Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously reported, on November 17, 2009, Omega Healthcare Investors, Inc. (“Omega”) entered into a securities purchase agreement with CapitalSource Inc. (“CapitalSource”) and certain of its subsidiaries, pursuant to which Omega agreed, subject to the terms and conditions of the purchase agreement, to purchase (i) certain CapitalSource subsidiaries owning 40 long-term care facilities unencumbered by third party financing (the “Core Portfolio”), (ii) certain CapitalSource subsidiaries owning 40 long-term care facilities encumbered by long-term mortgage financing guaranteed by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (the “HUD Portfolio”), and (iii) and an option to purchase certain other CapitalSource subsidiaries owning an additional 63 long-term care facilities (the “Option Portfolio”). As previously reported, on December 22, 2009, Omega closed on its acquisition of the Core Portfolio, and on April 19, 2010, Omega provided CapitalSource with notice of its intent to exercise its option to purchase the Option Portfolio. Omega anticipates acquiring the HUD Portfolio and the Option Portfolio during the second quarter of 2010. Omega’s acquisition of each of the HUD Portfolio and the Option Portfolio is subject to customary closing conditions, and there can be no assurance that the transactions will be consummated.

This Current Report on Form 8-K provides certain financial and pro forma information required under Item 9.01 of Form 8-K regarding the facilities that constitute the HUD Portfolio and the Option Portfolio.

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including statements about the purchase of the CapitalSource entities, which are subject to numerous conditions, requirements, adjustments, options, assumptions, risks and uncertainties. All statements contained in this release that are not clearly historical in nature are forward-looking, and the words “anticipate,” “assume,” “intend,” “believe,” “expect,” “estimate,” “plan,” “goal,” “will,” “continue,” “should,” and similar generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. All forward-looking statements (including statements regarding future transactions) involve risks, uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond our control, which may cause actual results, performance or achievements to differ materially from anticipated results, performance or achievements. Actual results could differ materially from those contained or implied by such statements for a variety of factors, including without limitation: the remaining CapitalSource transactions may not be completed on the proposed terms and schedule or at all; changes in economic or market conditions; continued or worsening recession in the overall economy or disruptions in credit and other markets; movements in interest rates and lending spreads; continued or worsening credit losses, charge-offs, reserves and delinquencies; our ability to successfully and cost effectively operate our business; competitive and other market pressures on product pricing and services; success and timing of our business strategies; the nature, extent and timing of governmental actions and reforms; changes in tax laws or regulations affecting our business; and other factors described in Omega’s 2009 Annual Report on Form 10-K and documents subsequently filed by Omega with the Securities and Exchange Commission. All forward-looking statements included in this report are based on information available at the time of this report. Omega is under no obligation to (and expressly disclaims any such obligation to) update or alter forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable law.
