Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

On May 30, 2008, the Company announced actions to streamline the Company's operations, including a headcount reduction at its New York headquarters. These actions eliminate organizational and administrative expenses that do not directly contribute to the Company's ability to service franchisees, licensees and business partners. As part of the restructuring efforts, the Company informed Charles A. Zona, the Executive Vice President, Brand Management and Licensing of the Company and a named executive officer, that his position will be eliminated, effective immediately. Mr. Zona has agreed to provide transitional services to the Company, without additional compensation in accordance with his employment agreement.

A copy of the press release announcing the Company's restructuring efforts is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated by reference herein.
