Upon occupancy, the leased space shall serve as the principal office of athenahealth India. The New Lease has a three-year term, commencing April 28, 2009, with renewal options for two additional three-year periods. The initial three-year term is treated as a lock-in period during which athenahealth India shall not abandon or surrender the property or terminate the New Lease. The initial rent, the payment of which does not commence until September 1, 2009, is 847,210 Indian Rupees (or U.S. $17,071)¹ per month and is subject to a 12% increase at renewal. athenahealth India may sublease the premises with the prior written consent of the lessor if the sub-lessee is of equal or higher financial standing than athenahealth India. There are no material relationships between the Company or any of its affiliates and the lessor, other than in respect of the New Lease.

The foregoing description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the New Lease, a copy of which the Company intends to file as an exhibit to its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ending June 30, 2009, and the terms of which are incorporated herein by reference.

The rent payment of approximately 845,643 Indian Rupees (or U.S. $17,040)¹ per month under the Existing Lease will continue to be paid until termination. The Existing Lease provides for termination without penalty on 90 days’ notice after a three-year lock-in period, which expired November 3, 2008.
