On February 8, 2016, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company completed its annual review of its bylaws in light of developments over the last year, including its up-listing to The Nasdaq Capital Market, and the Board determined it was in the best interest of the Company and its stockholders to adopt Amended and Restated Bylaws of the Company (the “Amended and Restated Bylaws”), which became effective the same day. The Amended and Restated Bylaws include, among others, the following changes:

- clarifying director nominee eligibility requirements and procedures for nomination;
- increasing the percentage of outstanding voting stock required to call a special meeting of stockholders from 10% to 75%;
- requiring that all stockholder action be conducted at a meeting of the stockholders to give the Board and the Company the opportunity to provide information and recommendations with respect to any proposed action of the stockholders;
- adding a forum selection clause that requires stockholders to bring any action against the Company in a Nevada court;

requiring, in the event an officer initiates a proceeding against the Company, that the Board approve the officer's initiation of such proceeding in order for the officer to be entitled to indemnification under the Amended and Restated Bylaws; and incorporating certain conforming, ministerial and other related changes.
