Employment Agreements and Change in Control Arrangements

Derrick Romine Employment Offer Letter

Derrick Romine serves as the Chief Financial Officer of Cardo Medical, LLC, and will serve in that same capacity for the Company, on an at-will basis pursuant to an employment offer letter dated September 5, 2008. This offer letter provides that Mr. Romine will receive an annual base salary of $180,000, a discretionary bonus of up to a maximum amount of $45,000 based on specific performance objectives tied to the Company meeting its financial targets, and reimbursement for normal business expenses. In addition, he is entitled to participate in all health insurance and employee benefits adopted by the Company and is eligible to accrue three weeks of vacation during his first year of employment. The offer letter also confirmed the grant of options to Mr. Romine exercisable for units of membership interests in Cardo Medical, LLC, which converted into options exercisable for shares of common stock of the Company upon completion of the reverse merger in August 2008 (the "Merger").

If the Company had terminated Mr. Romine's employment without "Cause" (as defined below), or if he terminated his employment without "Good Reason" (as defined below), at any time on or prior to September 4, 2010, Mr. Romine would have been entitled to the following severance benefits: the Company would have paid Mr. Romine the sum of six months of his then-current monthly salary as severance payment to be paid in bi-weekly installments so long as he did not work or otherwise provide services to a competitor of the Company during that six-month period. Fifty percent of Mr. Romine's unvested options would have become fully exercisable as of the date of termination of his employment and, together with any vested options at the termination date, could have been exercised pursuant to the terms thereof within 90 days of the termination date (or one year after the termination date if Mr. Romine dies during that 90-day period). The remaining unvested options at the termination date, to the extent not then presently exercisable, would have terminated as of the termination date and would not have been exercisable thereafter.

If Mr. Romine is terminated for Cause, or if he voluntarily terminates his employment or resigns from his positions with the Company without Good Reason, he will not be entitled to the Severance Benefits. As used in the offer letter, the term "Cause" means an act or omission that constitutes fraud, deceit, intentional misconduct, a knowing violation of law, recklessness or gross negligence that materially and adversely has affected or affects the business of the Company, a material breach of any of Mr. Romine's obligations under any written agreement with the Company, or material nonperformance of his duties to the Company which has not been cured after 15 days' written notice from the Company setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the nonperformance. As used in the offer letter, the term "Good Reason" means a material breach by the Company of any of their obligations under any written agreement with Mr. Romine, a substantial and unusual reduction in his duties, responsibilities or authority, or receipt of instructions to take actions in violation of law that has not been cured after 15 days' written notice from Mr. Romine to the Company and setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of the action giving rise to the claim of Good Reason.

Compensation of Directors

We do not pay our directors compensation in connection with their service to the Board. We reimburse our directors for reasonable travel expenses related to that director's attendance at Board of Directors and committee meetings.

As of December 31, 2010, all non-employee directors, except Dr. Liu, hold an option to purchase 40,000 shares of common stock. Such options were originally issued by Cardo Medical, LLC, which converted into options to purchase shares of our common stock in connection with the Merger.

ITEM 13. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS, AND DIRECTOR INDEPENDENCE.

Certain Relationships and Related Transactions

The Audit Committee reviews and approves transactions in which Cardo was or is to be a participant, where the amount involved exceeded or will exceed $120,000 annually and any of our directors, executive officers or their immediate family members had or will have a direct or indirect material interest. We have a written policy stating that the Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing and, if appropriate, approving or ratifying any related party transactions. The related party transaction will not be approved unless at a minimum it is for our benefit and is upon terms no less favorable to us than if the related party transaction was with an unrelated third party. In Fiscal 2010, no related party transaction occurred where this process was not followed.

Jon Brooks Note

On November 2, 2010, the Company entered into a secured promissory note in the principal amount of $300,000 in favor of Jon Brooks, the brother of Andrew Brooks, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer of the Company (the "Brooks Note"). Pursuant to the terms of the Brooks Note, the Company promised to repay to Jon Brooks the principal sum of $300,000 together with all accrued but unpaid interest on or before March 1, 2011, which was subsequently extended by the Company to April 30, 2011 pursuant to the terms of the Brooks Note. The Brooks Note carried a simple interest rate of 12.0% per annum. In connection with the Brooks Note, the Company entered into a security agreement with Jon Brooks, in which the Company granted a security interest, up to the amount of the principal and interest, in all of the Company's right, title and interest in all of the Company's assets, other than its accounts receivable (the "Security Agreement"). The Company repaid the principal amount due and all accrued and unpaid interest in the aggregate amount of $314,267 under the Brooks Note on March 18, 2011 with a portion of the proceeds obtained from the secured promissory note the Company executed in favor of Arthrex, Inc. All obligations were satisfied and there are no remaining obligations under the Brooks Note and the Security Agreement

Determining Director Independence

The Board of Directors undertook a review of each director's independence in April 2010. During this review, the Board of Directors considered transactions and relationships between each director or any member of his or her immediate family and us and our subsidiaries and affiliates. The Board of Directors also examined transactions and relationships between directors or their known affiliates and members of our senior management or their known affiliates. The purpose of this review was to determine whether any such relationships or transactions were inconsistent with a determination that the director is independent under applicable laws and regulations and the NYSE Amex listing standards. As a result of our review of the relationships of each of the members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors affirmatively determined that a majority of our directors, including Stephen Liu, Thomas H. Morgan, Steven D. Rubin, Ronald N. Richards and Subbarao Uppaluri are "independent" directors within the meaning of the listing standards of NYSE Amex and applicable law.

Periodically at the Audit Committee meetings, our Audit Committee receives updates on the services actually provided by the independent registered public accounting firm, and management may present additional services for pre-approval. Our Audit Committee has delegated to the Chairman of the Audit Committee the authority to evaluate and approve engagements on behalf of the Audit Committee in the event that a need arises for pre-approval between regular Audit Committee meetings. If the Chairman so approves any such engagements, he will report that approval to the full Audit Committee at the next Audit Committee meeting.
