Item 4. DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

Not applicable.

Item 5. INTEREST OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

Not applicable.

Item 6. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

Exculpation of Office Holders

The Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999, or the Israeli Companies Law, provides that an Israeli company may not exculpate an office holder from liability with respect to a breach of his duty of loyalty, but may, if permitted by its Articles of Association, exculpate in advance an office holder from his liability to the company, in whole or in part, with respect to a breach of his duty of care.

Edgar Filing: GILAT SATELLITE NETWORKS LTD - Form S-8

Insurance of Office Holders

The Israeli Companies Law provides that a company may, if permitted by its Articles of Association, enter into a contract for the insurance of the liability of any of its office holders with respect to an act performed by him in his capacity as an office holder, with respect to:

- a breach of his duty of care to the company or to another person;
 - the breach of his duty of loyalty to the company, provided that the office holder acted in good faith and had reasonable cause to assume that such act would not prejudice the company's interests;

a financial liability imposed upon him in favor of another person.

Indemnification of Office Holders

The Israeli Companies Law provides that a company may, if permitted by its Articles of Association, indemnify an office holder with respect to an act performed by him in his capacity as an office holder, against:

- a financial liability imposed on him in favor of another person by any judgment, including a settlement or an arbitrator's award approved by a court; and
- reasonable litigation expenses, including attorneys' fees, incurred by the office holder or charged to him by a court, in proceedings instituted against him by the company or on its behalf or by another person, or in a criminal charge from which he was acquitted, or a criminal charge in which he was convicted for an offense that does not require proof of criminal intent.

Under the Israeli Companies Law, a provision in a company's Articles of Association regarding indemnification of office holders may authorize the company to: undertake in advance to indemnify an office holder, provided that the undertaking is limited to types of events which its board of directors deem to be anticipated at the time of the undertaking and to an amount determined by its board of directors to be reasonable under the circumstances; and retroactively indemnify an office holder.

Limitations on Exculpation, Insurance and Indemnification

The Israeli Companies Law provides that a company may not enter into a contract for the insurance of the liability of an officer holder nor indemnify an office holder nor exculpate an office holder from his liability to the company for any of the following:

- a breach by the office holder of his duty of loyalty unless, with respect to insurance coverage, the office holder acted in good faith and had a reasonable basis to believe that the act would not prejudice the company;
- a breach by the office holder of his duty of care if the breach was committed intentionally or recklessly;
- any act or omission committed with the intent to yield an unlawful personal benefit; or
- any fine imposed on the office holder.

In addition, under the Israeli Companies Law, indemnification of, and procurement of insurance coverage for, an office holder must be approved by the company's audit committee and board of directors and, in the event that such office holder is a director, also by the company's shareholders.

The Registrant's Articles of Association allow the Registrant to exculpate any office holder to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Registrant's Articles of Association also allow the Registrant to procure insurance for the liability of any past or present office holder to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Registrant currently maintains a directors and officers liability insurance policy for certain claims, which also covers the directors and officers of Registrant and its subsidiaries. Additionally, the Registrant's Articles of Association allow the Registrant to indemnify any past or present office holder to the fullest extent permitted by law.

- (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act);

- (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment hereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement; and provided, however, that paragraphs (1)(i) and (1)(ii) above do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.
