may be rescinded if the Company is not in compliance with such standards. In connection with the listing, the Company filed a Registration Statement on Form 8-A with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, and in connection with the listing, the Company's Board of Directors declared a 1-for-15 reverse stock split of the Company's common stock, which was approved by the Company's stockholders on August 8, 2005. The reverse split is expected to become effective after the close of business on September 20, 2005. As a result of the reverse split, the total number of common shares outstanding will be reduced from approximately 811 million to approximately 54 million. In addition, the total number of authorized shares of common stock will be reduced from 1 billion to 85 million.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.

99.1 Press Release of the Company, dated September 15, 2005.

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain, among other things, certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including, without limitation, statements with respect to the Company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements identified by words such as "may", "could", "would", "should", "believes", "expects", "anticipates", "estimates", "intends", "plans" or similar expressions. These statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the Company's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve certain risks and uncertainties that are subject to change based on various factors (many of which are beyond the Company's control).
