Basic Agreement to Purchase the Nailer Business of Kanematsu-NNK Corp.

Makita Corporation (Makita) is pleased to announce that on November 19, 2004, Makita and Kanematsu-NNK Corp. (Kanematsu-NNK) signed a Memorandum of Understanding regarding Makita's purchase of the nailer business of Kanematsu-NNK (the Transaction). The details are as follows:

1. Purpose

Makita reached a basic agreement with Kanematsu-NNK regarding Makita's purchase of Kanematsu-NNK's nailer business.

At present, Makita manufactures and sells nailers in Japan and overseas, as a part of its core business i.e. the electric power tools business. Because competition in the field of nailers has intensified lately due to domestic competitors' vigorous activities and market globalization, reinforcing Makita's position in this field has become an important business challenge from the viewpoint of our marketing strategy.

Makita has already been supplied with some nailer products from Kanematsu-NNK and highly appreciated Kanematsu-NNK's competence in terms of R&D and manufacturing. Therefore, through the Transaction, Makita believes that it will be able to enhance the level of its competence in R&D and manufacturing of nailers in a short period of time and improve its competitiveness by taking in the customer base of Kanematsu-NNK. Makita also expects synergy in marketing electric power tools by expanding the line-up of its products.

2. Outline of the Transaction

- (1) Kanematsu-NNK shall split off its nailer business to Makita's wholly-owned subsidiary, which will be established for the Transaction, by using the company split procedure. Kanematsu-NNK shall be allotted and receive new shares to be issued by such subsidiary as a result of the company split. On the same day, all of such shares allotted to Kanematsu-NNK shall be transferred to Makita, and the subsidiary will then be Makita's wholly-owned subsidiary.
- (2) The Transaction is subject to (i) approval at Kanematsu-NNK's shareholders meeting and (ii) expiration of the waiting period after acceptance of the filing with respect to the Transaction with the Japan Fair Trade Commission.
