Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

On January 29, 2010, attorneys representing STAAR Surgical Company and Scott C. Moody, Inc. (“SMI”) signed a stipulation extending the date for potential enforcement and execution of judgment rendered in the case of Scott Moody, Inc. v. STAAR Surgical Company (California Superior Court, County of Orange, Case No. 07CC10132) to April 30, 2010. A mediation has been scheduled to take place on March 29 and 30, 2010. The purpose of the extension is to allow the parties involved, including certain insurers, to attempt to negotiate a global settlement, along with the matter entitled Parallax Medical Systems v. STAAR Surgical Company (Orange County Case No. 07CC10136) and to avoid the necessity of STAAR posting an appeal bond during the term of the stipulation. Additionally, STAAR has stipulated to a 60-day extension of the time for Parallax to file its opening brief in STAAR’s appeal of the Parallax judgment. Under the terms of the stipulation, if STAAR cancels the mediation the judgment will become immediately enforceable, and if any party other than STAAR, SMI or Parallax cancels the mediation the extended stay will expire 30 days after such cancellation.

Safe Harbor

All statements in this report that are not statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements, including any statements of the intent, plans, strategies or objectives of management, and including any statements regarding mediation, appeals or other future legal proceedings. These statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, including the risk that mediation may be unsuccessful, and that any appeal of the Parallax or SMI judgments may be denied or, if granted, may result in further proceedings that give limited or no relief. If mediation is not successful, STAAR will be required to pay the $6.5 million Moody judgment or to deposit a bond of 150% of the judgment amount while appeal of the case is pending. STAAR’s risks related to litigation, and its other material risks affecting the outcome of forward-looking statements, are described in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 2, 2009 and Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended October 2, 2009, under the caption “Risk Factors.” STAAR assumes no obligation to update its forward-looking statements to reflect future events or actual outcomes and does not intend to do so.
