Explanatory Note

This amendment on Form 8-K/A is being filed to revise the related party transaction disclosures with respect to a newly-elected director that were provided in Item 5.02 of the Form 8-K that was filed by First United Corporation (the "Corporation") on October 23, 2006.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers.

(d) Election of Director.

On October 18, 2006, the Board of Directors of the Corporation increased the number of directors from 15 to 16 and elected H. Andrew Walls, III to fill the vacancy created thereby, all as permitted by the Corporation's Amended and Restated By-Laws. Mr. Walls will serve until the 2007 Annual Meeting of Stockholders and until his successor is duly elected and qualifies. Mr. Walls will serve on the Asset and Liability Management Committee of the Board of Directors. Mr. Walls will also be appointed to the board of directors of the Corporation's subsidiary, First United Bank & Trust (the "Bank"), and will serve on its Trust Committee and Loan Committee.

Mr. Walls will receive regular director's fees for serving on the Corporation's Board of Directors, which are subject to change by the Board and are disclosed each year in the Corporation's definitive proxy statement for the annual meeting of shareholders. Specifically, Mr. Walls will receive $400 for attending each meeting of the Board, $200 for attending each committee meeting of the Board, and an annual retainer fee of $10,000. For serving on the Bank's board of directors, Mr. Walls will receive $400 for attending each meeting of the board and $200 for attending each committee meeting. Mr. Walls will also be eligible to participate in the Corporation's Executive and Director Deferred Compensation Plan, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission as Exhibit 10.10 to the Corporation's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended September 30, 2003, subject to any eligibility or other requirements of that plan.

Walls Printing Company, Inc. ("WPC"), a corporation owned by Mr. Walls and a trust established for the benefit of his minor children, provides various printing and related services to the Corporation. Total fees paid by the Corporation to WPC in 2005 and thus far in 2006 were $134,639 and $135,770, respectively. These fees relate to the printing of marketing materials, account statements, and other routine items. The Corporation estimates that it will pay an additional $30,000 to WPC for these services during the rest of 2006. In addition, the Corporation intends to retain WPC in 2006 to provide forms management services (i.e., to print and warehouse forms used in the Corporation's business) and to process certain mail items. It is anticipated that annual fees paid to WPC under the forms management and mail processing services contracts will be approximately $60,000 and $129,000, respectively. Management believes that all of the foregoing transactions with WPC are or will be on terms that are substantially similar to those that would be available if an unrelated third-party were involved.

The Bank periodically engages in banking transactions in the ordinary course of its business with directors of the Corporation and their related interests, including loan and deposit transactions, on substantially the same terms, including interest rates, collateral, and repayment terms, as those prevailing at the same time for comparable transactions with non-affiliated persons. The Bank makes every attempt to structure loans to directors so that they do not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features. The Bank has engaged in the following loan transactions in excess of $60,000 with Mr. Walls and his related interests since December 31, 2004: (i) a $4,482,476 installment loan to WPC; and (ii) a $2,700,698 construction loan to MEGBA, LLC, a limited liability company owned by Mr. Walls and a trust established for the benefit of his minor children.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized.
