For purposes of this proxy statement, unless the context otherwise indicates, the terms the company, us or our refers to Inter Parfums, Inc.

This proxy statement will be mailed to shareholders beginning approximately June 23, 2006. If a proxy in the accompanying form is properly executed and returned, then the shares represented by the proxy will be voted as instructed on the proxy. Any shareholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by providing written notice of revocation to the company's Secretary or by a shareholder voting in person at the annual meeting.

All properly executed proxies received prior to the annual meeting will be voted at the annual meeting in accordance with the instructions marked on the proxy or as otherwise stated in the proxy. Unless instructions to the contrary are indicated, proxies will be voted

FOR the election of the eleven (11) directors referred to in this proxy statement.

In addition, the persons holding the proxies will consider and vote upon such other business as may properly come before the annual meeting or any adjournments of the annual meeting.

A copy of the company's annual report for fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, which contains financial statements audited by the company's independent registered public accounting firms, is being mailed to the company's shareholders along with this proxy statement.

We will bear the cost of preparing, assembling and mailing this notice of meeting, proxy statement, proxy and the enclosed annual report. In addition to solicitation of the proxies by use of the mails, some of our officers and regular employees, without extra remuneration, may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, telecopier or e-mail. We may also request brokerage houses, nominees, custodians and fiduciaries to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of our common stock. We will reimburse these persons for their expenses in forwarding soliciting material.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Our board of directors fixed the close of business on June 22, 2006 as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. Only holders of our common stock on the record date will be able to vote at the annual meeting.

As of June 2, 2006, there were 20,317,810 shares of our common stock outstanding. Each share of the our common stock will entitle the holder of such share to one vote. None of the company's shareholders have cumulative voting rights. Holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to vote on all matters. We also have 1,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock, $.001 par value per share, none of which are outstanding.

Edgar Filing: INTER PARFUMS INC - Form DEF 14A

The holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of our common stock entitled to vote must be present in person or by proxy to constitute the necessary quorum for any business to be transacted at the annual meeting. Properly executed proxies marked `abstain`, as well as proxies held in street name by brokers that are not voted on all proposals to come before the annual meeting (`broker non-votes`), will be considered `present` for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved at the annual meeting.

The eleven (11) nominees to our board of directors receiving the greatest number of votes cast at the annual meeting in person or by proxy shall be elected. Consequently, any shares of our common stock present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting, but not voted for any reason will have no impact in the election of our board of directors. Other matters that may submitted to our shareholders for a vote at the annual meeting, if any, will require the favorable vote of a majority of the shares of our common stock present or represented at the annual meeting for approval, unless we advise you otherwise. If any matter proposed at the annual meeting must receive a specific percentage of favorable votes for approval, abstentions in respect of such proposal are treated as present and entitled to vote under Delaware law and therefore such abstentions have the effect of a vote against such proposal. Broker non-votes in respect of any proposal are not counted for purposes of determining whether such proposal has received the requisite approval.

Our directors will serve until the next annual meeting of stockholders and thereafter until their successors shall have been elected and qualified. Messrs. Jean Madar and Philippe Benacin have a verbal agreement or understanding to vote their shares in a like manner. As Messrs. Madar and Benacin beneficially own more than 50% of the outstanding shares of the Inter Parfums common stock, Inter Parfums is considered a controlled company under the applicable rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market.

With the exception of Mr. Benacin, the officers are elected annually by the directors and serve at the discretion of the board of directors. There are no family relationships between executive officers or directors of our company.

Members of our management have been informed that our controlling shareholders intend to vote in favor of all of the nominees for directors and therefore, they are all likely to be elected. We know of no business other than the election of directors that will be presented for consideration at the annual meeting. If any other matter is properly presented, then it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment.

The following table sets forth information about each person known by us to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent (5%) of our outstanding common stock. As of June 2, 2006, there were 20,317,810 shares of common stock outstanding. PROPOSAL NO. 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

General

The members of our board of directors are each elected with a plurality of votes cast in favor of their election for a one-year term or until their successors are elected and qualify. During fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, our board of directors consisted of eleven (11) persons, Messrs. Jean Madar, Philippe Benacin, Russell Greenberg, Francois Heilbronn, Joseph A. Caccamo, Jean Levy, Robert Bensoussan-Torres, Daniel Piette, Jean Cailliau, Philippe Santi and Serge Rosinoer, who were elected by the shareholders at the company 's last annual meeting of shareholders held in July 2005. In June 2006, Patrick Choël replaced Daniel Piette as a member of our board of directors. Accordingly, 10 out of 11 current board members, who were elected by the shareholders in July 2005, are nominees for re-election to the board at the 2006 annual meeting. This is the first time for Mr. Choël as a nominee for election to the board.

Unless authority is withheld, the proxies in the accompanying form will be voted in favor of the election of the nominees named above as directors. Although all of the nominees have indicated their willingness to serve if elected, if at the time of the meeting any nominee is unable to or unwilling to serve, then the shares represented by properly executed proxies will be voted at the discretion of the person named in the proxies for another person designated by our board of directors.

Board of Directors

Our board of directors has the responsibility for establishing broad corporate policies and for the overall performance of our company. Although certain directors are not involved in day-to-day operating details, members of the board are kept informed of our business by various reports and documents made available to them. Our board of directors held sixteen (16) meetings (or executed consents in lieu thereof), including meetings of committees of the board during 2005, and all of the directors attended at least 75% of the meetings of the board and committee meetings of which they were a member.

We have adopted a Code of Business Conduct, which is maintained on our website, at www.interparfumsinc.com. Further, we agree to provide to any person without charge, upon request, a copy of our Code of Business Conduct. Any person who requests a copy of our Code of Business Conduct should provide their name and address in writing to: Inter Parfums, Inc., 551 Fifth Avenue, New York, NY 10176, Att.: Shareholder Relations.

During Fiscal 2005, the Board of Directors had the following standing committees:

Audit Committee The Audit Committee has the sole authority and is directly responsible for, the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent accountants employed by the Company which prepare or issue an audit report for the Company. During Fiscal 2005, the Audit Committee consisted of Messrs. Heilbronn, Levy and Bensoussan-Torres.

The Audit Committee does not have a member who is an Audit Committee Financial Expert as such term is defined under the applicable rules and regulations. However, as the result of the background, education and experience of the members of the Audit Committee, the Board of Directors believes that such committee members are fully qualified to fulfill their obligations as members of the Audit Committee.

Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee The Executive Compensation Committee oversees the compensation of the Company's executives and administers the Company's stock option plans. During Fiscal 2005, the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee consisted of Messrs. Heilbronn, Levy and Piette.

Edgar Filing: INTER PARFUMS INC - Form DEF 14A

Our Board of Directors does not maintain a standing nominating committee or a committee performing similar functions. In view of the agreement and understanding of Messrs. Jean Madar and Philippe Benacin who beneficially own more than 50% of the outstanding shares of the Inter Parfums common stock, our Board of Directors does not believe it necessary for the Company to have such a committee. Also as a controlled company under the applicable rules of The Nasdaq Stock Market, we are exempt from the nominating committee requirements. During 2005, our Board of Directors as a group agreed to nominate the same members of the board who had served last year.

Our policy with respect to receipt of communications from our shareholders is as follows. All shareholder communications for the entire board or for individual directors are to be sent to Mr. Russell Greenberg, Executive Vice President, and Chief Financial Officer, at our offices in New York City. The communications can be sent through our website, in writing, or by telephone. Mr. Greenberg will then provide such communication to the intended recipient and our full board of directors.

We do not have a standing policy requiring our directors to be present at our annual shareholder meetings. Two of our directors, Mr. Russell Greenberg, who is also our Chief Financial Officer, and Joseph A. Caccamo (who attended by conference telephone) attended our last annual shareholder meeting held in July 2005.

The following table sets forth information, as of June 2, 2006 with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock by (a) our executive officers and directors and (d) all of our directors and officers as a group. As of June 2, 2006 we had 20,317,810 shares of common stock outstanding.

Total value of unexercised options is based upon the fair market value of the common stock as reported by the Nasdaq Stock Market of $17.96 on December 30, 2005.

Value realized in dollars is based upon the difference between the fair market value of the common stock on the date of exercise, and the exercise price of the option, or the fair market value of the net amount of shares received upon exercise of options.

On February 25, 2005, both the Chief Executive Officer and the President of our company exercised an aggregate of 511,350 and 426,850 outstanding stock options, respectively, of our common stock. The exercise prices of $1,307,000 for the Chief Executive Officer and $1,091,000 for the President were paid by each of them tendering to the Company 90,513 and 75,556 shares, respectively, of our common stock, previously owned by them, valued at $14.44 per share, the fair market value on the date of exercise. All shares issued pursuant to these option exercises were issued from our treasury stock. In addition, the Chief Executive Officer tendered an additional 10,388 shares for partial payment of withholding taxes resulting from his option exercise. As a result of this transaction, we expect to receive a tax benefit of approximately $600,000, which will be reflected as an increase to additional paid-in capital in our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Each of the Chief Executive Officer and the President agreed to hold their shares for investment and not with a view towards distribution. The above transactions were exempt from the registration requirements of Section 5 of the Securities Act under Sections 4(2) and 4(6) of the Securities Act.

Employment Agreements

As part of our acquisition in 1991 of the controlling interest in Inter Parfums, S.A., now a subsidiary, we entered into an employment agreement with Philippe Benacin. The agreement provides that Mr. Benacin will be employed as Vice Chairman of the Board and President and Chief Executive Officer of Inter Parfums Holdings and its subsidiary, Inter Parfums. The initial term expired on September 2, 1992, and has subsequently been automatically renewed for additional annual periods. The agreement provides for automatic annual renewal terms, unless either party terminates the agreement upon 120 days notice. Mr. Benacin presently receives an annual salary of 135,000 euros, which is approximately US$170,000, together with annual lodging expenses of approximately $35,000 and automobile expenses of approximately $15,000, which are subject to increase in the discretion of the Board of Directors. The agreement also provides for indemnification and a covenant not to compete for one year after termination of employment.

In February 2005 we entered into an employment agreement with Marcella Cacci to act as the President of Burberry Fragrances, a division of Inter Parfums, S.A. for a three year period. Her salary is $400,000, which is subject to adjustment for currency fluctuations under certain circumstances. She is also entitled to annual bonuses of $125,000 if Burberry Fragrances reaches certain sales targets, and another $125,000 if Burberry Fragrances achieves a specified target based upon earnings of Burberry Fragrances before interest and taxes.

Under the terms of such employment agreement, Ms. Cacci also received the following benefits:

Stock Options: Options to purchase 20,000 ordinary shares of Inter Parfums S.A.'s common stock at a purchase price equal to the fair market value of the shares at the time of the grant, vesting 1/3 each year for three years.

One Time Issuance of Restricted Shares: Issuance of 5,000 ordinary shares of Inter Parfums S.A. vesting 1/3 each year for three years.

The Corporation terminated Marcella Cacci without cause, effective June 30 2006. Upon such termination of the employment agreement by us without cause, we are obligated to pay Ms. Cacci 0.75 times her annual salary, bonus and benefits. In addition, if Burberry Fragrances reaches certain milestones during the year of termination, then she would be entitled to a pro-rated bonus for such year based upon the number of days of her employment. Finally, as the result of termination without cause, all vesting restrictions on the option grant and restricted shares have lapsed and become fully vested.

Compensation of Directors

All nonemployee directors receive $1,000 for each board meeting at which they participate. Mr. Caccamo's board fees are paid to his law firm. In addition, all members of the Audit Committee receive an additional $2,000 on January 1 of each year in which they serve on the Audit Committee.

We maintain stock option plans for our nonemployee directors. The purpose of these plans is to assist us in attracting and retaining key directors who are responsible for continuing the growth and success of our Company. Under such plans, options to purchase 1,000 shares are granted on each February 1st to all nonemployee directors for as long as each is a nonemployee director on such date except for Joseph A. Caccamo, who is granted options to purchase 4,000 shares. Options to purchase 2,000 shares are granted to each nonemployee director upon his initial election or appointment to our board.

In March 2004, we adopted, and our shareholders later approved in August 2004, the latest nonemployee plan, which has 50,000 shares available to be issued upon the exercise of options to granted under such plan. Such options vest ratably over a 4 year period.

On February 1, 2006, options to purchase 1,000 shares were granted to each of Francois Heilbronn, Jean Levy, Robert Bensoussan-Torres, Daniel Piette, Jean Cailliau and Serge Rosinoer and an option to purchase 4,000 shares was granted to Joseph A. Caccamo at the exercise price of $18.965 per share under the 2004 plan. The options held by Mr. Caccamo are held as nominee for his law firm.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Executive Compensation Committee oversees the compensation of the Company's executives and administers the Company's stock option plans. The members of such committee are Messrs. Heilbronn, Levy and Piette.

During 2005, the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee took action three times by the execution of written consents in lieu of meetings.

The following persons participated in discussions concerning executive compensation during 2005, with generally the Chairman of the Board taking the initiative and recommending executive compensation levels for executives in the United States, and Mr. Benacin for executive compensation levels for executives in Paris: Jean Madar, the Chairman of our board of directors and Chief Executive Officer; Philippe Benacin, a Director, President, and President of Inter Parfums, S.A., a subsidiary of the company; Russell Greenberg, an Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and a Director; and Jean Levy, Francois Heilbronn and Daniel Piette, the present members of the Executive Compensation Committee.

Report on Executive Compensation*General*

The following sets forth information regarding compensation and benefits provided to our Chief Executive Officer and to each of the four most highly compensated executive officers, other than the chief executive officer, whose annual base salary and bonus compensation was in excess of $100,000. The executive officers being discussed for 2005 are: Jean Madar (the Chief Executive Officer), Philippe Benacin, Russell Greenberg, Marcella Cacci, and Frederic Garcia-Pelayo.

Executive compensation packages generally include a base salary, annual incentives tied to individual performance and long-term incentives tied to our operating performance. In addition, we provide a comprehensive medical insurance plan. Generally, our executive officers have their compensation reviewed annually.

Base Salary

Base salaries for executive officers are initially determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held and the experience of the individual, and by reference to the competitive market place for executive talent. Base salaries for executive officers are reviewed on an annual basis, and adjustments are determined by evaluating our operating performance, the performance of each executive officer, as well as whether the nature of the responsibilities of the executive has changed.

Mr. Madar, the Chief Executive Officer, received a $70,000 increase in his base salary to $400,000 during 2005, a 21% increase. The base salary for Mr. Madar was $330,000 for each of 2004 and 2003.

For 2005, upon recommendation of our Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee determined to increase the base salary of Mr. Greenberg, the Chief Financial Officer, by $30,000 from $315,000 to $345,000, a 9.5% increase.

Upon the recommendation of Mr. Benacin, the base salary of Mr. Frederic Garcia-Pelayo was increased from 120,000 euros in 2004 to 168,000 euros in 2005, a 40% increase, in recognition of his work with Lanvin Fragrances.

Mr. Garcia-Pelayo's base compensation is paid to him in euros by our French operating subsidiary.

Mr. Benacin, the President of Inter Parfums Holding S.A., the company's direct French subsidiary, and President of Inter Parfums, S.A., the company's indirect, operating French subsidiary, is also the President of the company. Mr. Benacin's base compensation is paid to him in euros by the company's French operating subsidiary, and his base salary was increased to from 156,000 euros in 2004 to 168,000 euros in 2005, an 8% increase.

In February 2005 we entered into an employment agreement with Marcella Cacci to act as the President of Burberry Fragrances, a division of Inter Parfums, S.A. for a three year period. Such employment agreement was approved by this Committee. Her salary is $400,000, which is subject to adjustment for currency fluctuations under certain circumstances. Her pro rated salary for 2005 was $316,667. In addition, under the provisions of her employment agreement, Marcella Cacci received an additional $ 87,000, which consists of a housing allowance of $40,000 and reimbursement of attorneys' fees of $47,000.

After a thorough review, the Chairman of the Board determined that the base salaries paid to such executives were fair in the view of their responsibilities, length of service with us, performance and compensation levels to peers, as to which the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee concurs.

Bonus Compensation/Annual Incentives

As the result of their efforts in increasing the profitability of our company, bonuses were awarded as follows. For Paris operations, each of Messrs. Benacin and Garcia-Pelayo received a cash bonus of $161,629. For United States operations, Mr. Greenberg received a cash bonus of $30,000. However, Mr. Madar (our Chief Executive Officer) did not receive a cash bonus due to the decline in after tax profit of our United States operations. However, the Executive Compensation Committee has determined to use the same after tax profit target for our company's United States operations that will be used to calculate Mr. Madar's bonus for 2006.

Under the terms of her employment agreement, Marcella Cacci was also entitled to annual bonuses of $125,000 if Burberry Fragrances reached certain sales targets, and another $125,000 if Burberry Fragrances achieved a specified target based upon earnings of Burberry Fragrances before interest and taxes. For 2005 Marcella Cacci received a bonus of $125,000.

Long Term Incentives

The long-term incentives are geared towards linking benefits to corporate performance through the grant of stock options. All options are granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying shares of our common stock on the date of grant, and terminate on or shortly after severance of the executive's relationship with us. Unless the market price of our common stock increases, corporate executives will have no tangible benefit. Thus, they are provided with the extra incentive to increase individual performance with the ultimate goal of increased our overall performance. In addition, Inter Parfums, S.A. maintains a profit sharing plan for its employees. We believe that enhanced executive incentives which result in increased corporate performance tend to build company loyalty.

Under the terms of her employment agreement, Ms. Cacci received the following benefits:

Stock Options: Options to purchase 20,000 ordinary shares of Inter Parfums S.A.'s common stock at a purchase price equal to the fair market value of the shares at the time of the grant, vesting 1/3 each year for three years.

One Time Issuance of Restricted Shares: Issuance of 5,000 ordinary shares of Inter Parfums S.A. vesting 1/3 each year for three years.

However, as the result of her termination without cause in 2006, all vesting restrictions on the option grant and restricted shares lapsed and became fully vested.

During 2006, upon the recommendation of the company's Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee granted options to purchase 50,000 to each of Jean Madar and Philippe Benacin, and 25,000 shares to Mr. Greenberg, at the fair market value on the date of grant. The grants to Messrs. Madar and Benacin were commensurate with the option grants made for 2004, 2003 and 2002, while the option grant to Mr. Greenberg was commensurate with his option grant in 2004, which was increased from his 2003 option grant of 18,000 shares.

The aggregate potential unrealized value of such options for each of Messrs. Madar and Benacin ranges from $206,520 to $456,356, for Mr. Greenberg from $103,260 to $228,178, calculated in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, during 2005 Mr. Madar realized $6,079,952 upon the exercise of outstanding stock options of our company. Likewise, Mr. Benacin realized $5,072,785 upon the exercise of outstanding stock options of our company, and in addition, he realized $574,663 on the exercise of outstanding stock options of Inter Parfums, S.A.

Mr. Garcia-Pelayo realized $173,218 upon the exercise of outstanding stock options of Inter Parfums, S.A., as well as $21,665 from profit sharing plan of Inter Parfums, S.A. Mr. Greenberg realized $467,000 upon the exercise of outstanding stock options of our company, as well as $79,000 realized on the exercise of outstanding stock options of Inter Parfums, S.A. The actual compensation realized as the result of the exercise of prior outstanding options, as well as the future potential of such rewards, are powerful incentives for increased individual performance, and ultimately increased company performance. In view of the fact that these executive officers contribute significantly to our profitable operations, the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee believes these incentives to be fair to these executive officers and to our shareholders.

Conclusion

The Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee believes that its present policies to date, with its emphasis on rewarding performance, has served to focus the efforts of our executives to achieve a high rate of growth and profitability, which management believes will result in a substantial increase in value to our shareholders.

The independent registered public accounting firm we employ, Mazars, LLP, is responsible for performing an independent audit of our consolidated financial statements in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards and to issue a report thereon, as well as, issuing its report on its audit of our management's assessment of our internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee's responsibility is to monitor and oversee these processes.
