PROXY STATEMENT
ANNUAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Edgar Filing: SONO TEK CORP - Form DEF 14A

AUGUST 17, 2006

The accompanying proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of SONO-TEK CORPORATION, a New York corporation (the "Company"), for use at the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders of the Company to be held on August 17, 2006.

All proxies that are properly completed, signed and returned to the Company prior to the Annual Meeting, and which have not been revoked, will be voted in accordance with the shareholder's instructions contained in such proxy. In the absence of contrary instructions, shares represented by such proxy will be voted (i) FOR approval of the election of each of the individuals nominated as Directors set forth herein and (ii) FOR the ratification of the appointment of Sherb & Co., LLP as the Company's auditors for the fiscal year ending February 28, 2007. A shareholder may revoke his or her proxy at any time before it is exercised by filing with the Secretary of the Company at its offices in Milton, New York either a written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by appearing in person at the 2006 Annual Meeting and expressing a desire to vote his or her shares in person. All costs of this solicitation are to be borne by the Company.

Abstentions will be treated as shares present and entitled to vote for quorum purposes but as not voted for purposes of determining the approval of any matters submitted to the shareholders for a vote. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Company's certificate of incorporation or bylaws, abstentions will not be counted in determining whether a matter has received a majority of votes cast. If a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on a particular matter, those shares will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter. Broker non-votes are not counted for quorum purposes.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Shareholders, the Proxy, and the 2006 Annual Report to Shareholders are intended to be mailed on or about July 18, 2006 to shareholders of record at the close of business on June 16, 2006. At said record date, the Company had 14,449,828 outstanding shares of common stock.

ITEM 1. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors is divided into two classes. The Directors in each class serve for a term of two years, and until their respective successors are duly elected and qualify. Three (3) Directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting by plurality vote to hold office until the Company's 2008 Annual Meeting of Shareholders and until their successors shall be duly elected and shall qualify.

Management intends to vote the accompanying Proxy FOR election as Directors of the Company, the nominees named below, unless the Proxy contains contrary instructions. Proxies that direct the Proxy holders to withhold voting in the matter of electing Directors will not be voted as set forth above. Proxies cannot be voted for a greater number of persons than the number of nominees named in the Proxy Statement. On all matters that may properly come before the 2006 Annual Meeting, each share has one vote. Management has no reason to believe that any of the nominees will not be a candidate or will be unable to serve. However, in the event that any of the nominees should become unable or unwilling to serve as a Director, the Proxy will be voted for the election of such person or persons as shall be designated by the Directors.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Accordingly, all Directors participate in the selection of candidates for nomination as Directors of the Company. The Board identifies and deliberates on the merits of candidates, based upon education, and experience in the following areas: business, scientific, legal and financial. The Company's Board of Directors is comprised of three "independent directors", as that term is defined under Nasdaq rules, and three directors who are not "independent directors". The Company's "independent directors" are Samuel Schwartz, Donald Mowbray and Edward Handler. Christopher Coccio and Harvey Berger are employees of the Company and are therefore not independent. Philip Strasburg is not considered an independent director under the Nasdaq rules as he is a former employee. Mr. Strasburg was a part time employee from February 23, 2005 to July 1, 2005, working a total of 5 days. The Board of Directors will consider nominees recommended by shareholders. No special procedure needs to be followed in submitting such recommendation.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Company's Board of Directors has a Compensation Committee composed of Messrs. Strasburg, Mowbray and Handler (Chairman). The compensation of the executive officers of the Company is set by the Company's Board of Directors based upon the recommendations of the Compensation Committee. The Company's management is responsible for preparing the Company's financial statements and for maintaining internal control and disclosure controls and procedures. The independent auditors are responsible for auditing the financial statements and for expressing an opinion as to whether those audited financial statements fairly present the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of the Company in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In the event of a negative vote, the Board of Directors will reconsider its election. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors determined the independence of the Company's auditors and recommended their re-appointment to the Board of Directors. Fees paid to the auditors were as follows:

		Audit Services -----	Tax Returns -----
Sherb & Co., LLP	Fiscal year ended February 28, 2006	$26,500	$4,000

LLP had been the independent registered public accounting firm for and audited the consolidated financial statements of the Company as of February 29, 2004, and for two years then ended. The reports of Radin, Glass & Co., LLP on the financial statements of the Company for the two fiscal years ended February 29, 2004 contained no adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, and were not qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

In connection with the audit for the two fiscal years ended February 29, 2004 and in connection with Radin, Glass & Co., LLP's review of the subsequent interim periods preceding dismissal on March 21, 2005, there have been no disagreements between the Company and Radin, Glass & Co., LLP on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to the satisfaction of Radin, Glass & Co., LLP, would have caused Radin, Glass & Co., LLP to make reference thereto in their report on the Company's financial statements for these fiscal years. During the two fiscal years ended February 29, 2004 and the subsequent interim periods preceding dismissal on March 21, 2005, the Company had no reportable events (as defined in Item 304(a)(1) of Regulation S-B).

Radin, Glass & Co., LLP has furnished the Company with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission stating that it agrees with the above statements.

On March 21, 2005, the Company engaged Sherb & Co., LLP as its independent registered public accounting firm. The Company had not consulted with Sherb & Co., LLP regarding the application of accounting principles to any contemplated or completed transactions nor the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's financial statements, and neither written nor oral advice was provided that would be an important factor considered by the Company in reaching
