Edgar Filing: AMEN PROPERTIES INC - Form DEF 14A

To the Shareholders of AMEN Properties, Inc.:

The purpose of this letter is to formally solicit you to vote for the board's recommendation to implement a 1 for 4 reverse stock split. Our common stock is currently listed on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market ("Nasdaq"). Nasdaq requires that listed stocks maintain a closing bid price in excess of $1.00 per share. On April 9, 2002 the Company was notified that it failed to satisfy the $1.00 bid price requirement for the prior 30-day trading period. The Company was granted a 180-day grace period, through October 7, 2002, to remedy the deficiency. On October 7, 2002, the Company received a notification of delisting from Nasdaq. On October 13, 2002, we appealed Nasdaq's notification of delisting, which automatically stayed the delisting pending a hearing before the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel. The company also received a Nasdaq Staff Determination on November 20, 2002, indicating that as of September 30, 2002, the company failed to comply with the shareholders' equity/market value requirements for continued listing set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310 (c) (2) (B). This rule requires a listing company to maintain $2.5 million in shareholders' equity. This issue was addressed before the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel at a November 21, 2002 oral hearing. On December 17, 2002 the Company received notice from the Nasdaq Listing Qualification Panel that our common stock would continue to be listed on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market (under the symbol "AMENC") on the conditions set forth in the letter, including a requirement to obtain shareholder approval for this reverse stock split and to achieve a closing bid price of $1.00 by February 14, 2003 and maintain this price for 10 consecutive trading days. If approved, we believe this reverse split will serve to keep us listed on Nasdaq and preserve liquidity for our shareholders.

Since this is the first communication between the new management and our owners, please allow me to share a little about myself. I have primarily been in the oil and gas royalty acquisition business since 1984 in Midland, Texas (the President and First Lady's hometown). In recent years, I have been increasingly involved in commercial real estate acquisition and management. We have been blessed in most of our endeavors and have been taught valuable lessons with the ones that have not been as financially successful.

Eric Oliver (AMEN's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer) and I brought together a group of fellow investors to fund the Crosswalk.com Series A Preferred Stock, which was issued in the fall of 2000. We believed in Crosswalk.com, its mission, and its business. We believed this to be a worthwhile investment contributing to what we feel our ultimate mission in this life is - to go and make disciples. Obviously, many things have transpired since that first investment, all of which lead me to be writing this letter.

Where We Have Been

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven

- Ecclesiastes 3:1

This year has been quite a ride for AMEN Properties, Inc. (formerly Crosswalk.com). The year started with a renewed sense of optimism, as first quarter sales coupled with a revised expense model appeared to be establishing a trend toward profitability. Then in late March, our auditors issued a going concern opinion in connection with our 2001 Annual Report, which questioned our long-term viability without additional cash infusion by the year's end. Despite our optimism, the Company soon experienced erosion of advertiser's confidence. These facts led our then-CEO and President to recommend we seek to sell the company (or its assets) in an effort to save the mission while preserving shareholder value.

Raising additional capital was going to prove difficult at best and doing so would eliminate any inherent value in the company's Net Operating Loss (NOL) carry forward balances (almost $30 million). Under Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code, the company would have lost its ability to use its NOL's since more than a 50% change of ownership would have occurred within a three-year period. This adverse effect coupled with weakening ad sales contributed to the board's decision to follow the recommendation of our then-CEO and President and solicit buyers for the company's primary asset, namely the website crosswalk.com. As most of you are aware, in April of 2002, AMEN proceeded to solicit bids for either the company or its assets. Salem Communications, Inc. had the most attractive bid with an all-cash $4,100,000 offer for most of the assets. After considering a fairness opinion, the board accepted Salem's offer and quickly solicited you for approval of the sale. In our proxy statement, AMEN also solicited you to vote on a new business model. This plan would seek to preserve common shareholder value by using the company's significant NOL position and also its proposed new management's expertise. You approved both board recommendations by a substantial majority, along with a name change to AMEN Properties, Inc.

AMEN completed the asset sale on October 4, 2002, which included everything except our direct mail advertising card deck business. We have since divested the offline card deck business to Blue Hill Media, Inc. for a $275,000 note receivable and a 3.5% net profits interest in the business' gross margin.

Where We Are Now

Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring forth.
-Proverbs 27:1

In a nutshell, we have a tad over $3,000,000 shareholders equity on the books. Our assets are comprised of approximately one-third cash and two-thirds real estate. Along with this, we have NOL carry forward balances approaching $30 million.

Assuming we grow our equity at a 20% annualized rate, using a 10% discount factor and 34% tax rate, one could give the NOL balance a present value of approximately $4.5 million. Assuming equity growth of 10% and 30%, our NOL present value calculations would give us approximately $2.4 million and $5.7 million, respectively. Adding these potential values with our shareholders equity, we believe that AMEN has a potential intrinsic value ranging from $5.4 million to $8.7 million. If we fully utilize our NOL, our intrinsic value would most likely be around $5.4 million, given AMEN performs along the lines of most American corporations (the average public corporation returns approximately 12% on equity).

As reported on a recent 8K, we were able to acquire approximately 65% of the limited partner shares of TCTB Partners, Ltd., which owns buildings in Midland and Lubbock, Texas. We regret not being able to deliver 100% of this partnership but are thankful for what we compiled. We project our present holdings will produce cash flow of around $650,000 less approximately $250,000 in public company cost this coming year. The effect of high public company cost (audits, listing fees, legal, etc.) is significant with our limited equity base. We hope to grow out of this high expense relative to assets as rapidly as possible.

Where We Hope To Be

The plans of the diligent lead to profit as surely as haste leads to poverty
-Proverbs 21:5

A 20% return on equity as used in the above calculation is ambitious at best. Berkshire Hathaway, led by Warren Buffett, the most heralded company and business leader in America, has done approximately 25% over the past 35 years. In the words of Buffett, we cannot promise results to you, our partner.

Eric and I are fans of Berkshire Hathaway's business model. I see the company adhering to many of the financial tenets and disciplines of a Berkshire Hathaway. It's somewhat embarrassing to even mention AMEN with its $3.2 million market capitalization with Berkshire's $110 billion, but Berkshire started modestly also.

We concur with Buffett's assessment that any asset is only worth all of its future cash flows discounted back at some acceptable rate of interest. The only subjective part of any asset valuation is quantifying the likelihood (risk) of the assumed cash flows used in your modeling. That risk is easier to identify when you are dealing in markets in which you are intimately familiar. As stated in our new business model, we intend to focus on what we know best, oil/gas royalties and commercial office buildings. We will however pursue other types of property and business endeavors where we are comfortable in ascertaining the risks associated with their future. In particular, we are interested in existing businesses with management in place that have a stable cash flow history.

We are operating in a restrictive paradigm of not being able to access traditional equity sources without compromising our NOL balances. We hope we can continue to preserve our NOL base but certain things outside our control may occur which could jeopardize this position. If a larger deal that would require an expansion of our equity base presents itself, we would welcome sacrificing our NOL if the value added exceeded the present value we have assigned it.

When our capital does become limited, we intend to place acquisitions within limited partnerships in a structure whereby AMEN would be the general partner/manager, while property specific equity providers would be the limited partners. Our experience suggests finding capital is never a problem if you have a good deal. The good deals are the elusive element.

Going forward, we have put in place an opportunity evaluation system whereby we formulate a cash flow series with at least 10 possible outcomes. We will then assign probability percentages to each of the outcomes. Based on the assigned probabilities, we will arrive at weighted internal rates of return (IRR). These returns must meet the following four criteria to warrant additional due diligence:

1. "Unleveraged" End of Year One IRR of at least 12%
2. "Unleveraged" Project IRR of at least 15%
3. Less than 10% assigned probability of less than 5% project IRR
4. Minimum of 20% chance of at least 20% "unleveraged" IRR

The last two parameters serve to focus our attention on opportunities we can model with limited risk but significant upside potential. By using leverage on these minimum rates of return, we should choose opportunities that attain our necessary return on equity targets. This risked-back return calculation seems somewhat elementary but I am convinced most investment decisions on all levels are made without doing one. The vast majority of deals we see do not meet all four of these requirements. The outlook for finding deals that meet our criteria in our primary focus area of royalties and commercial office buildings has not been attractive in the fourth quarter of 2002. We are committed to stay patient and not force any deals. Again, it's worth repeating, we cannot guarantee results. We will execute our plan as best we can and pray it will bring results.

What You Can Do

Do not forget to do good and to help one another, because these are the sacrifices that please God. Hebrews 13:16

First and foremost, Eric and I need your prayers. As I hope everyone knows, this company remains a religious corporation with its same statement of faith. To my knowledge, we remain the only publicly traded company with this designation. Though our direction and business model has changed, our Kingdom based principles haven't. AMEN has always had a commitment evidenced in its bylaws to tithe 10% of its net profits to Kingdom purposes. Ultimately, we hope to give you the opportunity to designate specific Christian ministries for this tithe. Eric and I also hope and pray that any and all profits generated by AMEN will ultimately be put to use by you for Kingdom purposes.

You can also help us in making us aware of potential acquisition prospects. If you are aware of any opportunities that could fall within the parameters described above, we would welcome hearing from you. We are searching for oil and gas royalties, commercial real estate, and stabilized cash flowing businesses or assets. Shareholders assisting in our search could prove critical to our reaching our targets. Please drop me or Eric at note at AMEN Properties, Inc., 303 W. Wall Street, Suite 1700, Midland, TX 79701 or email us at jmorgan@amenproperties.com.

Conclusion

We hope AMEN Properties is now a stock with some fundamental value. For the first time in the company's brief history, we are adding cash to the bottom line as opposed to subtracting cash with each day that passes. We hope a healthy growing business will ultimately translate into a healthy growing share price. We trust that a market based on truth will portray an accurate report card of a company's performance through its share price. We hope that you would view this investment with the intent of being our partner for the long haul. We have committed our investment dollars along side of yours.

With that said, AMEN may no longer be a stock for the short term. With a minimal equity base and limitations on raising additional equity, this company is faced with a slow "grind it out" future. It's a future I look forward to being a part of and I thank you for the ability to serve in the capacity of one of its leaders.

Your voting "Yes" to the matter of the reverse split would be appreciated. Voting in the affirmative will serve to protect long-term shareholder value through maintaining the liquidity the Nasdaq market provides.

Yours Very Truly,

THIS NOTICE OF MEETING AND PROXY STATEMENT AND ACCOMPANYING PROXY CARD ARE BEING DISTRIBUTED ON OR ABOUT JANUARY 15, 2003

INFORMATION CONCERNING VOTING AND PROXY SOLICITATION

General Information

The Board of Directors (the "Board") of AMEN Properties, Inc., a Delaware corporation (sometimes referred to as the "Company" or "AMEN"), is providing this Proxy Statement in connection with a Special Meeting of stockholders, which will take place on January 30, 2003 and at any postponement or adjournment thereof (the "Special Meeting"). Whether or not you plan to attend the Special Meeting in person, please return your executed proxy card in the enclosed postage prepaid and addressed envelope, and your shares will be voted in accordance with your wishes.

What is the purpose of the Special Meeting?

At the Special Meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on the matters described in the accompanying Notice of Special Meeting, including considering and acting upon a proposal to amend AMEN's certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split of all of the issued and outstanding shares of

AMEN's common stock at a ratio of one-for-four.

Are there other matters to be voted on at the Special Meeting?

The Board of Directors does not know of any other matters that may come before the Special Meeting. Delaware law and AMEN's by-laws impose limitations on the ability to present business items at a special meeting if those items were not included in the notice of special meeting. Accordingly, except for procedural matters incidental to the conduct of the meeting, it is not expected that any other matters will come before the Special Meeting. If any other matters are properly presented at the Special Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the accompanying proxy to vote, or otherwise act, in accordance with their judgment.

Who can vote at the Special Meeting?

In order to vote, you must have been a stockholder of record at the close of business on December 27, 2002 (which is referred to as the "Record Date"). If your shares are owned of record in the name of a broker or other nominee, you should follow the voting instructions provided by your nominee.

On the record date, there were 7,968,221 shares of AMEN's common stock issued, outstanding and entitled to vote. In addition, 1,333,333 shares of common stock, issuable upon conversion of 80,000 shares of Series "A" preferred stock, and 933,269 shares of common stock, issuable upon conversion of 80,000 shares of Series "B" preferred stock, are also eligible to cast votes. There are 10,234,823 voting shares as of the Record Date ("Voting Stock"). Each share of common stock and voting preferred stock is entitled to one vote on each matter to be voted upon.

How do I vote?

You may vote by signing your proxy card, or if your shares are held in street name, the voting instruction card included by your broker or nominee, and mailing it in the enclosed, postage prepaid and addressed envelope.

Any stockholder who has executed and returned a proxy and who for any reason desires to revoke such proxy may do so at any time before the proxy is exercised: (1) by delivering written notice prior to the Special Meeting to the Secretary of the Company at the above address; (2) by voting the shares represented by such proxy in person at the Special Meeting; or (3) by giving a later dated proxy at any time before the voting at the Special Meeting. Attendance at the Special Meeting will not, by itself, revoke a proxy.

Voting in Person. Even if you currently plan to attend the Special Meeting, we recommend that you also submit your proxy so that your vote will be counted if you later decide not to attend the Special Meeting. Shares held in street name may be voted in person by you at the Special Meeting only if you obtain a signed proxy from the record holder giving you the right to vote the shares.

What constitutes a quorum?

In order for business to be conducted at the Special Meeting, a quorum must be present. A quorum consists of the holders of a majority of the shares of Voting Stock issued and outstanding on the Record Date and entitled to vote. Shares of Voting Stock represented in person or by proxy (including shares that abstain or do not vote with respect to the matter to be voted upon) will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum exists. If a quorum is not present, the

Special Meeting will be adjourned until a quorum is obtained.

What vote is required to approve the reverse stock split?

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Voting Stock outstanding on the Record Date is required to approve the Certificate of Amendment to the certificate of incorporation effecting the reverse stock split.

How will votes be counted?

You may vote "FOR," "AGAINST" or "ABSTAIN." If you "ABSTAIN," it has the same effect as a vote "AGAINST." If you sign your proxy card or broker voting instruction card with no further instructions, your shares will be voted in accordance with the recommendations of the Board ("FOR" the reverse stock split and in the discretion of the proxy holders on any other matters that properly come before the Special Meeting).

In accordance with Delaware law, if a stockholder abstains from voting on an action, that stockholder's shares will still be counted for determining whether the requisite number of stockholders attended the Special Meeting. If a broker does not vote on any particular action because it does not have the authority to do so (a "broker non-vote"), but does vote on other actions, the shares will still be counted for determining whether the requisite number of stockholders attended the meeting. Broker non-votes, however, are not counted as shares present and entitled to be voted with respect to the matter on which the broker has expressly not voted. Thus, broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of any matters being voted on at the Special Meeting.

PROPOSAL 1: AMENDMENT TO THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO EFFECT A REVERSE STOCK SPLIT OF AMEN'S COMMON STOCK

General Information

Our Board of Directors has unanimously adopted a resolution approving, and recommending to our stockholders for their approval, a proposal to amend Article Four of the AMEN's certificate of incorporation authorizing a reverse split of the shares of our common stock at a ratio of one-for-four. The form of the proposed amendment is annexed to this Proxy Statement as Annex A. The amendment to the certificate of incorporation will effect the reverse stock split by reducing the number of shares of our common stock by the ratio to be determined by the Board of Directors, but will not increase the par value of our common stock, and will not change the number of authorized shares of our common stock.

Reasons for the Reverse Stock Split

Listing on Nasdaq. The Board has determined that the continued listing of our common stock on Nasdaq is in the best interests of our stockholders. If our common stock were delisted from Nasdaq, the Board believes that the liquidity in the trading market for our common stock would be significantly decreased which could reduce the trading price and increase the transaction costs of trading shares of our common stock.

Our common stock is currently listed on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market ("Nasdaq"). Nasdaq requires that listed stocks maintain a closing bid price in excess of $1.00 per share. On April 9, 2002 the Company was notified that it failed to satisfy the $1.00 bid price requirement for the prior 30-day trading period. The Company was granted a 180-day grace period, through October 7, 2002, to remedy the deficiency. On October 7, 2002, the Company received a notification of delisting from Nasdaq. On October 13, 2002, we appealed Nasdaq's notification of delisting, which automatically stayed the delisting pending a hearing before the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel. The company also received a Nasdaq Staff Determination on November 20, 2002, indicating that as of September 30, 2002, the company failed to comply with the shareholders' equity/market value requirements for continued listing set forth in Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310 (c)(2)(B). This rule requires a listing company to maintain $2.5 million in shareholders' equity. This issue was addressed before the Nasdaq Listing Qualifications Panel at a November 21, 2002 oral hearing. On December 17, 2002 the Company received notice from the Nasdaq Listing Qualification Panel that our common stock would continue to be listed on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market (under the symbol AMENC) on the conditions set forth in the letter, including a requirement to obtain shareholder approval for this reverse stock split and to achieve a closing bid price of $1.00 by February 14, 2003 and maintain this price for 10 consecutive trading days.

Purpose of the Reverse Stock Split and the Exchange Ratio Range. The purpose of the reverse stock split is to increase the market price per share of our common stock. The Board believes that by giving effect to a reverse split, the resulting decrease in the number of shares outstanding is likely to improve the trading price of our common stock and improve the likelihood that we will be allowed to maintain our listing on Nasdaq.

Potential Risks of the Reverse Stock Split

If the Board does effect a reverse stock split there can be no assurance that the bid price of our common stock will continue at a level in proportion to the reduction in the number of outstanding shares resulting from the reverse stock split and that the market price of the post-split common stock can be maintained at or above $1.00, or that our common stock will not be delisted from Nasdaq for other reasons. The market price of our common stock will also be based on our performance and other factors, many of which are unrelated to the number of shares outstanding. If the reverse stock split is effected and the market price of our common stock declines, the percentage decline as an absolute number and as a percentage of our overall capitalization may be greater than would occur in the absence of a reverse stock split. Furthermore, liquidity of our common stock could be adversely affected by the reduced number of shares that would be outstanding after the reverse stock split.

Potential Effects of the Reverse Stock Split

Pursuant to the reverse stock split, each holder of four (4) shares of our common stock, par value $.01 per share, as of the Record Date of the reverse stock split will become a holder of one (1) share of our common stock, par value $.01 per share, after consummation of the reverse stock split.

Accounting Matters

The reverse stock split will not affect the par value of our common stock. As a result, on the effective date of the reverse stock split, the stated par value capital on our balance sheet attributable to our common stock will be reduced to one-fourth (1/4) of its present amount, and the additional paid-in capital account shall be credited with the amount by which the stated capital is reduced. The per share net income or loss and net book value per share of our common stock will be increased because there will be fewer shares of our common stock outstanding.

Effect on Authorized and Outstanding Shares

We are currently authorized to issue a maximum of 20,000,000 shares of common stock. As of the record date, there were 7,968,221 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding, or held as treasury shares. Although the number of authorized shares of common stock will not change as a result of the reverse stock split, the number of shares of common stock issued and outstanding, or held as treasury shares, will be reduced to a number that will be approximately equal to the number of shares of our common stock issued and outstanding, or held as treasury shares, immediately prior to the effectiveness of the reverse stock split, divided by four. The following table sets forth the effects on the common stock:

Number of Shares of Common Stock	Before Reverse Split	After Reverse Split
Issued and Outstanding:	7,968,221	1,992,055
Authorized and Reserved for Issuance:	6,238,882	1,559,720
Authorized but Unreserved for Issuance:	5,792,897	16,448,225
Total Authorized:	20,000,000	20,000,000

As a result of the reverse stock split, the amount of common stock outstanding after the reverse split will represent approximately 10% of the total authorized shares of common stock. Therefore, if the additional authorized but unreserved shares are issued after the reverse stock split, the relative percentage of the Company owned by current stockholders would be reduced. We do not have any current plans, proposals or arrangements to issue any of the additional authorized but unreserved shares. With the exception of the number of shares issued and outstanding, or held as treasury shares, the rights and preferences of the shares of our common stock prior and subsequent to the reverse stock split will remain the same. Following the effective date of the reverse stock split, it is not anticipated that our financial condition, the percentage ownership of management, the number of our stockholders, the percentage ownership of our holders of common stock, or any aspect of our business would materially change as a result of the reverse stock split.

The reverse stock split will be effected simultaneously for all of our common stock and the exchange ratio will be the same for all of our common stock. The reverse split will affect the Series A and B preferred stock holders uniformly in that the preferred stock will be convertible into one-fourth the number of common stock shares. The reverse stock split will also affect all of our stockholders uniformly and will not affect any stockholder's percentage ownership interests in AMEN, except to the extent that the reverse stock split results in any of our stockholders owning a fractional share. See "Fractional Shares" below. Common stock issued pursuant to the reverse stock split will remain fully paid and non-assessable.

Our common stock is currently registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities

Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and as a result, we are subject to periodic reporting and other requirements. The proposed reverse stock split will not affect the registration of our common stock under the Exchange Act.

Potential Odd Lots

If approved, the reverse stock split will result in some stockholders owning "odd-lots" of less than 100 shares of our common stock. Brokerage commissions and other costs of transactions in odd-lots are generally somewhat higher than the costs of transactions in "round-lots" of even multiples of 100 shares.

Increase of Shares of Common Stock Available for Future Issuance

As a result of the reverse stock split, there will be a reduction in the number of shares of our common stock issued and outstanding, or held as treasury shares, and an associated increase in the number of authorized shares which would be unissued and available for future issuance after the reverse stock split. The increase in available shares could be used for any proper corporate purpose approved by the Board including, among other purposes, future financing transactions. We do not have any current plans, proposals or arrangements to issue any of the additional shares to acquire any business or engage in any investment opportunity, or to otherwise use the additional shares in any financing transaction.

Potential Anti-Takeover Effect

Although the increased proportion of unissued authorized shares to issued shares could, under certain circumstances, have an anti-takeover effect (for example, by permitting issuances that would dilute the stock ownership of a person seeking to effect a change in composition of our Board or contemplating a tender offer or other transaction for the combination of AMEN with another company or that could be used to resist or frustrate a third-party transaction providing an above-market premium that might be favored by a majority of the independent stockholders), the reverse stock split proposal is not being proposed in response to any effort of which we are aware to accumulate our shares of common stock or obtain control of us, nor is it part of a plan by management to recommend a series of similar amendments to our Board and stockholders. Other than the reverse stock split proposal, our Board does not currently contemplate recommending the adoption of any other amendments to our certificate of incorporation that could be construed to affect the ability of third parties to take over or change the control of AMEN.

Effectiveness of the Reverse Stock Split

The reverse stock split, if approved by our stockholders, will become effective as provided in the filing with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware of a Certificate of Amendment of our Certificate of Incorporation in substantially the form of the Certificate of Amendment attached to this Proxy Statement as Annex A. It is expected that such filing will take place on or shortly after the date of the Special Meeting, assuming the stockholders approve the reverse stock split.

Commencing upon the effectiveness date specified in the filing of the amendment effecting the reverse stock split with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, each certificate of our common stock will be deemed for all corporate purposes to evidence ownership of the reduced number of shares of common stock resulting from the reverse stock split. As soon as practicable after the effective date, stockholders will be notified as to the effectiveness of the reverse stock split and instructed as to how and when to surrender their certificates representing shares of common stock prior to the reverse stock split in exchange for certificates representing shares of common stock after the reverse stock split. We intend to use the American Stock Transfer and Trust Company as our exchange agent in effecting the exchange of the certificates following the effectiveness of the reverse stock split.

Fractional Shares

We will not issue fractional shares in connection with the reverse stock split. Instead, any fractional share that results from the reverse stock split will be rounded as follows; fractional shares equal to or greater than .5 will be rounded up to the next whole share, and any fractional shares less than .5 will be rounded down to the next whole share. We are doing this so that we may avoid the expense and inconvenience of issuing and transferring fractional shares of our common stock as a result of the stock split. The shares do not represent separately bargained for consideration.

Certain Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion summarizing certain federal income tax consequences is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, the applicable Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial authority and current administrative rulings and practices in effect on the date of this Proxy Statement. This discussion is for general information only and does not discuss consequences that may apply to special classes of taxpayers (e.g., non-resident aliens, broker-dealers, or insurance companies). Stockholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular consequences to them.

The receipt of the common stock following the effective date of the reverse stock split, including whole shares issued in lieu of fractional shares, solely in exchange for the common stock held prior to the reverse stock split will not generally result in a recognition of gain or loss to the stockholders. The adjusted tax basis of a stockholder in the common stock received after the reverse stock split will be the same as the adjusted tax basis of the common stock held prior to the reverse stock split exchanged therefore, and the holding period of the common stock received after the reverse stock split will include the holding period of the common stock held prior to the reverse stock split exchanged therefore. No gain or loss will be recognized by AMEN as a result of the reverse stock split.

Appraisal Rights

No appraisal rights are available under the Delaware General Corporation Law or under our certificate of incorporation or by-laws to any stockholder who dissents from the proposal to approve the amendment to the certificate of incorporation to effect the reverse stock split.

Recommendation

The Board of Directors unanimously recommends a vote "FOR" the amendment to AMEN's certificate of incorporation to effect a reverse stock split.
