On November 3, 2009 and timely filed on Form 8K with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company's recently formed wholly-owned subsidiary, Aero Metal Products, Inc. ("Aero Metal"), entered into agreements which will enable the Company to expand its product lines to include hot forged metal products and to consolidate certain production. The counterparty, Aero Inc., is wholly owned by the wife of Nicholas D. Trbovich, Jr. (and consequently, is a daughter-in-law of Dr. Nicholas D. Trbovich).

The foregoing is a brief description. The reader is referred to the Company's Form 8-K dated November 3, 2009 and exhibits thereto filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission for a fuller description of the transaction. The transaction was approved by the Company's Audit Committee, consisting solely of Independent Directors. That committee recommended approval by the Company's Board of Directors, and the Board subsequently approved the transaction.

The agreements include a lease by Aero Metal of Aero Inc.'s personal property (primarily manufacturing equipment) at the equipments' existing location at a monthly rental of $7,500. The lease will expire November 3, 2016 (subject to a right of early termination by either party). On expiration of the lease, Aero Metal may elect to purchase the leased property for $1,000 and Aero is to deliver clear title. The Company guarantees Aero Metal's performance.
