executives and employees throughout the Bank for achieving established corporate goals:

- o Executive Management Bonus Plan
- o Profit Sharing Program
- o Corporate Banking Incentive Program

These plans will be in effect from January 1, 2005 to December 31, 2005.

Executive Management Bonus Plan. Pursuant to this plan, the President, the Chief Lending Officer, the Chief Operating Officer, the Human Resources Director and the Controller are eligible to receive bonuses based on a percentage of their annual salary in the event the Bank realizes certain targeted returns on average equity.

Corporate Banking Incentive Program. Pursuant to this plan, commercial loan officers of the Bank are rewarded for commercial loan production, commercial loan portfolio growth and customer retention, deposit growth and profitability. To be eligible, commercial loan officers are evaluated utilizing a number of performance factors including account management, credit quality, and loss experience.

Profit Sharing Plan. Pursuant to this plan, all full- and part-time employees meeting certain criteria are eligible to participate under the plan. Payments are based on a percentage of the employee's annual salary in the event the Bank reaches targeted net income goals. Those eligible for the Executive Management Bonus Plan or the Corporate Banking Incentive Program are not eligible to participate in this plan.

These plans are administered by the Human Resources Committee.
