Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment to Revolving Credit Facility.

On October 2, 2018, Ares Capital Corporation (the Registrant) amended and restated its senior secured credit facility, among the Registrant, the lenders party thereto, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as the administrative agent (as amended and restated, the A&R Credit Facility). The A&R Credit Facility, among other things, (a) amends the financial covenant requiring the Registrant to maintain a minimum ratio of total assets (less total liabilities) to total indebtedness from 2.0:1.0 to 1.5:1.0, and (b) makes certain related changes to borrowing base advance rates.

The total size of the A&R Credit Facility remains at $2.1 billion following the amendment and restatement thereof, composed of a revolving loan tranche equal to $1.7 billion and a term loan tranche in an amount equal to $413.75 million. The A&R Credit Facility includes an accordion feature that allows the Registrant, under certain circumstances, to increase the size of the facility by an amount up to $1.0 billion.

The A&R Credit Facility continues to be secured by a material portion of the Registrant's assets (excluding, among other things, investments held in and by certain subsidiaries of the Registrant or investments in certain portfolio companies of the Registrant) and guaranteed by certain subsidiaries of the Registrant.

Under the A&R Credit Facility, the Registrant has made certain representations and warranties and is required to comply with various covenants, reporting requirements and other customary requirements for similar credit facilities, including, without limitation, covenants related to: (a) limitations on the incurrence of additional indebtedness and liens, (b) limitations on certain investments, (c) limitations on certain asset transfers and restricted payments, (d) maintaining a certain minimum stockholders' equity, (e) maintaining a ratio of total assets (less total liabilities) to total indebtedness, of the Registrant and its subsidiaries (subject to certain exceptions), of not less than 1.5:1.0, and (f) limitations on the creation or existence of agreements that prohibit liens on certain properties of the Registrant and certain of its subsidiaries. The A&R Credit Facility also continues to include usual and customary events of default for senior secured credit facilities of this nature.

In addition to the asset coverage ratio described above, borrowings under the A&R Credit Facility (and the incurrence of certain other permitted debt) will continue to be subject to compliance with a borrowing base that will apply different advance rates to different types of assets in the Registrant's portfolio.

Borrowings under the A&R Credit Facility will also continue to be subject to the leverage restrictions contained in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the 1940 Act).

The description above is only a summary of the material provisions of the A&R Credit Facility and is qualified in its entirety by reference to a copy of the A&R Credit Facility, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this current report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.
