VARONIS SYSTEMS We plan to achieve our goal of building a billion dollar business that grows revenues meaningfully with expanding profit and cash flow.

VARONIS SYSTEMS 12 Compensation Philosophy – Pay for Performance The fundamental philosophy of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) is to closely link executive compensation with the achievement of pre-established performance goals and to promote a culture of aligning executive interests with those of the Company and its stockholders over the long-term. We additionally strive to: Motivate, attract and retain highly-skilled executives Incentivize management to optimize the Company’s performance and increase long-term stockholder value Ensure that overall compensation is fair for the services rendered and that the compensation structure is transparent Despite being a relatively young company, becoming publicly traded in 2014, the Committee focuses on both short-term and long-term performance when incentivizing Named Executive Officers (“NEOs”). Though we expect our compensation practices to evolve with our growing business, we will remain transparent in how we reward performance and appropriately adjust compensation in periods of underperformance.

VARONIS SYSTEMS 13 CEO Compensation Plan Overview Yakov Faitelson's 2018 Compensation Package Pay Element Components Link to Performance Base Salary Annual Cash Incentive Award Long Term Equity Based Incentive Awards Cash: $560,000 Cash: $407,472 RSUs: 150,000 Shares Evaluated on an annual basis based on scope of responsibilities, execution of corporate strategy and firm - wide performance. Targeted at 79% of base salary (<25th percentile of compensation peer group) and evaluated based on aggressive quarterly/annual revenue (67.5%), quarterly/annual operating income (22.5%) and individual performance (10%) as determined by the Committee. RSUs will vest over four years, subject to Mr. Faitelson's continued service, to align CEO compensation with our market peers. The Committee believes that a rigorous incentive plan will drive our executives to achieve the corporate strategy of growing revenues while expanding profit and cash flow. Our annual cash incentive program used a mix of pre - established quantitative metrics that are directly tied to our strategy and a qualitative review of individual performance. To better align our CEO compensation with that of our market peers, the Committee utilized a long - term Restricted Stock Unit ("RSU") award that vests over 4 years. We strongly believe that our Company's performance and success are directly attributable to our incentive plan, which in turn is correlated to long - term stockholder value creation .

VARONIS SYSTEMS 14 Recent Decisions to Further Promote Stockholder Interests In February 2019, the Committee conducted its annual executive compensation review and made 2019 compensation decisions for our NEOs. In making these decisions, the Committee considered, among other factors, the pay level of our NEOs relative to the Company's peers and the overall competitive market, performance of each NEO, and the long - term interests of our stockholders. The Committee decided to keep the base salaries and target annual incentive compensation opportunities of our NEOs at the same amounts as in 2018. The Committee proactively introduced performance stock unit ("PSU") awards as part of Mr. Faitelson's 2019 long - term incentive compensation award (a mix of 50% PSUs and 50% RSUs). The Committee determined that subscription percentage of total license revenues, which ties directly to our business strategy of transitioning to a subscription license model from a perpetual model, would be the performance metric for Mr. Faitelson's 2019 PSU award. The Committee maintained revenues and non - GAAP operating income as the corporate performance metrics for the 2019 Cash Incentive Plan, as such metrics continue to be key performance drivers supporting the Company's operating plan.

VARONIS SYSTEMS 15 Rewarding Outperformance Varonis significantly outperformed its compensation peers over the long - term. The Company's 3 - Year Total Stockholder Return is 41.2% versus its peer median of 21.4%, which ranks the Company's performance in the 82nd percentile.* Source: Equilar , Inc. 3 - Year TSR (%) FIVN 77.6 VRNS 41.2 CARB 37.1 ELLI 31.5 PFPT 23.2 LLNW 17.0 QLYS 16.7 PRO 10.9 SPSC 5.5 BCOV (3.5) IMPV (6.9) OSPN (21.0) 0 20 40 60 80 100 120 140 160 180 0.0 0.5 1.0 1.5 2.0 2.5 3.0 3.5 4.0 4.5 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018 TSR (%) Pay ($ in millions) Pay TSR 2014 2015 2016 2017 2018 Pay ($m) $0.56 $0.73 $1.18 $1.96 $4.18 TSR N/A 57.26 81.63 146.82 161.13 Peers VRNS General pay - for - performance alignment TSR Percentile Pay Percentile TSR vs. SEC Realizable Pay

VARONIS SYSTEMS 16 VRNS Total CEO Compensation Historically Below Peer CEOs Source: Company Proxy Statements. Peers include: A10 Networks, AppFolio , Barracuda Networks, Bazaarvoice , Brightcove , Callidus Software, Carbonite, CPI Card Group, Ellie Mae, Five 9, Forescout Technologies, Gigamon , Hortonworks, Imperva , Limelight Networks, Medidata Solutions, MINDBODY, MobileIron , Model N, New Relic, Okta , OneSpan , Progress Software, Proofpoint , PROS Holdings, Q2 Holdings, Qualys , Rapid7, SecureWorks , and SPS Commerce, Inc. VRNS CEO After careful consideration, the Committee granted the 2018 Long Term Equity Award (“2018 RSU Award”) to: (1) further strengthen the alignment of long - term interests of Mr. Faitelson with those of the Company’s stockholders, and (2) incentivize Mr. Faitelson to continue to execute on the strategic priorities geared to enhance and protect stockholder value. The Committee decided to grant the 2018 RSU Award only after confirming that, post - grant, the CEO pay would still be well aligned with the Company’s performance, based on the 3 - year relative TSR against compensation peers. Considered in the context of the historical CEO compensation which was perennially well below peer median, and the Committee’s proactive adoption of PSU awards for the 2019 Long Term Equity Award at a time when the Company is embarking on a shift in its business model, the 2018 RSU Award is a critical component of the Company’s executive compensation program geared to incentivize management to create long - term value for stockholders.

VARONIS SYSTEMS 17 Responsiveness to Stockholder Feedback Varonis recently graduated from Emerging Growth Company (EGC) status, and for many years has engaged compensation consultants and other advisors to counsel on best practices regarding disclosures in the proxy. The Committee is always striving to meet and exceed industry standards, and we expect to incorporate more robust compensation disclosures in the future. Varonis regularly and proactively engages with its stockholders and values their feedback not only on our business strategy and execution, but also on our executive compensation program. Responding to our stockholders, our Board will discuss this year potentially implementing or strengthening compensation - related governance policies . Varonis will take all stockholders' feedback under consideration as we continue to evolve .
