Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 30, 2006, Emerge Capital Corp. (the “Registrant”) entered into that certain Purchase Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Kipling Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) and Timothy J. Connolly, an individual (the “Selling Shareholder”, and together with the Registrant and the Company, the “Parties”) and immediately prior to the Agreement, owner of one hundred percent (100%) of the total issued and outstanding capital stock of the Company (the “Shares”). Pursuant to the Agreement, the Registrant purchased from the Selling Shareholder, and the Selling Shareholder sold to the Registrant, the Shares in exchange for (a) the assumption by the Registrant of all of the liabilities of the Company, (b) the Registrant expanding those certain Existing Anti-Dilution Rights (as such term is defined in the Agreement) held by the Selling Shareholder in the Registrant’s Series B convertible preferred stock (the “Series B Preferred”) post closing and (c) a nominal cash amount equal to the direct costs incurred by the Selling Shareholder in connection with the Agreement. Mr. Connolly serves as CEO of the Registrant and therefore (i) the Registrant obtained a third party appraisal of the Company which valued the required asset at Two Million Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($2,250,000) more than the liabilities assumed and (ii) the Registrant’s other (disinterested) Board member and CFO reviewed and approved this affiliate transaction. Mr. Connolly received no profit from this affiliate transaction. The Agreement had been subject to the written consent of Highgate House Funds, Ltd. (“Highgate”), which the Company and Highgate reduced to writing effective as of September 30, 2006.

In connection with the expansion of the Existing Anti-Dilution Rights, the (a) Selling Shareholder originally had been obligated to, within five (5) business days following the execution of the Agreement, relinquish all Existing Anti-Dilution Rights by delivering those shares to the Registrant of Series B Preferred held by the Selling Shareholder and the Selling Shareholder’s spouse and (b) Registrant originally had been obligated to file with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, within five (5) days following the execution of the Agreement, a Certificate of Designation of Series D convertible preferred stock (the “Series D Preferred”), which such shares of Series D Preferred will have substantially the same powers, designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional and other special rights as the Series B Preferred except that holders of Series D Preferred (including the Selling Shareholder) will receive those Additional Anti-Dilution Rights (as such term is defined in the Agreement) set forth therein. However, on October 5, 2006, the Parties entered into that certain First Amendment to Purchase Agreement whereby the Parties agreed to extend the time in which (y) the Selling Shareholder shall relinquish all Existing Anti-Dilution Rights and (z) the Registrant shall file the Certificate of Designation with the State of Delaware from five (5) days to fifteen (15) business days.
