[X] Yes [ ] No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002, the Company, through its subsidiaries, operated in two business segments, media and retail. On August 5, 2002, subsidiaries of the Company sold substantially all of the assets of the media business segment to a subsidiary of Alloy, Inc. ("Alloy"), which also assumed certain of the liabilities related to the media business. The Company discontinued any remaining media operations that were not sold to Alloy. Net cash proceeds from the sale of the media business segment were approximately $6,900,000. As a result of this sale, the operations of the media business segment have not been included in the consolidated results of operations of the Company subsequent to the sale date. The Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002 will be restated to reflect the operations of the media business segment as a discontinued operation.

In January 2003, the Company reached an agreement with the holders of all of its and its subsidiary's outstanding notes in the aggregate principal amount of $18,000,000, to cancel these notes. In exchange for cancellation of all of the principal and interest due on the old notes, the Company paid $4,500,000 in cash and issued preferred stock with a face value of $4,000,000, 3,985,000 shares of common stock, and $4,000,000 aggregate principal amount of new promissory notes. In total, the Company recognized a gain from this debt restructuring of $2,754,000 during the three months ended March 31, 2003.

Effective June 27, 2003, the Company changed its fiscal year end from June 30 to September 30.

As a result of the sale to Alloy in August 2002 and the January 2003 note restructuring, the Company expects to report reduced revenues and a reduced net loss for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2003, as compared to the fiscal year ended June 30, 2002.
