Item 3.02

On March 31, 2008, Emvelco Corp. (the “Company”) entered into a subscription agreement with purchaser, D’vora Greenwood (Attia), the sister of Mr. Yossi Attia (Company CEO), pursuant to which it sold an aggregate of 200,000 Shares of Common Stock at a price of $1.00 per share, $0.001 par value, plus two (2) times 200,000 convertible Warrants. Specifically, 200,000 of the Warrants are convertible upon exercise to one (1) Common Share of stock at $1.50 per share for a term of two (2) years. The other 200,000 of the Warrants are convertible upon exercise to one (1) Common Share of stock at $2.00 per share for a term of four (4) years. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the Warrants may be converted to Common Shares only if the Company issues 25,000,000 or more of its Common Stock so that there are at least 30,000,000 authorized Shares at the time of any conversion term. The shares sold were “restricted securities”. The money raised from the sale of the Company’s share, which was actually paid in on March 19, 2008, will be used for working capital and business operations of the Company.

The Board of Directors of the Company has approved the offering and sale of the common stock, with Yossi Attia abstaining. The Company claims an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 (the “Act”) for the private placement of these securities pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder since, among other things, the transaction did not involve a public offering, the purchasers are accredited investor and/or qualified institutional buyer, the purchasers had access to information about the Company and its investment, the purchasers took the securities for investment and not resale, and the Company took appropriate measures to restrict the transfer of the securities.
