Item 4.01 Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant (for one of the Registrant's benefit plans)

On May 3, 2007, KPMG LLP ("KPMG") was dismissed as the independent public accounting firm for the Great Lakes Savings Plan, a qualified 401(k) Plan, (the "Plan") and Caron & Bletzer, PLLC ("Caron & Bletzer") was selected as the Plan's independent public accounting firm.

KPMG continues to serve as principal accountants for the Plan's sponsor, Chemtura Corporation (the "Company"), having been duly appointed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company, and the replacement of KPMG described above relates only to the Plan. The Company's decision to change the independent public accounting firm for the Plan was approved by the Company's Employee Benefits Committee on May 3, 2007.

The KPMG audit report on the Plan's financial statements as of and for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor was it qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 and the subsequent interim period through May 3, 2007, (i) there were no disagreements between the Plan or the Company as its sponsor and KPMG on any matters of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosures or auditing scope or procedures, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of KPMG, would have caused KPMG to make reference in connection with their opinion to the subject matter of the disagreement, and (ii) there were no "reportable events" as that term is defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K between the Plan and KPMG.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004, the Plan's financial statements were audited by another independent public accounting firm. Effective July 1, 2005, Great Lakes Chemical Corporation, the then sponsor of the Plan, was acquired by the Company, the current sponsor of the Plan.

The Plan and the Company have provided KPMG a copy of the foregoing statements and requested a letter from KPMG to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating whether or not KPMG agrees with the above statements. A copy of that letter, dated May 7, 2007, is filed as Exhibit 16.1 to this Form 8-K.

During the year ended December 31, 2005 and the subsequent interim period through May 3, 2007, neither the Plan, and the Company as the Plan's sponsor nor anyone acting on behalf of the Plan or the Company consulted Caron & Bletzer regarding the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Plan's financial statements.
