold"). A stockholder proposal submitted under new Section 10.03 may not alter or repeal (i) Section 7.01 of the bylaws, which provides for indemnification of directors and officers of the Company, without the consent of any indemnified person adversely affected by such proposal or (ii) Article X of the bylaws, which addresses procedures for amendment of the bylaws, without the approval of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors believes the Ownership Threshold enables stockholders who hold a meaningful stake in the Company for more than a brief period of time to propose binding amendments to the Company's bylaws. In that regard, the Board considered that, based on the most recently available public filings made by stockholders as of August 15, 2017, as of such date (i) 21 stockholders held more than one percent (representing more than 73% of outstanding shares in the aggregate) of the Company's outstanding Common Stock, (ii) an additional 45 stockholders held at least 0.2 percent (representing more than 19% of outstanding shares in the aggregate), and (iii) these 66 stockholders together owned more than 93% of the outstanding shares of Common Stock of the Company.

The full text of the Company's Second Amendment to Amended and Restated Bylaws is being filed with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 3.2 and is incorporated herein by reference.
