On December 18, 2007, AltiGen Communications, Inc. (the “Corporation”) entered into an Executive Employment Agreement (the “Agreement”) with Jeremiah J. Fleming, President and Chief Operating Officer of the Company, with retroactive effect back to Mr. Fleming’s start date of April 2, 2007 (the “Effective Date”). The Agreement provides that, during the term of his employment, Mr. Fleming will receive base compensation of $150,000 per year and will be eligible to receive incentive compensation, including bonuses, commission and stock options, based upon factors including, but not limited to, personal and company-wide performance (collectively, the “Total Compensation”).

The Agreement further provides that, if Mr. Fleming is terminated for “cause” or resigns for “good reason” (each as defined in the Agreement), then Mr. Fleming will receive (i) payment of his Total Compensation for twelve months (or, if such termination occurs prior to the first anniversary of the Effective Date, then the payment will be equal to Total Compensation for the period beginning on the termination date and ending on the second anniversary of the Effective Date) in a single lump sum, (ii) full accelerated vesting with respect to the shares subject to Mr. Fleming’s then outstanding, unvested equity awards and (iii) reimbursement of premiums paid for continued health benefits for Mr. Fleming (and any eligible dependents) under the Company’s health plans for up to twelve months following the termination date. In addition, the Agreement provides that all of Mr. Fleming’s stock options will vest upon a change of control of the Company.
